Make Your Own CIGARETTES

G. KNOWLING

offers for sale the finest Cigarette Tobacco as follows:

PURITAN 12c. per pkt. B.C. No. 1 10c. per pkt.

These tobaccos are expressly made for cigarettes-do not bite the tongue and will effect a large saving to cigarette smokers.

GEORGE KNOWLING.

m2, i,t,th,s,m

The Daily Mail

Issued every week day from the office of Publication, 167 Water St. St. John's, Nfld. The Daily Mail Publishing Co., Ltd., Proprietors, and Union Publishing Co., Ltd., Printers.

Subscription Rates. By mail, to any part of Newfoundland and Canada, $2.00 per year.

$3.50 per year. All correspondence on business and the rag-tag-and-bobtail of Newfoundeditorial matters should be addressed to Dr. H. M. Mosdell, Managing Editor. Letters for publication should written on one side of the paper only and the real name of the author should be attached. This will not be used unless consent be given in the communication. The publication of any letter does not signify that the Editor thereby shows his agreement with the opinions therein expressed.

ST. JOHN'S, NFLD., MARCH 10, 1914

$$$$\$ OUR POINT OF VIEW.

A WIDE GULF FIXED.

There is a wide gulf fixed between the Morris party and the Unionist sides of the House of Assembly.

ing Government from Opposition re- upwards of six years. presents much more than mere hairochial politics,-it represents antagaccomplishment of results as wide- administration. sundered as the poles.

The Morris Party stand for the old | ment they are misfits, one and all. order of things: the reign of the politician; the monopolisation of the good things by a few chosen favorites; they stand for the retention of the timefollowers and henchmen.

designed it for-the people them- observed in the Mother Country? selves; the worker in the shop, in the office, in the mine and at the carpenwoods and on the billowy deep.

irreconcilable.

to the House of Assembly was herald- of raising his status. ed by the cheap sneers of the supporters of the Government. They were in the House of Assembly as a ma the newly-elected Union members the broader arena of politics and the field in opposition to politicians with actment years of campaign and legislative experience behind them.

and the men who graduated from this tion of our toilers of the deep for the Country's various spheres of toil into unification and protection of their inthe place and responsibilities of the terests. From that root idea sprung legislator have won all the honors of the Fishermen's Protective Union and characterised the actions and utter- forms that, being ignored by the pow- hours; night porter in attendance. ances' of these M.H.A.'s from the ranks | ers in politics, led to the active parmistakable common sense.

There has been, on the part of the Union members, no attempts at high- ion wherefrom we may judge the pow- prices. flown oratory; no desire evinced to er of the Union and the influence of Girls' department (under the charge foolish rushing into the manifold pit- lesson that wherever the F.P.U. is falls of parliamentary practice and thorough organised; its ideals underdebate; no assumption of pretended stood and its benefits experienced, it knowledge with consequent attempts becomes a force that no mere political to clothe ignorance in the rags of party has power to withstand empty declamation. They have viewed the administration of public affairs and have demanded a strict, business- it like accounting of the expenditure of public moneys.

both in word and in action.

Can as much be said of their oppon- army of the people. ents? Would it be desirable to see a general repetition of the conduct of Mr. Young, of Mr. Woodford, of Mr. Crosbie and of Mr. Cashin as exhibited at certain sessions of the House? such undesirable examples.

And what of the leaders? Morris, a member with a standing of waste and his disregard of popular upwards of thirty years behind him. needs and demands, the Country looks politician of many campaigns; a to W. F. Coaker to lead, to organise, legislator of scores of sessions; a de- to marshall the forces of the people bater of wide experience in both Gov- in the great campaign that, under ernment and Opposition ranks. has he increased his prestige as a erity to set themselves up in opposipublic man at the expense of W. F. tion to the will of the sovereign peo-Coaker, leader of the Union Party? | ple.

