To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

Rochon, P. Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.
"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I had frequent dizay spells and became greatly run down. A neighbor advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with "Fruit-a-tives".

It Came Over the Girl at the Proper Time as It Always Has.

By J. V. Symons.

"Lucia, dear, I have some news for you," said little Miss Brett, taking her by both hands in her dressing room in the Imperial theater. "I am going to leave the stage."

"You, my dear! Why—why Prescott told me himself that he means to give you the star part in 'Under Two Flags' next month. You can't mean it, you who have won fame almost in a night."

"But that doesn't mean anything to me now," answered the girl, smiling." "You see," she added in a lower voice, "I am engaged to be married." Lucia Clay kissed her warmly and chatted for quite five minutes, which was a big silec out of a busy woman's life. Then she watched her go down the draughty corridor and sank back into her chair and wept bitterly. People would have been astonished if they could have seen Lucia crying. She was no of the big discoveries of the past two years. But she had worked hard for her success. The years of barren poverty and unproductive labor lay being the past two years.
