Yesterday's operations alone according to Italian estimates, cost the Austrians 15,000 in killed and captured. The 21st Austrian Regiment and several battalions are said to have been wiped out.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Vice Admiral Du Poutet, commander of the Entente fleet in the Mediterranean has demanded the Greek government's consent to the use of a light flotilla carrying the French flag and a French crew as protection against German and Austrian submarines, says a Reuter despatch from Athens. INTERESTING RELICS OF WAR.

In the window of the store of Mr. W. H. Jackman, gents' furnisher, of Water Street West, are displayed some most interesting relics of the war sent out here by Rev. Thos. Nangle, Catholic chaplain with our boys at the front. They came from Auchanvillers and consist of flowers taken from the graves of the members of the 1st. Nfld. Regiment who died in the 1st. July drive, and were artistically arranged for display by Mr. Thomas O'Mara of James Baird Ltd. These consist mostly of wild roses and there are also on exhibition the cap of a German private, the epaulettes of a German officer of the 26th. Division, the bullet which went through Fr. Nangle's steel helmet and which is much flattened, and a piece of shrapnel from a German shell, with the form of tag placed on wounded men going to hospital, and a piece of 75-in. shell. These gruesome exhibits of the great war are attracting much attention.

THE "SCATONIA" TORPEDOED.

We learn that the S.S. Scatonica Capt. A. Patterson, which was in St. John's, ice bound for two weeks last spring, was torpedoed by a German submarine on Friday last and went down, though as far as we can learn her crew is safe. She was under charter to the Evans and Reid Co. of London and recently had been sublet to Bowring Bros. for whom she was bringing a cargo of pit props to England when torpedoed. She left Musgrave on the 20th. October past and brought seven cargoes of props from this country and two from Halifax. She was a fine ship, well known here and could carry 6,200 tons dead weight. She was built in 1898 and was owned by Hazler & Co. of West Hartlepool, who bought her in February of last year for 40,000 pounds sterling, and was worth before the sinking 120,000 pounds. Capt. Patterson was well known to many in this port.

PROMOTED TO CORPORAL.

Mr. Gerald Doyle, of Wadden's pharmacy, had a letter Saturday from his brother, Corporal B. J. Doyle, who is with the Canadian "Fighting 25th." Corporal Doyle not long since received his corporal's stripe "somewhere in France" and has been four months in the trenches and in the thick of the fight with this famous Canadian Regiment. He escaped without any injury but says that the mortality has been heavy among the many Newfoundlanders in this and other Canadian Regiments. When writing he was enjoying a rest in the billets at the base and asked to be remembered to his friends here.

THE "SUSU" ROUGH RUN

The S.S. Susu, Capt. Roberts, arrived here from the North at 9 a.m. to-day after one of the roughest experiences in the ship's history. Since leaving here last week the ship has had nothing but a continuation of gales from the south, with torrential rain and a tremendous sea. Despite this, however she made all ports of call except Musgrave, and she had a terrible time of it from Greenspond here. She proved, however, a fine sea boat and came through without damage. She brought a large freight of fish and several passengers.

ATTACKED AN OFFICER

Saturday evening a well known officer in coming down Water Street was attacked and pretty roughly handled by a man who is also in the service of His Majesty. It is likely the matter will come before the courts for adjustment.
