McLaughlin & Co.

The People's Cheese Factory will begin operations next Monday.
The ice-cream season commenced in Gorrie on Saturday evening last.

We draw attention to the change in Allison's advertisement this week.
Court of revision will be held in the township hall, Gorrie, on Friday afternoon.

Mr. James Young and family have returned to Gorrie after an extended visit in London, Ont.

Brussels and Gorrie will play a football match in this village sometime in the latter part of next week.

We learn that Mr. Doig's trotting horse, although almost entirely unfitted for the track, took second place in the fast race at Harriston on May 24th.

There is as yet, no signs of reorganizing the "Union" base ball club. It is too bad that after winning so enviable a reputation the club should be allowed to become defunct through lassitude.

Queen's birthday passed very quietly in Gorrie, a large number visiting the sports in neighboring towns. A slight rain in the afternoon prevented much out-door amusement although croquet, quills, fishing and other pastimes were indulged in by some.

Mr. Alex. Strong's little child accidentally spilled a bottle of poisonous medicine upon itself on Sunday evening last, and it was feared at the time that some of the fluid had been swallowed. Fortunately such proved to be not the case and the little one is now quite recovered.

Mr. Henry Harding was taken suddenly ill while in attendance at the garden party given at Mr. Perkins on Wednesday evening. Dr. Tuck was at once called and under his skill Mr. Harding is now much improved. His illness was of a mild apoplectic nature.

A very enjoyable garden party, in aid of the organ fund of the English Church, was held at the residence of Jas. Perkins, Esq., on the evening of the Queen's birthday. Notwithstanding the wet weather the spacious rooms of that gentleman's residence were crowded, the time being spent in social converse, etc. An excellent supper was served during the evening and the entertainment realized $30.

Rev. T. A. Wright, who has been the pastor of the English Church here for some years past, left on Wednesday morning for his new field of labor at Brautford, accompanied by his family. A large number were at the station to bid them good-bye. The rev. gentleman has endeared himself to all creeds by his zealous, earnest labor for the good of all while here and we only re-echo the general feeling of this section in wishing him and his estimable family every prosperity in their new home.

The tolling of the English Church bell last Sunday evening announced the death of Mr. James Armstrong, an old and highly respected farmer who has been a resident of the township for about a quarter of a century past, his farm being on the 12th con., just north of Gorrie. The old gentleman had almost reached his 80th year and always enjoyed robust health until late in the winter when he accidentally fell and had one of his limbs broken. Since then he has been a severe sufferer and owing to his extreme age the wound did not heal and he grew gradually weaker until his death which occurred at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday. Deceased was born in Ireland but came to Canada in his youth, settling in Whitby township where he remained for many years, and then moved to Howick. He was an upright, honest man and a consistent member of the English Church, attending services in Gorrie, where his familiar, manly form was well known. Although a staunch, unflinching Conservative he was in no sense overbearing and numbers among his true mourners all political and religious creeds. He leaves four children: John and Miss Lizzie, on the homestead; James studying medicine in Toronto, and Mrs. B. Scott, of this village. His wife preceded him to the grave many years ago. He joined the Orange order when 17 years, so has been a member for almost 63 years. The Gorrie lodge, with which he has been affiliated for many years, took charge of his large funeral, which occurred on Sunday, and Brethren were present from Fordwich, Newbridge and other places to give the last honors to the brother who had been a personal friend to all for so many years.

Mr. I. Green, of Arthur, accompanied by his sons Roy and Allan, spent Queen's birthday with relatives in Gorrie.

Mrs. A. B. Allison is in Wingham at present visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Green, who is just now in ill health.

Rev. Mr. Hall, of Bervie, will conduct the services in the Fordwich, Gorrie and Wroxeter English churches on Sunday next.

Large number of fish are caught in the river here every day. Although no trout are caught in the Maitland the fun is quite attractive.

Mr. Dane is having the Albion hotel made beautiful by a judicious application of wall paper and calcimine. The rooms which are finished present a splendid appearance.

Wiggins & Walker are making extensive alterations in the church building which they recently purchased and will soon own one of the most neatly arranged livery stables in the county.

Mr. Green, of Mildmay, has charge of McKelvie & Rife's wool-buying business in this village. He arrived in town on Tuesday and already has the store arranged in attractive shape.

Mr. Frank Davidson of the Model Farm 9th con., reports that he has fall wheat 25 inches long growing on his farm. This beats the record by nearly two feet for this time of the year.

On Tuesday last Mr. Samuel Vogan passed through Gorrie on his way home 18th con., Howick, from a two months trip to Manitoba. He has disposed of the fine entire horse which he took with him and he also purchased land in the Northwest.

The excavation for the new Methodist church is about completed and the foundation will shortly be commenced. Preparations for the laying of the corner stones on Dominion Day, are already being commenced.

Revs. Crossley and Hunter, who are holding revivals in Wingham at present, spent last Saturday afternoon and evening in Gorrie as guests of Rev. Mr. Carter, whose two children they christened on the occasion.

