

Date of such Conveyance, and may comprise in any one Certificate a Schedule of all, or any number, of such Conveyances, which Certificate shall be to such Register a sufficient authority in place of a Memorial, to Record such Conveyance, or Conveyances, respectively.

XX.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Register of any County, having received from the Sheriff such Certificate as above mentioned, shall, on production of any Conveyance made under the authority of this Act, enter on Record a transcript of such Conveyance, which shall be deemed to be a sufficient Registry thereof, and for such Registry, and the Certificate thereof, in the usual form, the Register shall be entitled to receive of the Party, the Sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence, and no more.

Registers to enter a transcript of Conveyances on record, and grant a certificate thereof which shall be deemed a sufficient Registry.

Fees to Register.

XXI.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Treasurer shall delay to make the Returns or Accounts required of him by this Act, for Two Courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, after that in which the same ought by this Act to be presented, he shall by such neglect, on conviction thereof at the Assizes, forfeit his Office; and the Justices of such District, shall forthwith appoint another Treasurer in his room, according to Law; and if the Justices shall neglect to make such appointment, then it shall be Lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, to appoint another in his room during pleasure, taking such security to His Majesty, for the due performance of the said Office, as to the said Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, shall seem just.

Treasurers neglecting to make returns shall, on conviction, forfeit their office; and Justices may appoint another Treasurer; and upon neglect of the Justices, the Governor may appoint one during pleasure.

XXII.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no omission of any direction contained in this Act, relative to Notices, or forms of proceeding, previous to any Sale made under this Act, shall extend to render such Sale invalid; but the Person guilty of any such omission or neglect, shall be liable to punishment therefor and shall answer to the Party for any damages occasioned thereby, in any Legal Proceeding that may be properly instituted for that purpose.

Sales not to be avoided for neglect of officers adhering to the mode and forms hereby established, but officers to answer the party grieved.

XXIII.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Monies received by the Sheriffs of the several Districts under this Act, shall be by them paid to the Treasurer of their respective Districts, and shall be appropriated and applied in the same manner as the Monies collected under the said Act, passed in the Fifty Ninth Year of his Late Majesty's Reign.

Monies collected how to be accounted for.

XXIV.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid; That the Treasurer of each District shall be entitled to receive the Sum of Five Pounds in Account with the District, for every Account furnished under this Act, and may deduct the same Sum to his own use, out of Monies paid into his Hands under this Act, as out of other Assessments by the Laws now in force.

Fees to the Treasurers.

XXV.—And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Clerk of the Peace in every District shall receive for each Writ, which he shall make out, for the several Townships in his District, under this Act, the Sum of Ten Shillings.
