Ballot Paper

The ballot papers for the purpose of the voting under this Act shall be in the following terms:

Are you in favour of prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of spirits, wine, ale, beer, cider, and all other alcoholic liquors for use as beverages? YES NO

Directions for the Guidance of Electors in Voting.

Each Elector on entering the room where the Poll is to be held shall declare his name, surname and address.

After so doing he shall receive a Ballot Paper in the above form.

Each Elector if required by the Deputy Returning Officer, the Poll Clerk or one of the agents, shall, before receiving his Ballot Paper, take an oath of qualification.

After receiving his Ballot Paper, the voter shall go into one of the compartments and with a pencil there provided, place a cross to indicate his vote on the question at issue.

An affirmative vote on the question submitted shall be made by placing a cross (thus X) in the space after the word "Yes," and a negative vote by placing a similar cross in the space after the word "No."

The voter will then fold the Ballot Paper, so as to show a portion of the back only, with the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer and shall hand it folded up to the Deputy Returning Officer, and the Deputy Returning Officer shall, without unfolding it, ascertain that it is the Ballot Paper which he furnished the elector, and then immediately place it in the Ballot Box. The voter shall forthwith leave the Polling Station.

If a voter inadvertently spots a Ballot Paper he may return it to the Deputy Returning Officer, who shall give him another.

If a voter places any mark on the Ballot Paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void, and will not be counted.

If a voter takes a Ballot or Ballot Paper out of the Polling Station, or fraudulently puts any other into the Ballot Box than the Paper given him by the Deputy Returning Officer, he will be subject to be punished by a fine of Five Hundred Dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding Six Months, with or without hard labour.

JOHN W. WADLAND,
Returning Officer.

Big Prohibition Rally at Norris' Arm

(Editor Mail and Advocate)

Dear Sir,—A Prohibition meeting was held at Norris' Arm in the C. of E. schoolroom, the speakers were Rev. W. T. D. Dunn of Grand Falls and Rev. Seeley of Millertown; Mr. Wm. Drover of Brown's Arm was voted to the chair. Although, as he claimed, was non-resident of Twillingate District, he thought it would be much more in harmony if a resident filled this position, but under the circumstances he would do his very best in the interest of Prohibition cause, and we were all impressed with his opening remarks, showing up the benefits that this Colony would derive provided the "Prohibition Plebiscite" came into force, which no doubt it will.

The first speaker was Rev. Seeley, he outlined to the audience the idea of the meeting, and also the abuses of the liquor traffic in this and other countries, also the explaining fully the "Election Act" on this subject of Prohibition.

Rev. W. T. D. Dunn being always a great advocate of Prohibition, came next and gave us very lengthy address, showing up first why the country would be in as good circumstances after "Prohibition" passed, and in fact better both financially and morally. The chief argument put up the anti-Prohibition element, the Colony's revenue would suffer, but this was shown to be absurd, cause the money to-day which is going to enrich a few public saloons in the city of St. John's, would be put to much more profitable purposes than it is to-day and the average duty collected would be at least 35 per cent. Thereby our revenue would be much larger than heretofore. That if this Colony has to depend upon the "public saloons" for its revenue, it's high time that we should forego the claim of "self governing" Colony.

Again, another argument put up to bluff the electorate is the "disinterested voter," and our friend Revd. Dunn explained to us why we to-day are making sacrifices for the Motherland in this great war and for equal rights to all, showing that I am able to take my glass and refuse it, having a will power of my own, and why should I interfere with rights of others. I think that is a great mistake, there are hundreds and thousands to-day that would be good upright honourable citizens if the temptation was removed; it is true you cannot persuade men into sobriety but how can you prohibit those temptations from coming in your friends way. I am sorry I could not define more fully this eloquent address just now.

We were sorry our Anglican clergyman, Rev. M. K. Gardner, and Rev. Fr. Finn, Roman Catholic clergyman, were not with us, they being called away on other business before the meeting.

