ONLY FOUR DROPPED OUT

Leaving a Field of Sixteen Alldermanic Candidates for the Elector to Choose From.

Eight Ex-Aldermen and Eight New Aspirants are Seeking to Form the New Civic Parliament.

At 12 o'clock to-day the time allowed for candidates to withdraw from the contest for membership in the city council of next year expired, and when the 12 o'clock bell rang only four of the 20 nominated had retired.

Chris Smith was the first to ask that his name be taken off the list. He made the request Monday. John Liddy followed his example this morning, and W. G. Richards and W. M. Stene did likewise. There are now sixteen candidates in the field and all are good men. This is said to be one of the best lists of candidates that has ever been offered to the electors and it is expected that the contest will be decidedly close. The election will be held on Monday, Jan. 7, and the first meeting of the new council will be held on Monday, Jan. 14. Owing to the water commissioners and the school trustees having all been elected by acclamation, the contests this year will be wholly within the council.

Ald. G. W. Sulman and Ald. W. E. McKeough, the two aspirants for mayorality honors, are both putting up a warm fight, and nearly every one is expecting a big vote.

The candidates for aldermen are, E. A. Mounter, E. W. Seane, A. B. McCole, John Waddell, John Edmondson, S. B. Arnold, W. F. Smith, John Mount, Wilfred M. Fleming, David A. Hutchison, G. G. Taylor, George W. Cowan, Daniel Jordan, John Holmes, S. Marshall and Robert Pritchard. Of this number four were members of the last council, four have been members of previous councils and the other eight are new men. It will be interesting to watch the result on Monday next and see how many of the experienced men will be elected.

A Former Kent County Lady (bates Pardon For a Michigan Murderer.

The Crime Was Committed by a Young Desperado—Relative of the Victim Reside in This City.

Hazen S. Pingree, the energetic and erratic ex-governor of Michigan, made the last hours of his regime memorable by a series of pardons extended to convicts serving time in Jackson state prison.

Among those granted was the freedom of Convent Stewart, who had served 12 years of a life sentence for the murder of John Willetts in Detroit in the year 1888. The murdered man was a cousin of Mrs. J. U. Dolson, of this city, and second cousin to Mrs. Kaspar Schwemmer, corner of William and Duluth Sts., and his niece, Mrs. Chas. Willetts, of Detroit, was largely instrumental in obtaining the murderer's recent pardon through a series of rather interesting happenings.

Mrs. Willetts, formerly of this county, is a member of a ladies' organization which bestows much of its charity upon the unfortunate paupers and prison inmates of the state, and some years ago sent a series of gifts to be distributed to the convicts at Jackson. Shortly after she received a polite letter of thanks from Stewart, which opened what materialized into a regular correspondence between the philanthropic lady and the convict.

A year ago on the occasion of a casual visit to Jackson, Mrs. Willetts procured permission to visit Stewart and then discovered that he was the murderer of her own second cousin. It was a painful one to both, but did not lessen the lady's interest in the man, whose excellent education and good behavior had earned him pardon in the institution. Consequently, when Governor Pingree announced his intention of issuing several pardons, Mrs. Willetts successfully appealed on Stewart's behalf.

Stewart's crime was a brutal one. With a confederate he entered the Willetts' home at night, but without the owner's consent, and stabbed him in the stomach. The deceased lived only a few hours after the attack and the murderer's arrest followed three days later. He was only 19 years of age at that time.

LAID TO REST.

The funeral of the late Sarah Helen, eldest daughter of John Helen, took place on Monday from the family residence on Selkirk street to the Maple Leaf Cemetery. A large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives were present to observe the last rites. The services were conducted at the house by Rural Dean McCon, of whose church the deceased young lady was a faithful member. In spite of the inclement weather nearly forty persons were present in the funeral train. At the grave the beautiful burial service of the Anglican church was repeated by the Rev. W. H. G. Colles, the Rural Dean, and the deceased was committed to the earth with the solemnity of the weather. The pallbearers were: Messrs. John McKerrall, H. Huff, J. W. Aitken, D. Blackburn, W. Turner and R. L. Brackin. All the members of the family were present at the funeral with the exception of the two elder brothers of the deceased, James and John, who are up north in the Klondike region.

FELL ASLEEP.

The death took place yesterday near Kent Bridge of Mary, wife of Jonathan Brown, in her 81st year. The deceased leaves beside her husband, five sons to mourn her loss, Tom, of Raleigh; Alex., barrister in Detroit; James, hardware merchant in Thamesville, and Charles and John at home. The funeral will take place Thursday at 1 o'clock to Botany burying ground.

Cash
Count

The credit giving shoe shop's got to even up losses by hook or crook, as they can't 'hook' they're going to 'crook'. You'll be the one whose extra half-dollar pays for Mr. Charnup's privilege. It isn't fair, nor pleasant to contemplate. A man with ready cash to spend ought to be favored instead of overcharged. Come with purse in hand to this store and see how much your dollars will cover. We never 'hook it' except in the case of approbation selections. No cash customer, therefore, is mulcted to cover the discrepancies of credit folks. But, mind you, all so-called 'cash stores' have not abandoned the credit system. This store never adopted credit.

CHATHAM, JANUARY, 2ND, 1901

Begin Right

...1901...

Years ago when we established this business now grown to proud proportions. If increasing success is evidence of right principles, we began right. Our history in Stratford is our history in Guelph, and that history is repeating itself in Chatham. When we, for the third time have tackled the proposition, and are successfully living down the popular prejudice that no store could exist and do a strictly cash business.

Stick to it

And no matter how well we may have begun, nothing would have come of it. If we hadn't stuck to it, and in all strictness enforced the rule. To make such a rule and publish it, then violate it in daily exceptions and personal favorites, is mercantile dishonesty. In paying cash at a cash store you have a right to assume that you get a price that includes nobody's bad debt, and that your cash isn't going to pay losses in covert credits—a loss to the credit store piled for recoupment on the goods you buy.

And Succeed

We will begin the new year and the new century, just where we left off. That means we intend to stick to tried principles; continue to make the best clothing we can; serve you in all the best we know how; continue to sell to you and everybody without favorites or favoritism, for cash and at one price, upon merit, at one fair profit, without the aid of any scheme, premium or bonus, for all of which the consumer himself pays, and to grow honestly and honestly succeed.

The End

The end will be the saving of much money to this community, great comfort to the many discomfort to none. Many in all walks of life endorse our position and are steadfast customers, dealing in mutual regard and respect. Think it over, you who do not come here regularly, individualize the proposition and personally enjoy the benefits. Begin right with the year, just where we left off, and stick to it.
