

PORT HANEY, B. C.—The Burrard Flame Company intend locating large power works near this town and purpose bringing water from Lillooet lake in a flume.

WOODSTOCK, N. B.—J. C. Hartley will receive tenders up to April 6th for furnishing 650 lineal feet of granite curbing. Specifications at office of A. Henderson.

BELLEVILLE, ONT.—The Belleville Portland Cement Company will receive tenders up to April 10th for erection of a number of workmen's houses at Point Anne.

ST. EUSTACHE, QUE.—The Great Northern Railway Company are surveying for a new line from this town to connect with the railway running out from Carillon.

MORRISBURG, ONT.—Simpson & Lewis, Ottawa, have been engaged as consulting engineers for the town for the building of a power plant for the Canada Tin Plate Company.

SPRINGHILL, N. S.—John Murray is erecting a large block in which the Bank of Nova Scotia will have offices.—D. Rogers intends erecting a store building and four houses.

STAFFORD, ONT.—Tenders will be received by R. Orr, Rector, Micksburg, up to April 14th, for the erection of St. Stephen's church. Plans at Walter Beatty's factory, Pembroke.

WEYBURN, SASK.—Hutchison & Nobles, architects, Regina, will receive tenders up to April 17th for constructing a church here. Plans with architects and at office of Black & Hillier.

LIME LAKE, ONT.—A. C. McConnell will receive tenders up to April 16th for erection of a Methodist church here. Plans with Rev. C. W. DeMille, Robin, and with N. McCutcheon, Marlbank.

UNBRIDGE, ONT.—A report on the remodelling and construction of the waterworks system for both fire and domestic service has been received from John Galt, consulting engineer, Toronto.

ALEXANDRIA, ONT.—F. Gelinas, Secretary Department of Public Works, Ottawa, will receive tenders up to April 6th for the erection of a post office building. Plans with above named and with Postmaster here.

SPRUCE GROVE, ALTA.—C. Weidenhammer will receive tenders up to April 20th for erection of a Lutheran church here. Plans with H. A. Magoon, architect, Edmonton, Rev. J. Goos and the above named.

INDIAN HEAD, SASK.—A. M. Fraser & Company have plans prepared for several houses.—Tenders are being asked up to April 17th for construction of waterworks system here. John Galt, Toronto, consulting engineer.

MALAGASH, N. S.—Fred. Gelinas, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, will receive tenders up to April 21st for building a wharf here. Plans at his office, at the post office here, and with C. E. W. Dodwell, Halifax, N. S.

PERTH, ONT.—A by-law to buy a site for the Carnegie library has been passed. The Library Board of the Town will shortly call for plans from architects for the building, the cost of same not to exceed $10,000. Particulars later.

WOLFVILLE, N. S.—W. F. Woodworth will build a fine residence on Linden avenue.—Mrs. Hutchinson will build a house on Prospect street.—C. H. Borden is making plans for an addition to his store.—G. A. Crozier contemplates erecting a fine building.

HUMBER BAY, ONT.—The Budd Brickmaking Company have purchased land on the West shore Srood on which they will erect a plant at a cost of about $40,000.—Henry Buckwell will establish a brickmaking plant on the Lake Shore road west of the Humber.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—The following building permits have been granted: D. Kaiser, brick dwelling, Lakeview avenue, cost $3,000; J. M. Alderson, residence, Lakeview avenue, cost $1,500; W. Trombly, brick house, Dundas street, cost $3,500.

SYDNEY MINES, N. S.—The Town Council have decided on additions to school buildings to cost $5,000, a new town hall to cost $10,000 and street improvements and sidewalk extensions to cost $15,000.—Joseph Woods will build a residence near Beach Hill.

PARKER'S COVE, N. S.—Tenders will be received by Fred Gelinas, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, Ont., up to April 21st for breakwater extension here. Plans at his office, also at office of C. E. W. Dodwell, Resident Engineer, Halifax, N. S., and the post office here.

EBURNE, B. C.—The British Columbia Market Company, of Vancouver and Victoria, have purchased land here on which they will construct an abattoir to cost $25,000.—W. H. Higgins has sold a lot to a syndicate of Michigan capitalists on which a large saw mill will be erected.

BARRIE, ONT.—Fred Marr will receive tenders up to April 6th for the erection of a new school house in Allandale and for system of heating, ventilation and plumbing. Plans at office of above, Ross Block, Dunlop street, and with R. J. Edwards, architect, 18 Toronto street, Toronto.

KENORA, ONT.—G. M. Roich has had plans prepared for a two-storey brick building on Main street.—The town is considering the addition of another storey to the Municipal offices for a Council chamber.—The proposed Railroad Y. M. C. A. building, corner Matheson and Railroad streets, will be brick and stone and cost about $20,000.