Not one iota. Has Sir Edward not created the impression that his motto as Premier of To the United States of America, this Country is "Power at any price?" Why else does he keep around him > land politics? If he be sincere in his protestations that he desires systematic, economical and business-like administration of ily would be paid $100 by the Governour public affairs, why does he not associate with himself men of proven value; practical men; men who will bring him discredit neither on the agement of a public department? Certainly not by that of successful ance of duty. financing. The arrangement for the They wrote Mr. Coaker recently, as sures has he been instrumental in as an election sop. placing on the Statute Book? What, Every fisherman will be indignant knowledge of public affairs? He has dispicable means—that of pretending neither shone as a legislator nor as a to have provided $100 for all who party coccupying seats on opposite debater; he has done absolutely noth- lost their lives while engaged in the ing to justify his retention in the high fisheries. That narrow strip of floor separat- and dignified position he has held for The following letter explains itself:

splitting differences in narrow par- other Ministers, departmental heads of the 2nd instant, I beg to say that and Executive members have done no payment has been made to the anything to merit the approbation of friends of Ernest Keel under the proministration; it is typical of the op- our people, to benefit the masses of visions of the Marine Disasters Act. position of principles that aim at the our toilers or to bring credit to our I cannot discover that any applica-

lowered our parliamentary standards? condition under the Sections of the What of Executive members receiving Act. from the Council in which they hold hallowed custom of devoting the cream | seats contracts involving the expendiof the revenue to the reward of party ture of thousands of dollars of public money for concerns in which they are The Union Party, on the other hand, personally interested? Shall we be stand for the Government of the Coun- far wrong if we characterise their actry by the People and for the People. tions as exploitation for personal gain Springing from the ranks of the Toil- of a public trust? Would we be too ers themselves, the members of that severe in judgment if we were to exparty understand, from firsthand press the opinion that their interest knowledge, the requirements, the in our Country's affairs is little more abuses, the needs of the times and than a selfish one? Have they not inhave steadfastly set themselves to the stituted in our administrative affairs overthrow of the old order; to the a standard of conduct that, in praccleansing of our political temple and tice, adds nothing to our dignity as a to the restoration of the reins of pow- self-governing Colony and opposes aler to those representative government | most every parliamentary precedent

And on the other side-what? A man without political experience, ter's bench; the toiler in the lumber- without assumption, without pride of place or birth, but a man nevertheless And as with ideals of administra- A man with ideals, a man with an ob tion, so with party personnel, the dif- ject in life and that the purely unselference is there, marked, indisputable fish one of aiding and uplifting his fellowman; of making life easier for The coming of the Union members the toiler; of protecting his interests

And W. F. Coaker takes his place looked upon as so many legislative successful in initiating in practical, "innocents abroad." Few, indeed, were every-day life these very reforms for those confident enough to predict that the amplification of which he seeks could hold their own on the legislative stamp and approval of legislative en-

W. F. Coaker entered public life the first place to bring about the con-But the unexpected has happened summation of an ideal,—the unificathe session now drawing to a close. its varied branches. Its further de-And the predominant trait that has velopment led to the demand for re-campaign last fall. And that campaign proved a criter-

Hence our claim that the present, from the standpoint of practical men present session, interesting though ed the skirmishing in the great conflict that will take place be-And in all their participation in the tween representatives of the old order debates they have been gentlemanly, and the new, when the forces of the politician give battle to the invincible

And between the old and the new a great gulf is fixed that cannot be bridged by any flimsy construction of patchwork reform. There can be no compromise. Total abolition must Most emphatically not; nor could the come; total reorganisation must take Union members fail to lower them- place for it is only thus that the reign selves in the estimation of the men of the people can be substituted for who elected them if they followed that of the politician which has too long usurped its place.

