

The Advertiser

Published every Friday
H. G. HARRIS,
Editor and Publisher

A PROSPEROUS KING'S CO. BOY

Mr. C. M. Woodworth, B. A. LL. B., of Dawson City, Yukon, has been in this province during the last month renewing old acquaintances. He was a native of Aylesford and graduated from Acadia in 1890 and three years afterwards he completed his law course at Dalhousie.

Mr. Woodworth left Dawson on Oct. 13th and on his way visited Seattle, St. Paul, Chicago, Toronto, Cleveland where he visited his classmate Rev. C. A. Eaton, formerly of Toronto. He then went to Florida, Washington, Boston and here to N. S. He left here for Sydney and after a short return visit here will leave for Dawson the first of the year.

Mr. Woodworth is a man of finished education, a graduate of Trinity College and Berkeley Divinity School. So in Churchmanship he was a thorough Anglican; yet none the less an independent thinker, a true American and a man of God, rather than a mere ecclesiastic.

Mr. Woodworth is a man of pronounced personality; a constant student and reader; a thoughtful, careful sermonizer; a faithful pastor; of sincere faith and spotless life; yet interested in all which concerns his fellow-men; thoroughly human and everywhere a welcome guest.

Mr. Woodworth is a man of pronounced personality; a constant student and reader; a thoughtful, careful sermonizer; a faithful pastor; of sincere faith and spotless life; yet interested in all which concerns his fellow-men; thoroughly human and everywhere a welcome guest.

Lieut. Oland of the Mounted Constabulary, and a native of Dartmouth has been invalided home from South Africa.

The Hants Journal says:—We are glad to be able to state that the small pox patient in the emergency hospital has fully recovered.

What makes you sit there so uneasy, at last? Why don't you go home? I am trying to get there, but walking makes my head hurt.

In Memoriam The Rev. Edwin Francis Small

Everywhere the diocese of Southern Ohio will recognize its great loss in the death of Mr. Small. A repeated attack of paralysis last summer completely disabled him and God, in His mercy, took him from suffering to rest.

He was a man of finished education, a graduate of Trinity College and Berkeley Divinity School. So in Churchmanship he was a thorough Anglican; yet none the less an independent thinker, a true American and a man of God, rather than a mere ecclesiastic.

He was a man of pronounced personality; a constant student and reader; a thoughtful, careful sermonizer; a faithful pastor; of sincere faith and spotless life; yet interested in all which concerns his fellow-men; thoroughly human and everywhere a welcome guest.

Mr. Small on several occasions occupied the pulpit of St. James' church while visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. F. Hanson and those of our readers who heard him on these occasions will regret deeply to hear of his early decease.

What though he stands at no earthly altar, Yet in white raiment, on the golden floor, Where love is perfect and no step can falter, He serveth as a priest forevermore.

Mr. Small on several occasions occupied the pulpit of St. James' church while visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. F. Hanson and those of our readers who heard him on these occasions will regret deeply to hear of his early decease.

Mr. Henry R. Hollis at one time foreman of the Nova Scotia newspaper died last Tuesday morning of pneumonia in Amherst.

A St. John despatch says:—The small pox figures since the outbreak are: Cases 92, deaths 20, recoveries 23. The present number of patients is 47, of whom 12 are convalescent.

BENTLEY'S Liniment is a strong White Liniment. Penetrating, powerful, yet clean to use. It is a reliable remedy for Sprains or Strains. Pains in the back or chest. For bruises, cuts and burns it will be found the best thing to use.

The death of Austin D. Cox, son of Leander Cox of Canning, occurred at Brockton, Mass., on Monday last of Typhoid fever. Deceased had been engaged in horse-shoeing business in Brockton for a number of years. He leaves a wife and daughter. The remains are expected home on Saturday. Funeral will probably be held at Canning on Sunday.

Dr. Hugh L. Dickey has been in Canada for a few days visiting his relatives. He has later moved from Charlottetown where he had a successful practice for three years and entered upon his practice at Halifax where he has a larger field as a specialist. His practice is limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat. We call attention to his card on our local page.

Christmas Bargains This Week Cash Discounts From 20 to 33 Per Cent on all lines in Stock. NOTHING RESERVED. Call and see us and we will try and make you happy. J. W. RYAN. White Hall - Kentville

Alfred Rack, Lord Strathcona's Private Secretary, died suddenly in London, Eng. Dec. 17th.

Go to Geo. W. Blenis, Canning, for choice oyster stews. He sells oysters by half pint, quart, peck or barrel, sw

The marriage of Mr. H. W. Dimock and Miss Sadie Salter of Newport took place on Christmas day.

Miss Yvonne Lydiard student at Sackville is spending her holidays in town with her mother Mrs. B. H. Dodge.

