

I believe, from my own observation, that there is no part of United Canada, or upon the American borders, that surpasses old Missisquoi, and its people, in integrity, wealth, and material prosperity.

With the blessing of Heaven, our destiny is onward —if we prove true to ourselves, and assign to the care of our own citizens, our civil and political rights.