And, tired of the professional poli-On the one side we have Sir Edward | tician, his bluff, his self-interest, his such a general, is bound to bring con-By how much during this session fusion upon these who have the tem-

ANOTHER MORRIS BLUFF

Last fall the country was charmed by the utterances of Morris candidates and subsidised papers proclaiming that every fisherman was now insured for $100, and that in the event of death while engaged in the fisheries his fam-

Last fall a poor chap named Keel was washed overboard and drowned coming from St. Brendan's. His floors of the House nor in the man- friends expected the Government would send them the $100, which the By what right, except that of party Morris Party had reported everyexpediency, does M. P. Cashin hold the where was available to all families Portfolio of Finance and Customs? losing a member while in perform-payment of the railroad construction the money was not forthcoming, and contracts and the awful fiasco of the he wrote to the Government in referrecent budget are sufficient evidence ence to the matter, and the reply against any such presumption as that. thereto as now published, showed that And John C. Crosbie-why is he a the matter of paying $100 to the member of the Executive Council? families of all who lost their lives What beneficient progressive mea- was but a pure bluff intended only in any of the Proceedings of the House when he realizes that the Government of Assembly, has he added to our even sought to secure votes by such

Neither Cashin nor Crosbie nor the Dear Sir,-Replying to your note tion was made on his account, and From the point of view of achieve- it may be because his friends or relatives dependent upon him were not And what of the actions that have in actual need, which is a necessary

Yours faithfully J. R. BENNETT.

POEMS OLD AND NEW. $&&&&&&&&&&&&&&

THE CHANGE.

life's long round by chance I found A dell impearled with dew. Where hyacinths, gushing from Lent to the earth heaven's nativ Of holy blue.

sought that plot of azure light Once more in gloomy hours: But snow had fallen overnight And wrapped in mortuary white My fairy ring of flowers. →MATHILDE BLIND

A THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

beyond that of the fairest flower, and high above Nature's noblest work( is of the mind and soul, that labor to enlarge our humble course; by no defiance or heroism, or even conscious teaching, but by patience, cheerfulness and modesty, truth, simplicity, and loving-kindness.-R. D. Blackmore.

King George the Fifth SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE,

St. John's, Newfoundland. PATRON:-His Majesty the Kingg.

Bedrooms can be booked at all

Meals are served at moderate

A BILL.

"An Act To Regulate The Prosecution of the Seal Fishery."

COAKER SEALING BILL-PASSED LAST NIGHT BY LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.)

Be it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly in Legislative Session convened, as follows: 1. The following Regulations shall apply to all steamers built of steel prosecuting the Seal Fishery. (a) The sides of the ships, where men sleep, shall be sheathed internally, with wood.

(b) Decks of iron not permanently sheathed shall be sheathed temporarily, for the voyage, with plank properly secured, and of sufficient thickness to prevent frost coming through (c) On and after March 10th, 1915, all ships shall be fitted with portable iron frame berths for sleeping accommodation of the crew. (d) The companion-way and hatches shall be boarded in to protect men from draughts and weather. All hatches shall have water

(e) On and after March 10th, 1915, the sleeping quarters of the crew shall be heated by steam pipes. (f) A room shall be supplied for the accommodation of sick and

(g) The use of rifles by the crew, or any member thereof, for the purpose of killing seals, shall be prohibited.

(h) Wherever practicable a doctor shall be carried in each ship. 2. The following Regulations shall apply to all steamers prosecuting the Seal Fishery:

(a) In addition to the food usually supplied, not less than one pound of soft bread shall be served to each member of the crew three times each week.

(b) Beef, pork, potatoes and pudding shall be supplied for dinner three times each week.

(c) For breakfast stewed beans and fish brewse shall be supplied alternately. (d) Onions, potatoes and turnips shall be ingredients in the soup supplied on Saturdays. (e) Fresh beef shall be supplied to each member of the crew once each week, and when fresh beef is not available, through circumstances over which the owners, or master of the ship has no control, canned beef shall be substituted therefor. (f) No person employed as cook shall be required by the captain to do any other work except such as is incidental to the work of cooking if

(a) he shall personally object to performing other work; or (b) any five of the members of the crew shall so object: Provided that this regulation shall not be held to, in any way, take from or impair the general authority of the captain over the cooks as members of the crew, nor prevent him from ordering the said cooks to perform such work as, in his opinion, is necessary in the saving of life or for the safety of the ship.

