The law has once more een called "an ass"; but this timesy a London magistrate. An Austraian left his country in 1914 and tok up a business in the London Stand. He was brought before a magistrate charged with being a person amenable to the 15th section of Reserve Forces Act, 1882. He wanted to go al School to Australia and enlist as an Australian in the army there. He had been told that he could not enlist in England, being an Australian. The For ridiculous thing in these times of stress and trouble for a man to have to go to Australia to enlist in the police so that the authorities might consider the matter. A Welsh Fusilier who has spent nearly two years at the front, was given a months' leave of absence re ently. He arrived at his home in the Rhonda Valley, and was lionized by the people of his native village. His record is interesting. He had been H. THRESHER, Organist and ten times wounded. He carried with c4 love letters, tooth brushes, etc., that he picked up on battle fields. He has acquired a fair knowledge of French and German. He has put on ten pounds of flesh, and was spending part of his leave in recruiting for
