BY A CANADIAN AUTHOR,
M. BOUCHIER SANFORD.
The Romance
Of a * * *
Jesuit Mission.

AN HISTORICAL NOVEL.
CLOTH, $1 25.

"The author evidently not only made a careful study of the authorities, including Lafitan, but has visited the chief scenes of the apostolic toils, conflicts, tortures and martyrdom of those devoted men. Miss Sanford has dealt with the 'Jesuit Mission' with knowledge, delicacy and judgment. The book ought to have many readers in Canada."—Montreal Gazette.

"It is full of interest as to the tale, and very delightful in the manner of telling. It is a marvel in the naturalness with which the pattern of the story is worked on the background of history."—Montreal Herald.

"The intensely interesting episode of the destruction of the Jesuit Mission in Canadian history is made the background of this stirring story. . . . The theme is one that lends itself with readiness to romantic narrative. This is a tale that should stir the sympathetic pulses of every Canadian reader."—Methodist Magazine and Review.
