Hopes That the Huerta Government Will Prove Successful in Mexico---Big American Interests are at Stake There.

(Courier Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Though not recognized by the United States, the Huerta Government in Mexico to-day enjoys the strong support of the Washington Government. That it has this support is not because of any particular partiality for General Huerta, but because the provisional government of which he is president, is now the only established authority in Mexico and the only quarter to which the United States can look for protection for American life and property.
So urgently is such protection desired by the United States government that it is ready to extend its best wishes to any authority which can keep the peace in Mexico. Consequently it is earnestly hoped by the present Administration in Washington that the Huerta Government will prove itself equal to the occasion. The fact that it can establish itself in actual control of all Mexico the better will the officials of the Taft Administration be pleased. Meanwhile these officials are disposed to give the Huerta government its moral support and friendly sympathy.

SERIOUS SITUATION

(Courier Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Club owners of the International Baseball League are said to be facing a serious situation because of the enforcement of a new salary limit of $6,000 a month for each club as compared with $8,000 last year. With the exception of the Newark Club, which has signed all of its men, the entire circuit is reported in difficulties because of hold-outs, players generally demanding more rather than less salary. Only eight of the Jersey City club men have signed. In Rochester the situation is such that C. T. Champlin, the club owner, has issued by circular an ultimatum to the players that unless they come into a lobby by next Saturday they will be suspended for the rest of the year.
The $6,000 salary limit is one fixed by the National Association leagues, and approved recently by the National Baseball Commission against the protests of President Barrow of the league. Under the circumstances the club owners declare they are powerless as they have offered their recalcitrant players as much as possible.

which was discovered in the rear

Deputy Coroner McKeever believes this is the record of the pulsations Schneider had strength to record before his death. He was 48 years old and had been in poor health.

ALLEGED KIDNAPING

(Courier Leased Wire)
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Stephen Garick, 907 East Ninety Third street, asked the police of the Grand Crossing station yesterday to arrest her husband, who she declares kidnapped her son, Stephen, seven years old, while he was on his way home from the Burnside school. She believes Garick is on his way to Toronto with the boy. A recent separation followed domestic quarrels.
After coming to Chicago Mrs. Garick went to live with friends at the Ninety-Third street address. She wrote to her husband and told him where she was living. He failed to arrive here and is believed to have come to Chicago Monday and to have taken his son back to Canada with him. Monday the boy was sent to school, and it is known that he was there during the afternoon. He was on his way home when a man met him at East Ninety-Second street and Lexington Avenue, according to children, who gave a description of him. The description answers that of Garick, and this led Mrs. Garick to believe that her husband came to Chicago and kidnaped his son and is now on his way back to Canada with him.

MEXICO FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—The departure from Mexico of Ernesto Madero, uncle of the late president and former minister of finance, has resulted in a check being made of the cash in the government treasury which showed the existence of a balance of $9,200,000. This amount, however, does not represent the whole of the immediately available resources of the new administration as there are various deposits in both local and foreign banks which can be drawn

SIR WILFRED

Gets His in Good and Proper Style---Member of Calgary Shows Him up and Also Other Liberal Leaders.

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—One of the liveliest afternoons that this session has seen came yesterday afternoon with R. B. Bennett, Calgary's cyclonomic member, on the floor continuing the navy debate.
Mr. Bennett made what will undoubtedly rank as one of the strongest speeches that the issue has brought forth, but the spectacular interest of his effort came in the way in which he showed up four of the Liberal leaders, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, as former apostles of separation and independence; Dr. Clark, of Red Deer, as renouncing his free trade principles when it was a matter of Liberal expediency to argue otherwise, and Hon. Frank Oliver for his recent action in refusing to stand while the National Anthem was sung in the House. It was a performance which the House enjoyed immensely and the gallery grew larger every minute until at 6 o'clock it was crowded.
For Six Reasons.
Mr. Bennett said he supported the Borden proposal for many reasons, but chiefly for these six: 1.—Because we are an integral part of the British Empire.
2.—Because the naval supremacy of that empire is menaced.
3.—Because it is our duty and privilege as a self respecting people to assist in maintaining that supremacy.
4.—Because co-operation in naval defence is necessary to efficiency.
5.—Because it makes for and will insure world peace.
6.—Because it makes for the consolidation and organization of the British Empire—a step toward imperial defence.
These six propositions he took up in turn and dealt with at length in a speech that was remarkable for a clearness of thought and charm of presentation.
The leader of the Opposition was the first of the four Liberal leaders to come under the fire of the Calgary man. Mr. Bennett recalled to the House Sir Wilfrid's speech in Boston, when he said that Britain and Canada must part, and he asked if the right honorable gentleman believed that now Canada Wants to Know.
"The young men of Canada," he said, "would like to know. I sit down and give the honorable gentleman an opportunity to answer. I

