STUDENT CRUSADERS

This is the import of a letter addressed to the Canadian Catholic Students' Mission Crusade by one of our Venerable Archbishops. We quote his communication in full:
"Two years ago a convention of eight thousand students was held in Omaha for the purpose of arousing ministers with three greens." a missionary spirit. Three special trains were required to carry students from all the provinces of Canada to that Convention. But they were all Protestant Students. It is surely time for Catholic Students in Canada. It is surely time for Catholic Students in Canada to become interested in the conversion on the non-Christian world. To every student in Canada these words must convey a powerful and personal message. To every student in College, Convent or High school must the question suggest itself, "Am I interested in the conversion of the non-Christian world?" Surely of the non-Christian world?" Surely the answer will be a lond-ringing—Yes. Every true Catholic Student is interested in the cause of the Missions. But these eight thousand students assembled in a convention—they were organized—they realized that in unity there is strength. Again must be answered these questions, "Are we, Catholic Students organized? Do we belong to the Canadian Catholic Students Mission Crusade? Has our School a Mission Crusade? Has our School a Mission Unit?" Perhaps the reply will be

Yet today, there exists a Students'
Crusade Movement—an organization which hopes to establish a Mission Unit in every institution of learning in Canada; to enroll every student as a Crusader under the motto of "The Kingdom of the World for its King and Lord." Will you, Student Reader, harken to our invitation to unite, and write for information regarding this public. for information regarding this noble work to C. C. S. M.
