Every book deserves your earnest consideration

Men in the Making

By AMBROSE SHEPHERD, D.D.

A study of the forces for good and for evil by which men are surrounded and by which they are apt to be influenced.

A Young Man's Religion

By GEORGE JACKSON, B.A.

Mr. Jackson does not contend that the young man needs a different religion from his grandparents, but he needs it differently—his temptations and inspirations being of a different nature from theirs.

The Law of the Ten Words

By PRINCIPAL J. OSWALD DYKES, D.D.

Original and vastly suggestive helps to a better understanding of the fullest application of the Ten Commandments.

The Ten Commandments

By R. W. DALE, LL.D. (Birmingham)

A book which at the time it appeared, as ever since, has been the classic on the Decalogue.

Prayers from Plymouth Pulpit

By HENRY WARD BEECHER

These prayers cover the whole range of pulpit petition as well as brief prayers in the class-room.

Imago Christi

By PROF. JAMES STALKER, D.D.

A book which deals with the example of Christ in its bearing upon daily conduct.

The Redeemed Family of God

By J. H. JOWETT, D.D.

A study of the Epistles of Peter from the expository and devotional standpoint. In this Dr. Jowett is at his best. It is up to the present his only purely expository work.

The Cross in Christian Experience

By REV. W. M. CLOW, B.D.

The atmosphere of the book is sacramental, the language homely and simple, and the evangelical earnestness of the man who loses himself in his message is apparent on every page.

Christianity and the Social Crisis

By WALTER RAUSCHENBUSCH

The outstanding book on the relation of the Church to social questions.

The Forgiveness of Sins

AND OTHER SERMONS

By PRINCIPAL GEORGE ADAM SMITH

A collection of sermons truly great, alike illustrating the human character of the Bible narrative and insight into its spiritual meaning.

Positive Preaching and the Modern Mind

By PRINCIPAL P. T. FORSYTH, D.D.

Dr. Forsyth deals with the subject matter of preaching rather than with the preacher, the message rather than the man.

The Living Christ and the Four Gospels

By R. W. DALE, LL.D. (Birmingham)

This is at once one of the clearest and best volumes on apologetics for the lay reader.