It shall be the duty of the owner, master or person on whose account any steamer shall prosecute the Seal Fishery, in any year, to observe, or cause to be observed, the regulations set forth in the two preceding sections, but the owner shall not be liable for any default for which he is not personally responsible.

4. The owner or master of any steamer offending against any of the regulations set forth in Sections 1 and 2, shall be liable, for every offence against Section 1, to a penalty not exceeding $500, and for every offence against Section 2, where such offence shall arise from any act, neglect or default of such owner, or master, after his attention has been called to such offence, to a penalty of not less than $25, and not exceeding $500, to be recovered, in each case, in a summary manner, by any member of the crew of such steamer who shall sue for the same before a Stipendiary Magistrate, provided it shall be proved that complaint of any such offence against Section 2, was made to the master at the time it occurred: Provided that written notice of such suit shall be given to the said owner or master within seven days after the arrival of the steamer at port of discharge. One half of any fine imposed under this section shall be paid over to the person or persons taking suit, and one half to the Minister of Finance for the use

5. Sick and disabled men on wooden ships shall be transferred, when possible, to a ship carrying a physician. No master shall refuse to accept such sick or disabled men on board his ship under a penalty not exceeding $100, unless such persons are suffering from contagious disease.

6. Wooden ships shall not depart for the Fishery, outside the Gulf of St. Lawrence, before 8 o'clock a.m. on the 12th day of March, in each year. Steel ships shall not depart from St. John's, or any port South or West thereof before 8 o'clock a.m. on the 13th day of March in each year, or any port North of St. John's before 8 o'clock on the 14th day of March, in each year, under a penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars, to be recovered in a summary manner by any master watch, or other officer, of any sealing steamer, or by any three members, acting together, of the crew of any sealing steamer, sueing for the same before a Stipendiary Magistrate, from the owner, master, or other person on whose account such wooden or steel ship shall be sent to such fishery: Provided that written notice of such suit shall be given to the accused party within forty days of the date of the arrival of the offending ship at the port of discharge; and one-quarter of any fine imposed hereunder shall be paid over to the person or persons taking the suit, and there-quarters to the Minister of Finance for the use

7. Steel ships under 850 tons gross shall, for the purpose of this Ac be considered as wooden ships

8. Section 2 of the Act 61 Vic., cap. 4, is hereby repealed, and th following substituted therefor:

"No seals shall be killed by any member of the crew of any ship before the Fifteenth day of March in any year, nor shall seals so killed be brought into any port of this Colony, or its dependencies, in any year, under penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars, to be recovered from the master, owner, or other person on whose account such steamer shall have been sent to the fishery, by any master, master-watch, or other officer of The purest and grandest beauty (far any sealing steamer, or by any member of the crew of any sealing steamer sueing for the same: Provided that written notice of such suit shall be given to the said owner, master, or other person within forty days of the arrival of the steamer at the port of discharge. One-fourth of any fine imposed under this Section shall be paid over to the person or persons taking the suit, and three-fourths to the Minister of Finance for the use of the > 9. The purchaser of seals within this Colony, caught or taken by the crew of, or on board, any ship or vessel, the registered owner of which is domiciled without the jurisdiction of this Colony, shall be liable to pay the shares or wages of all the crew of the said ship or vessel, and the crew, or any of them, may recover the same by action against the purchaser as such, provided, however, that such purchaser shall not be liable to pay the claims of any such member of the crew, who shall not have prosecuted the said claim within sixty days from the passing of the said seals into the hands of the said purchaser.

10. No seals shall be killed by any member of the crew of any ship prosecuting the seal fishery in the Gulf of St. Lawrence before the 12th day of March in any year. Nor shall any seals so killed be brought into any to be recovered from the master, owner or other person on whose account such steamer shall have been sent to the fishery and subject to the proviso in the latter part of Section 8.

seek personal aggrandisement; no its leader. It has taught the pregnant of a matron), with separate entrance. any steamer being paid off at the end of the voyage with a in amount to pay the fares of the crew to their respective homes, to contribute a sum not exceeding four dollars, which when added to the amount paid the crew will be sufficient for the payment of the said fares.

