his spirits onto you.

A friend or mine got married the other day. He said he was going to rut magnolia on the kitchen floor. I think he meant linoleum.

The Indians would call Pardo Theman, who-never-made-a-speech.

What has Pardo done for Kent weekly. Perhaps it is unnecessary to add that the Comber Herald is published first.

OBJECTED TO A BATH. Windsor Record. "Three days in Chatham or twenty years in Siberia," said the magistrate. "Gimme Siberia," said the prisoner thankfully.

Young men who are eligible to vote at the ensuing election should at once forward their names to Ward Stanworth, who will mail them information regarding time and place of registration.

HE GAVE HER THE DRIP.

Miss Prohibition Party (to Mr. Ross): I'll go with you no farther, sir. You're holding that umbrell' so' to protect yourself and "sock" me. I'll put up my own umbrell'—you deceiver.

The Banner-News has started to label its job work coarse. There was no need of so doing.

Hear J. P. Whitney, the Conserva-tive chieftain, in the Grand Opera-House, Tuesday evening:

If T. L. Pardo's oratory, like vine, improves with old age, peeches must be mayvels.

Had the circus by-law not been trif-led with, I think that Chatham would have got $100 license this year. There is no truth in the report that embers of Sea Company were seen olling home Wednesday night. Many good dinners have gone un-eaten owing to the bridge being swung tween the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock

Fred. Trudell, of The 2 T's, say that after that runaway accident he had "the only black and blue arm in the world."

When the waterworks department get a little leisure in the rush of spring work, they might see that the water is turned on at the park foun-tain, and at the fountain in front of he market square.

In face of the fact that the law pro-hibits publishing the names of children under 14 years of age, who appear in the police court, the Banner-News persists in publicly branding mere children as criminals.

It is said that a Wave of jealousy passed over Companies A, B, and D, when they cast their eyes C ward on Wednesday evening, and it is even alleged that some members of these companies were foaming.

Perhaps that "fair, short, stout man" is one of those St. Louis alder-men whom the Chatham police were asked to look out for. By the way, the Banner-News didn't know any-thing about those aldermen, either.

I hope the council will succeed in their effort to prevent the bridges being opened between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock.

If par-boiled is half-boiled, is Pardough, half-bred? Before the election is over Pardo will be pretty well roasted, I guess.

The house cleaning days because aldermen, either.

For several years a sparrow's nest has ornamented the telegraph pole opposite the window of our sanctum. This week a couple of robins came along, routed out the sparrows, pulled down the nest and are building one of their own. Of course we prefer the red breasts, but it did seem like robin the sparrows.

CHURCH CHIMES

International Bible Lesson for To-Morrow-Gentiles received into the Church-Acts ri., 4-15.

Golden Text-Whosever believeth a Him shall receive remission of sins.

After 1900 years of church history, we find the action of the Church of Jerusalem has often been repeated. We are too much like them yet. Our religious prejudices are often as difficult to remove now as then. Our last lesson was of the first gospel sermen to the Gentiles; in this we have the first church trial, the offender being a chief apostle himself. Note the patient way, link by link, God worked to break down the barriers of bigotry, ignorance and cast in these early disciples; and many of us still need similar lessons. Jesus' lesson to the woman at Jacub's well was here repeated. The grace of God is not confined to one ritual, one people or one place, but "whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved." We Gengiles receive the Holy Spirit not by works of law, by by the hearing of faith. If God sends an angel to Cornelius, why not send an apostle also If He forgives them and gives them His Holy Spirit, shall we not give them baptism and the right hand of fellowship! One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism.

Sale News

Warm Weather Wear

Our stock reducing sale is well in line with the season. Some of the most conspicious savings offered are in distinctly warm weather goods.

You know what constitutes the real bone and framework of a T. & D. bargain offering-the central fact that makes every item worth your while. You know that the style is good, that the buttons are sewed on to stay, that the buttonholes will keep right, that the cloth is good and will hold its color. That's in clothing of course, and customers have learned that the same high standard governs in the furnishing stock.

A jotting here and there among the reduced articles, all summer wear:-

Are they getting up in Years?

Have yeu noticed how hard this changeable weather is on elderly or nickly people?

Have you got a first-class portrait of them? If anything happened to either or both of them and you did not have their pictures, would you not deeply regret it? We take pains with all our work, but sittings such as these are our social care. Trust them to us and you shall have the best portrait ob-inable of them, and at very little cost.