An Enquiry on Behalf of Stop- ping Police Graft in New York

(Courier Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The Mayor of New York, a former mayor, a former acting mayor and other high city and county officials in and out of office will help the committee of state legislators frame legislation to remedy the police situation in New York City. Hearings began to-day before this committee, will continue until the members feel themselves able to diagnose the recent police graft scandals and recommend laws to cure them.
Mayor Gaynor, former Mayor Geo.
B. McClellan and former District Attorney William Travers Jerome are expected to give their views to-morrow. Other witnesses will be John Purroy Mitchell, who was mayor during Mayor Gaynor's illness; former District Attorney Eugene A.
Philbin, District Attorney Whitman, former police officials and several prominent clergymen who have made studies of municipal corruption.
The hearings will be unlike ordinary investigations because the witnesses will all be voluntary and none will be put under oath or cross-examined. The committee has made an appeal for aid to all public spirited citizens.
The committee will have at its disposal the testimony received by the aldermanic committee, which has been conducting an investigation of graft for several weeks, examining witnesses under oath, and the data gathered by the Citizens' committee organized soon after the murder of Herman Rosenthal the gambler, gave the present crusade its first impetus.

MRS. PANKHURST

Is Committed for Trial--She Announces That if Incarcerated She Will at Once Inaugurate a Hunger Strike

(Courier Leased Wire)
EPSOM, Eng., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was committed for trial by the police magistrate here to-day on the charge of inciting persons to commit malicious damage to property.
The court house was ablaze with suffragette colors, and almost every seat was occupied by militant suffragists when the magistrate took his seat to resume the hearing adjourned yesterday.
Archibald H. Bodkin, counsel for the treasury department, appeared to prosecute. He demanded the committal of Mrs. Pankhurst for trial at the county assizes, saying that she was a self-confessed accessory to the explosion which virtually destroyed Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George's country house, than which he declared, "a more abominable and cruel outrage probably has ever been conceived." Mr. Bodkin then read copious extracts from Mrs. Pankhurst's speeches delivered at public meetings on January 27, January 30, February 3 and February 19, as evidence that she had been seditionously plotting and conspiring to commit outrages on property and persons, "with the avowed object of overawing the public and abjecting the lives of prominent men intolerable, and thereby coercing the Government."
Among the extracts were one in which Mrs. Pankhurst called for the names and addresses "of those who were prepared to take part in a gain-ant onslaught with me." Another said: "Short of taking lives, we are warranted in using all the methods employed in times of war." A third said the militant suffragettes intended "to carry on the fight with increasingly effective methods until the vote was granted to women. They were obliged to strike the enemy, the Government, through other people, and that was always necessary in revolutionary warfare." At another meeting she announced that the suffragettes were planning an "exciting civil war," while at Cardiff she made the declaration "We have blown up the Chancellor of the Exchequer's house." Mrs. Pankhurst did not offer any defence to-day, declaring that she reserved it for the trial at the assizes.

Mrs. Pankhurst, when she was committed for trial by the magistrate, informed him that she would forthwith begin a "hunger strike." She added: "If I am still alive when the assizes commence it will be a dying woman who will be tried." Mrs. Pankhurst was detained 12 prison, but not being granted, as she refused to give an undertaking to refrain from political activities pending her trial.
