Kitchen Queen

Although we strongly recommend our "Empire Queen" Range as being without doubt the finest and best made still, for those who do not like the appearance of an absolutely plain range we stock the "Kitchen Queen."

Although the surface is ornamental, still, the carving is not deep at all, and it is very easily cleaned. We can highly recommend this range, and the only difference between it and the "Empire Queen" is the appearance. It will give as good satisfaction as any range possibly can. See one in our window.

Our showing of coats is most elaborate phrase of our cloak department's exhibition for fall. We are justified in presuming that it is probably the most elaborate you will find anywhere.