Gorrie foot-ball club took part in the tournament at Brussels on the 24th. A combination team from Listowel High School and Atwood won the prize, $15, against a team made up from Brussels, Gorrie, and Wroxeter, by a score of 8 to 1.

At the District L. O. L. meeting held in Gorrie last Saturday afternoon, it was decided that the Howick District should celebrate the 12th of July in the village of Arthur this year. Excursion arrangements will be made and proper announcements duly given.

Mr. Anson Spotton, son of Mr. John Spotton, of Orange Hill, attending school at Belleville, Ont., was elected to the position of Deputy Grand Master of the O. Y. B. at the meeting of the Grand Lodge held in Ottawa last week. We are satisfied the Young Britons have made a wise choice, and we congratulate our young friend upon his honorable preferment.

The Busy Gleaners' social last Friday evening was a very pleasant affair. Besides the tasty lunch served there was a really fine program. One of the features of the evening was the club swinging exercises by Misses. Green and Torrance, and Messrs. John and Sam. Kaine. Speeches, songs, recitations, etc. followed each other in rapid succession and were of an excellent nature.

Our thanks are due to A. McKim & Co. Montreal, for a copy of the Canadian Newspaper Directory for 1892. It is a magnificently printed work and contains almost everything about Canadian newspapers worth knowing. Its typographical appearance is especially praiseworthy and the advertisements are set up in a stylish, tasty manner which would do credit to a type foundry specimen book.

Master Henry Wright, who passed his entrance examination at the Gorrie public school, took the highest number of marks in a test made by a class of 80 pupils, in third-class certificate work at the Harriston High School the other day. Last year Miss Padfield, also of this school, headed this list. Principal Campbell is to be congratulated upon these pronounced evidences of his skill as a teacher which have been fairly showering upon him of late years.

Second Line Items.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Jno. Patterson, Sr., is recovering from a severe attack of La Grippe.

Mr. Jno. McDermitt shipped a carload of fat steers from Gowansdown, on Monday last, to the Old Country market.

Mr. Ben Cook purposes improving the old homestead this summer by erecting a handsome brick mansion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edgar have returned from a very pleasant visit with their friends in Wellesley.

The Masons have commenced work at Messrs. Patterson and Roadhouse's houses.

Wroxeter.
Fox's wall paper still to the front.

Mr. Jno. Sanderson shipped about a ton weight of butter on Monday last.

Mr. Jno. Amer has bought the business and good will of Mr. Jno. Walden as carriage maker. The latter gentleman will seek a new home in other lands.

Mrs. Richard Miller, and her sister, Miss Lulu Goffon, are visiting friends in Fergus this week.

Wampole's tasteless Cod Liver Oil for sale at Fox's drug store.

Mr. Jno. Rutherford has returned from Toronto, suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Our friend from the north, Tom B. was in town last week. While here he was actively engaged in business having traded off a jack-knife and a mutilated month organ before he got word that the White-Caps were again on the war-path. He did not conclude a watch deal in which he was engaged, but left town to meditate upon his past experience with these unruly people.

Pure, fresh Hellebore for currant worms, at Fox's drug store.

When a person makes himself distasteful to the boys here he is liable to be treated with unusual familiarity. The other evening one of these was unceremoniously treated to a ducking in a watering trough, and was otherwise used in what he considered an unfriendly spirit, for he left town immediately upon his release and was said to have been singing when he left: "I'll gae na mair tae your toon—Tae your toon," etc.

A couple of men here are in the habit of shocking people by their profanity on the public streets. There is talk of having them brought before a magistrate.

It is said a ladies' early walking and athletic society has been formed here. The athletic grounds are in a field near the village.

Our foot-ball team went to Brussels on the 24th, but, like Gorrie, didn't succeed in bringing home first prize.

The I. O. O. F. hall is now completely fitted and will compare favorably with any lodge room in the Province outside the cities.

Fordwich.
The sad news reached here on Monday from Manitoba of the death of Mr. Archie Downey, formerly of the 10th concession of this township, who removed to Manitoba three years ago.

Deceased was in his usual health up to three weeks before his death, which occurred on the 12th inst. It appears he went some distance from home and on his return fell sick. He sent for a doctor who first said he had only a cold or an attack of la grippe. Archie appeared to know he was going to die, and sent for his sister, who lives north of Virdeau, to come and see him die. He grew rapidly worse and soon bid farewell to sorrowing friends. He seemed to be prepared for the change, and some of his last words were:

"How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear;
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fears."

He was a steward in the Methodist Church, a respectable citizen, an honest and obliging neighbor and highly esteemed in the community in which he lived. He died in the prime of life leaving a wife and five children, three sisters, three brothers and an aged father to mourn his loss. "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh."

He dies in that lone land,
Without a brother's hand
To lay him in the grave.

BORN.
In Wroxeter, on the 19th inst., the wife of Mr. Alex. Stewart, of a daughter.
In Wroxeter, on the 23rd inst., the wife of Mr. J. H. Cameron, of a daughter.

DIED.
ARMSTRONG.—In Howick, on Sunday, May 23rd, 1892, James Armstrong, aged 79 years, 11 months and 43 days.