PETERBORO', ONT.—F. Adams, Chairman Fire, Water and Light Committee, will receive tenders up to April 9th for erection of new fire hall building.—W. C. P. Heathcote, C. E., is preparing plans for the new factory of the Brinton Carpet Company. It will be one storey, concrete, with steel roof. Tenders will soon be called for.

REGINA, SASK.—It is stated that the C. P. R. intends erecting a hotel here this season.—The Traders Bank have secured an option on a site, corner Scath and South Railway streets, for a new bank building.—There is a proposition before the City Council for the building of a union station here for the C. P. R., G. T. P. R., G. N. R. and C. N. R.

SOURIS, MAN.—J. W. Breakey will receive tenders up to May 19th for the following: Construction of concrete culvert through creek, one mile east of this town; construction of two steel spans 90 feet each on concrete abutments and for a steel bridge across the Souris river at Monteith junction. Specifications at office of above named and at Public Works Department, Parliament Buildings, Winnipeg.

LONDON, ONT.—The Bank of Hamilton is said to be negotiating for a site corner of Richmond and King streets for a bank building. The Traders' Bank is also looking for a site.—The following building permits have been issued: R. G. Wilson, brick house, corner St. James and Richmond streets; J. M. Hickey, residence on Central ave.; B. N. Campbell, two-storey brick residence on St. James street.

FORT WILLIAM, ONT.—P. J. Pilkey will build a two-storey block on Victoria avenue.—It is said that the Canadian Northern Railway will erect large office buildings at the approach of the freight shed dock.—The Presbyterian congregation have decided to enlarge their church at a cost of $10,000.—S. C. Young will receive tenders up to April 17th for the erection of a High school building here. Plans at office of H. R. Halton, architect.

HAMILTON, ONT.—The Hamilton Galt & Guelph Railway are seeking incorporation to construct an electric railway from Hamilton to Elmira.—The following building permits have been issued: C. H. Roper, brick house, Emerald street, cost $1,200; George E. Mills, two brick houses, Grant avenue, cost $2,500; Charles Makison, brick house, Wentworth street, cost $1,600; D. Kelly, two brick houses, corner Tisdale and Wilson streets, $1,600 each.

QUEBEC, QUE.—Ouellet & Levesque, architects, are preparing plans and specifications for a Roman Catholic church at Ancienne Lorette to cost approximately $80,000. Tenders will be invited next June.—Fred Gelinas, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, will receive tenders up to April 23rd for extension to hospital wharf at Grosse Ile. Plans at his office and at offices of C. Desjardins, Post Office building, Montreal, and A. R. Decary, 5 Du Fort street, this city.—J. Gallagher will receive tenders up to April 17th for iron and brass castings, forge work, lead pipe and pig lead, cement, brick and drain pipes.—Aug. Malouin will receive tenders up to April 10th for supply of 2,000 feet of fire hose.

OTTAWA, ONT.—Some Ottawa capitalists have secured an option on a site, corner Wellington and Lyon streets, for a large apartment house to cost $60,000.—The Grand Trunk Railway have had plans prepared for the erection of a central station and hotel east of the canal, near Little Sussex street, to cost over $1,000,000.—The Building Committee of the Public School Board have approved of Superintendent Garvock's plans for a four-roomed brick addition to Cleighton street school.—The Transcontinental Railway Commission will soon call for tenders for ties and rails for the lines between Winnipeg and Lake Superior Junction and between Quebec and the headwaters of the St. Maurice river.—J. P. MacLaren, architect, will receive tenders up to April 17th for the erection of Stewarston Presbyterian church.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C.—Plans have been prepared and tenders will soon be invited for the erection of William Power's three-storey frame hotel on Columbia street east, cost about $5,000.—J. Henry, Marysville, Wash., is looking for a site here for a saw mill.—The British Columbia Distillery Company have plans prepared for additions to their works. These will include three-storey brick shipping and bottling warehouse, two-storey brick cooperage and six large stock buildings; cost $60,000.—The Schaake Machine Company are considering plans for the erection of a two-storey show-room, 30 x 60 feet.—It is expected that the Council will have the old Carnarvon street bridge soon replaced by a steel structure to cost about $5,000.—C. Dore and F. Allan, Vancouver, have been looking for a site here for the establishment of a cement block factory.—The Board of Managers of the Royal Columbian Hospital are preparing for the erection of a new hospital here to cost about $40,000.—Grant & Henderson, architects, are taking tenders this week for erection of a brick block, corner Columbia and Sixth streets.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Grant & Henderson, architects, will soon call for tenders for erection of a block on Cordova