WHY CATARRH POISONS THE SYSTEM.

The Catarrhal germ excites inflammation, offensive secretions are thrown off and pass into the circulation, contaminating the river of life and thus wreck the whole body.
Every catarrh victim should use fragrant, healing Catarrhazone, the surest cure for every type of catarrh yet discovered. Catarrhazone can't fail to cure, because its vapor kills the germs and removes the cause of the trouble. Then it soothes and heals, stops the cough and relieves the stuffed up condition of the nose and throat. Tens of thousands have been cured by Catarrhazone, which is guaranteed. Use only Catarrhazone.
Complete outfit $1.00; trial size 25c.

A Curious Superstition.
The ancients believed that the marrow of the human backbone often transformed itself into a serpent. Pliny ("Natural History," volume 10, page 66) says that the marrow of a man's backbone will breed to a snake. The Chinese (Ward's "Eastern Travels") burned the backbone to "destroy serpents that might hatch therefrom."

RICH COLOR AND SOFT SKIN.

may be imitated, but beauty is more than skin deep—it is hidden in the blood. Eliminate the poisonous products of indigestion by Ferrozone and complexion rapidly improves. Increase the red coloring matter in the blood, give it more nutrition and more red cells, do this and cosmetics won't be needed. Give up cosmetics, they wither too quickly. Use Fer-rozone and have your complexion firmly established. There isn't a case of blotched skin, poor complexion or lack of color that can't be quickly remedied by Ferrozone. Try it. Price 50c.

Cold Baths Versus Drunkenness.

In the course of a discussion at the sanitary congress Mr. Weaver declared that it was almost impossible for any one taking a cold bath every morning to become a habitual drunkard.—

BETTER THAN A PLASTER.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back, or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords.

The next attraction on at the Grand will be Wm. A. Brady's production of Lottie Blair Parker's beautiful pastoral play, "Way Down East." Theatre-goers who have seen the play will undoubtedly gladly renew acquaintance with Squire Bartlett, who believes in living according to the "Scriptures," motherly Mrs.
Bartlett, the Squire's wife; Anna Moore, who was sinned against more than sinning; David Bartlett, the Squire's son; Kate Brewster, the Squire's pretty niece; Hi Holler, the chore boy, with the infectious laugh; Rube Whipple, the quaint town constable and his "All Bound Round with a Woolen String;" Seth Holcomb, he with the penchant for "Life Long biters," the village choir; and the village doctor. Such a gracious welcome may not await Martha Perkins, the village gossip and mischief-maker, nor Lenox Sanderson, the vil-laneous city chap.

These are the characters round Mrs. Parker has written her play.
They are the residents of a New England country-side, they are plain people. And the story written about them becomes their plainness. Incidents of their everyday life give the author her theme. The play por-

THE PROFESSOR

trays the simplicity, comedy, and tragedy of the community, the purity and sweetness of which might run on interrupted of the shadows of the wicked city. This comes in the form of the cultivated city man with more money than morals, who has betrayed a confiding rural lass under the guise of a mock marriage.

Homeless, she seeks the shelter of a household, where the ruling spirit is a well-meaning country squire, whose religion prompts him to send forth the hapless Magdalene, lest she contaminate his own precious son to whom the sins of the world are somewhat unknown.

The son, loving the girl, for her sweetness of character, follows her out, rescues her from death in the winter storm, and the father overcome by repentant remorse forgives and blesses.

Plays that present not only one good part but several are seldom written, and plays that offer a good part to every member of the cast are indeed rare; yet "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" has not a single weak character in it. Every part is what the actor calls a "fat" part; and the company which Manager Jules Murry brings to this city in the near future in its personation of the play itself is in its construction. A most delightful evening's entertainment is assured local theatregoers at the Grand Opera House on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 17th.

THE COMING OF LOVE.

He came in the sea-drift and rain,
His eyes had a passionate pain, The night-dew lay damp on his hair;
I knew not the face nor the form,
The voice of undying despair.
That craved for a rest from the storm.

I opened the door straight and wide,
And beckoned him safe to my side.

He lingered a near me; each day Brought a gladder new sense of dismay
As closer he crept to my heart, This outcast who came from the wind;

I never knew there would nestle behind Grave sorrow, unending regret, For something too fond to forget.

One morning I rose unaware,
And stole up my heart's secret stair, And gazed through the half-open door;
My guest sat awake on a throne,
His dread quiver lay on the floor, And I knew it was Love, who alone

Had thrived all the tempest's mad strife

To teach me the glory of Life.

How a Plant Has Traveled.
Something like 125 years ago the little plant known to the botanists as Lepachys columnaris was only known to inhabit a small section of country in the very southern portion of Louisiana. Some time later it was reported as occurring sparingly along the Canadian river and later still on the Arkansas. Since that time it has slowly spread north, west and east, even to the very source of the Missouri, over into the British possessions and is now said to be creeping along the Saskatchewan toward Hudson bay. How a plant which originated in a warm climate could accustom itself to such changes is another of nature's mysteries.

HALE AND HEARTY

Mr. Angus McMillan, of Laggan, Ont., Owes His Health to Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Hale and hearty at the age of eighty-two, Mr. Angus McMillan, of Laggan, Ont., is a splendid specimen of those grand old Scotchmen Glenagarry County produces. But if you ask Mr. McMillan to what he owes his splendid health he will reply, "Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets." His explanation is this:
"I suffered with Dyspepsia for more than 20 years but never met anything to cure me till I commenced taking Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. After had taken the Tablets for two days all the pain and restlessness left me entirely. I feel it my duty to tell the public of the good Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done me."
If you would live to a hearty old age keep your stomach in order with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

His Sense of Touch.
"Some men have the sense of touch developed to an extent that is little short of phenomenal."
"Yes, indeed! There's Closeboy, for instance. I've known him to say he hadn't a cent before I opened my lips."

Of course they do. It is their