With those few remarks I will close, thanking the Revd. gentlemen for their visit, and also our friend Mr. W. Drover, for occupying the chair.

—PROHIBITIONIST.

Notes From Port Rexton

Port Rexton, Oct. 22.—A carload of flour has recently arrived for the Union Trading Co. store.

Fish are fairly plentiful with hand-lines on our local grounds, with herring bait; catches running from 2 to 4 quintals per day, weather permitting.

On Tuesday night next the Ladies' Patriotic Association are intending to hold a pie social and dance, the proceeds of which will be given in aid of the Trafalgar Day Cot Fund.

Last week we were the favoured recipient of a visit from the world-famed Dr. Geisel on behalf of the Prohibition Campaign. A large number of people were present at the meeting, which was held in the Orange Hall and Dr. Geisel spoke for an hour and three quarters on the ill effects of alcohol on the body. A vote of thanks was then proposed by Rev. J. White of Champneys, and after being seconded and carried, the audience showed their hearty appreciation of Dr. Geisel's efforts by a round of hand-clapping.—Cor.

THE COUNTRY

(Rev. George S. Fletcher, in Christian Herald.)

He moved up to the city.
When he'd made his little pile;
BUILT a house and had a garden,
Dressed his girls in city style;
He read the city papers,
And he ate the city food,
His wife joined half a dozen clubs,
His boy became a dude;
He had left his religion in the country

He took a dab in politics.
The city kind, of course;
He bought a high-powered auto,
It was faster than a horse.
He had a box at opera
And a lot of gilt-edged stock;
BUILT the bank right in the centre
Of the city's finest block;
He had left his religion in the country

The church just round the corner
Was of other brand than his;
So he visited the movies
Or spent Sunday at his "biz."
He knocked the city preachers
And he laughed at Sunday laws,
While his boy went to the mischief
And his girls were lost—because
He had left his religion in the country

And when he took his journey
To the place where all men stand,
He walked up to the golden gate
As if he owned the land.
"I know you're from the city,"
Said St. Peter, with a sigh:
"And I'm sorry I must tell you
This is once you can't get by,
For you left your religion in the country."

My Dear Sister—With pleasure I now answer your welcome letter and was glad to hear from you, also to hear you were getting better. Well I must say I am not very well myself, I have been in-oculated and my arm is pretty bad; I guess it will soon be better, I having a fine rest now, nothing to do only walk about. We had to be in-oculated to keep us from getting fever when we go abroad. There are about 50 of us now with bad arms.

I heard from Edgar, I think he is coming to see me soon. I had a letter Enoch, he said they were getting ready for the front then.

I don't know what time we will be leaving, we may not go before the spring. Poor Wilfred is still in the hospital but he is getting better fast. I guess he will soon be out. I hope he will, as I am lonely without him.

You said you wish the war would soon be over, so as I would be home this winter. That is not likely to be; this war won't be over for a while yet. These Germans are certainly putting up a good fight but they got to go under, that is sure, if it don't be until I get out there. Ha! ha! I am longing for the time to come when we will get at them, it won't be too quick for me, as long as I can get one for my hand I am willing to fall. All the fellows are just longing to go. There is not much dread attached to them, they take it just as if it was a picnic.

I am out to tea most every evening. I am going to Hawick soon to see my friends there. Tell Mother not to worry about me, I am all right. I will get through with the Kaiser's Iron Cross some day.

Give my kindest regards to all the girls and all my friends. I was sorry to hear the death of poor little Gertie and Uncle Isaac. Tell Phoebe to write me as I have wrote her several times but I haven't received an answer from her.

I heard father was doing well with the fish. Poor old Dad. I hope he will do good work.

Have you sent my socks yet send me some more when you get this and tell some of the girls to send me a pair as I will want them during the winter.

Well I don't know that I can say any more now. Hoping this letter will reach you safely.

I remain your loving brother,
—WILLIAM.
