

|          | LATIN ROOTS.             | MEANING.           | DERIVATIVES  |
|----------|--------------------------|--------------------|--|
| icate,   | impero            | I command          | imperial, imperious, imperative, empire, emperor                       |
|          | insula            | an island          | insulate, insular, peninsular  |
|          | jacio             | I throw            | subject, subjection, object, deject, inject, interjection, reject      |
| educt,   | judex             | a judge            | judge, judicial, judicious, prejudice                                  |
|          | x jungo (junctum) | I join             | junction, juncture, conjunction  |
| te       | juro              | I swear            | jury, juror, injure, perjury   |
| te       | lego (lectum)     | I gather or read   | lecture, legend, legible, collect, select, recollect, elect, intellect |
|          | levis             | light              | levity, elevate, —or, relieve, alleviate                               |
| y        | lex (legem)       | law                | legal, legality, legitimate, legislature                               |
| effect,  | liber             | free               | liberal, liberate, liberty, deliver                                    |
| ient     | liber             | a book             | library, librarian   |
| fault    | litera            | a letter           | letter, literal, literature, literary, al-literation               |
| differ,  | locus             | a place            | local, locate, locomotive, dislocate                                   |
|          | luna              | the moon           | lunar, lunatic, lunacy   |
| s        | magnus            | great              | magnify, magnitude, magnificent, magnate, magistrate                   |
| l        | malus             | bad                | malady, malice, malediction, malign, maltreat                          |
| luenza,  | manus             | the hand           | manual, manufacture, manuscript, man-acle                          |
| effort   | mare              | the sea            | marine, mariner, maritime, sub-marine                                  |
| gment,   | mater             | a mother           | maternal, matron   |
|          | medius            | the middle         | medium, mediate, Mediterranean   |
|          | mens (mentem)     | the mind           | mental, demented, comment, mention                                     |
| piece    | merx (mercem)     | traffic            | commerce, mercantile, merchant, mercenary                              |
| fuge     | migro             | I remove or wander | migrate, emigrate, immigrate   |
| ngratu-  | mille             | a thousand         | million, millimetre, millennium  |
|          | mirus             | wonderful          | admire, miracle, mirage, mirror  |
| , grieve | miser             | wretched           | miser, misery, miserable, commiserate                                  |
| tate     | mitto (missum)    | I send             | admit, commit, omit, remit, submit, missile, missive, mission          |
| side     | mors (mortem)     | death              | mortal, immortal, mortify, mortgage                                    |
|          | multus            | many               | multiple, multiply, multitude  |
|          | navis             | a ship             | navy, naval, navigate  |
| iliate   | noceo             | I hurt             | innocent, noxious, obnoxious, nuisance                                 |
|          | novus             | new                | novel, novelty, novice, renovate                                       |
|          | moveo             | I move      | remove, commotionpromotion, remote                         |