

To the Right Honorable
Stanley
Sir

consideration which have arisen in the Canadian people of manifesting this appreciation is the sincere regret of the not permit you to make a longer hope that this period of relaxation desired rest and that you will return your journey through the has been and is being made the belief that in the generations to come Dominion for millions of subjects conclude this address with prosperity may be vouches and that you may all carry away its loyal people.

Signed and Toronto

on behalf of its citizens I have the greatest possible pleasure and gratification in extending to you, your dear wife Mrs Baldwin, and the members of your family who are with you warm and hearty welcome to this the Capital City of the Province of Ontario.

I am greatly impressed with the serious responsibility of your high office as Prime Minister of Great Britain, and fully realize that the task of solving the grave and important national problems arising from time to time is one of utmost difficulty requiring the most able, careful and constant whole-hearted efforts in dealing with the grave situations during your term of office are most heartily appreciated by us and we feel sure that they will accept every opportunity of rendering splendid services to the Empire. I am confident throughout the Dominion that circumstances will be such in Canada, May we be allowed to express the hope as it may be will furnish you with your much needed rest in England fully impounded and in the best of health. I am sure we feel sure that the development and progress which is being made in our country will not escape your observation, and we confidently cherish the belief that in the generations to come our Dominion will be ever true in their allegiance to the British Crown. I earnestly wish that the blessings of health, happiness and prosperity may be yours, yourself, your dear wife, and the members of your family and that you may all carry away with you most pleasant memories of this visit to Canada and its loyal people.

Signed on behalf of the Corporation of the City of Toronto
4th day of August 1927.

W. A. ...