ALL ACCOUNTS DUE THE UNDERSIGNED MUST BE SETTLED AT ONCE AS I AM CLOSING OUT MY GROCERY BUSINESS. W. F. SANSFIELD, KENTVILLE.

Carloads of negroes are on their way from the Southern States to Sydney to work around the coke ovens.

Arrived at Station Restaurant this week 20 barrels of No. 1 hand-picked P. E. Island oysters to be sold by half pint, quart or barrel.

There will be a meeting of Kings Co. Temperance Alliance on Saturday Dec. 28th in Bowler's Hall, Waterville at 1 o'clock p.m. Business very important. All clergymen of the County are requested to be present.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

Mr. A. Patterson of Wilmot, who formerly did business in Charlestown, Mass., has rented his farm at Wilmot for a term of years and a week ago he left for Charlestown again and purchased the grocery business of W. Woodard and began business on Saturday last.

OUR STOCK is Now Complete

In all the Branches consisting of English and Canadian White Lead, Linseed Oil, Sherwin & Williams Liquid Paints, Church's alabastine for Ceilings and Walls. Builders Hardware, Blacksmith's Supplies Carriage Hardware, Spokes, Rims and Hubs, Carriage Wheels Mill Supplies Mechanics Tools, every description of Wire Fencing. Farming Tools, Lawn Mowers, Drain Pipe

T. P. CALKIN & CO. KENTVILLE.

WE WISH ALL OUR CUSTOMERS

Happy New Year

JAS. SEALY

Cornwallis Street Kentville

Cheaper Than Ever!

I have still on hand a Few Things in Furs

BIG BARGAINS

Also a few Ladies Cloth Coats at one-half price. Better call early if you want any of these snaps.

E. J. BISHOP.

Call at B. H. Dodges for your staple and fancy groceries and meats. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler and child of Bridgetown have been spending the past few days in town.

Mr. Herbert Starr and mother and sister of Windsor spent Xmas in Canning. One good draft horse for sale. W. F. Sarsfield, Kentville.

The Entertainment held in the Baptist church at Biltown on Monday evening last, under the auspices of Northville Baptist Sewing Circle was a grand success. Net proceeds of sale $78.71.

Arthur Blanchard Lieutenant in the K. C. H. has passed medical examination and has been sworn a member of the Mounted Rifle Regiment. He sought for a commission but failing to receive one he has enlisted as a private.

DENTISTRY

A. M. Shaw, D. D. S. Graduate Boston Dental College Gas administered. Office, Arnold Block. Kentville

W. Publicover

Hairdressing Saloon Here we are open for business in the Building near New Post Office Kentville.

Give us a call when you require Comfortable Shave or a Neat Hair Cut. Old Gold and Old Chum Tobaccos, La Favorite Cigars, the best Cigarettes, etc.

Razors honed to satisfaction.

By cutting his throat with a piece of corset steel. He will probably recover.

grown by this season

JEANIE'S CHRISTMAS

By Emma Galt

As Jennie sat on the floor, in the radiant September afternoon of a Sabbath morn'g, she was reading the sacred word to be a bright sunny very sweet of the and the busy hum to come back to her.

It was her father's Jennie and her little feet a verse when he was, inasmuch as y one of the least of them, ye have done it. What does that mean?

And papa had said, Why, dear, you were to see a drink or shelter, the regard your kindness if bestowed on him.

This was the memory to Jennie as she sat. She repeated the verse, and then, with blue eyes, she glanced in the direction of the yard, where her father's Childhood's sorrow abated. She soon and began to jingle.

Oh, how hard had worked for them in the hot sun for the When they were held them in her little mamma had said: They are yours, I do with them as you hat for yourself, or—Mamma, no, no, breathe, ly. I hat; let me buy eyes that go to a little bed to put dear. Oh, mamma, them to long.

Do just as you you worked had mamma said. And now Jeanie the village to m. Dot was weakly ed—poor little accompany Jeanie kissed her when.

Now, sit here watch for me, I as ever I can, as big dolly in your ute I get back. Jennie thought the two silver de and springing fr across the mead close to the gre the wayside she ing beneath it w age across his e at his feet. The lock, and the m Jennie locked o minutes, and the Good man, at No, not entire I've had a sunn huta me.

Jennie's tend She drew still ne little dog. What makes you sit here so uneas ed, at last? Why don't you go home? I am trying to get there, but walk- ing makes my head hurt.

Minard's Liniment Cures Disemper

Minard's Liniment Cures Gargol in Cows

Minard's Liniment Cures Gargol in Cows

Minard's Liniment Cures Gargol in Cows

Minard's Liniment Cures Gargol in Cows