

Who may Vote.

5. Every voter whose name is on the Voters' List of the polling subdivision may vote; provided, if required, he takes the oath or affirmation prescribed to be taken by voters. Section 90 and 91.

Oath.

6. A voter may select the form of oath he will take, either 18 or 20 Schedule A., except income voters or wage earners who take the oath form 19. Amendment, 1885.

Refusing the Oath.

7. A voter refusing to take the oath cannot subsequently be admitted to vote; and if the Deputy Returning Officer afterwards gives such person a ballot, he is liable to a fine of two hundred dollars. Sub-section 6, section 90.

Residence of Voters.

8. The voter must at the date of the final revision of the Assessment Roll, and also at the date of the election, be a resident of and domiciled in the Electoral District.

Income voters and wage earners must have resided in the Electoral District continuously since the final revision of the Assessment Roll up to and including the day of the election.

Landholders' sons must have resided at home on the property for twelve months previous to the Election. Temporary absence in all not exceeding six months does not disqualify.

When you swear a voter see that the proper date is inserted in the oath. [See the oaths.]

Qualification.

9. No question of qualification can be raised at any Election, except to ascertain whether the person tendering his vote is the same person intended to be designated in the Voters' List.

Sections 73 & 91.

Penalty for attempting to vote more than once.

10. No person shall attempt to vote at more than one polling place under a penalty of two hundred dollars. Section 86.

Initialling Ballot.

11. The Deputy Returning Officer shall place his name or initials on the back of each ballot, but no other mark or figure of any kind before handing it to the voter. Sub-section 7, section 90.

Voter Marking Ballot.

12. The voter shall then in the compartment provided, place a cross, thus X, on the right hand side opposite the name of the Reform Candidate, and shall hold the ballot paper so as to conceal the names of the Candidates, but showing the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer and the printed number on the back of the ballot, and then hand it to the Deputy Returning Officer, who will put it into the ballot box. Section 97.

Inability to Mark Ballot.

13. A person unable to mark his ballot, on making a declaration that he is unable to read, shall have it marked for him, as he may indicate, by the Deputy Returning Officer in presence of the Agents. Section 100.