12. The provisions of Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this Act shall not, during the season of 1914 be held to apply to steamers registered in Canada; but on and after January 1st, 1915, this shall apply to all steamers prosecuting the sealfishery from, or bringing seals into, the Colony.

13. On and after January 1st, 1915, no boats shall be taken on board any sealing steamer for use in the sealfishery unless they have been previously inspected by the Lloyd's Surveyor and certified by him as seaworthy, and no officer of Customs shall clear any steamer for the sealfishery unless such certificate is produced before him.

14. Sealing masters violating Sections 6 and 8 of this Act shall be incompetent for two years after conviction for any offence thereunder to be employed to command steamers at the sealfishery, and no Customs Officer shall clear any ship with such person as master within the period aforesaid.

15. No Customs Officer shall clear any ship for the sealfishery from any port North of St. John's, in the case of steel ships before the 13th day of March, and in the case of wooden ships before the 11th day of March; from St. John's, and in the case of steel ships before the 12th day of March, wooden ships before 11th day of March, or steamers for the Gulf before the 9th of March.

16. If any person shall feel himself aggrieved by any judgment of the Stipendiary Magistrate under this Act, which exceed $100, he shall be at liberty to appeal therefrom to the next sitting of the Supreme Court at St. John's or on Circuit: Provided that notice of the same shall be given to the Magistrate within forty-eight hours after such judgment shall have been delivered; and within five days thereafter, recognizances or other security, with or without sureties, at the option of such Magistrate shall be entered into to prosecute the same without delay, to pay such amount as may be awarded with costs.

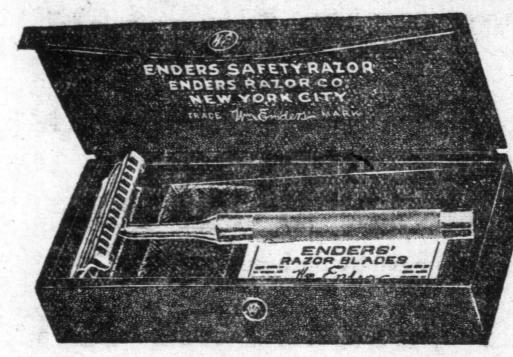

17. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule hereto are hereby repealed, in so far as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act

SCHEDULE 55 Victoria, Chapter 2, "An Act to regulate the Prosecution of the Seal-

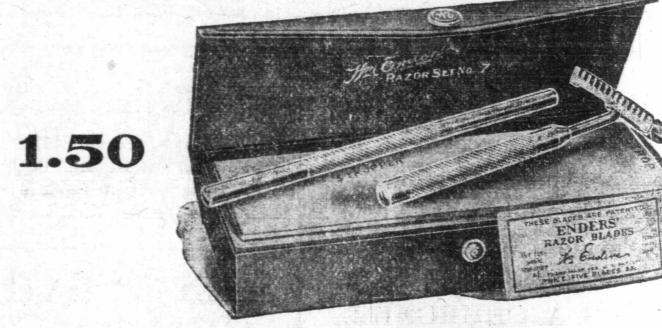

61 Victoria, Chapter 4, "An Act respecting the Prosecution of the Seal-

Another Shipment of

Enders' Safety Razors

1.00

EXTRA BLADES-5 IN PACKAGE-30c.

MARTIN HARDWARE CO.

For the Lenten Season 100 Bbls. Pickled Trout 150 Cases Salmon

Job's Stores, Ltd.

Grocery Department.

The Newfoundland Fox Exchange

We are prepared to handle Shares in Local and Foreign Fox

Office: 276 WATER STREET.

Highest Prices For Live Stock. If you have anything to offer write us.

-ADDRESS-

THE NEWFOUNDLAND FOX EXCHANGE,

the latter part of Section 8.

11.' The owners of steamers shall bel iable in the case of the crew of steamer being paid off at the end of the voyage with a balance insufficient. The Daily Mail $2.00 Year steamer being paid off at the end of the voyage with a balance insufficient.