The Port Williams Acadian

FIFTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

At Port Williams Was Great Succes List of Prize Winners

The School Exhibition, comprising Port Williams, Greenwich, White Rock, Church Street, and Town Plot, was held in Citiens' Hall on Friday afternoon and even-ing last. This undertaking was started by the Women's Institute with small beginnings but is every year assuming larger proportions. It has come to be an event of much interest to old as well as young.

The march around the square by the pupils of all the schools, carrying their banners and flags, accompanied by their teachers and singing songs, attracted much attention. They then went to Citizens' Hall and declared the exhibition

The showing of flowers was not quite as fine as former years as the date was a week later. Mr. Russell, of Wolfville, brought over a large collection of rare dahlias which were much, admired. All other departments were well represented, the school work in every branch showing marked progress.

Miss Hawley, of Wolfville, judged the Primary work and complimented very highly the weaving of figures with paper which were quite wonderful for such young pupils. The Domestic Science section was splendid, the fancy work, sewing and cooking exhibits surpassing other

A collection of pressed, mounted and labelled wild flowers by Evangeline Cox, of Greenwich, attracted attention by its size and neatness. It was awarded 1st prize. The prize of $10.00 offered by R. W Tufts, of Wolfville, for the Indentification of Native Birds was won by (Seniors) Edith Forsythe, Greenwich, and Eustace Rand, Port Williams; (Juniors) James Norton, Town Plot, and Olivia Harvey, Port Williams

A sumptuous tea was served by the Institute members at which $43.22 was

H. R. Holding was secretary-treasure of the exhibition and presided at the evening session, which was interseprsed with patriotic songs by the children. The program was as follows:

Speech-"Progress of Canada since Confederation". Prize donated by Rev O. N. Chipman, won by Mason Cogswell Speech-"Canada's three premiers who were natives of Nova Scotia". Prize do nated by Mrs. H. D. Johnson, won by Madeline Elliot.

Essay-"Industries of Nova Scotia" Prize denated by Geo. L. Bishop, won by Lucy Cogswell.

Essay-"Value of honey bee to the fruit grower". Prize donated by Philip Bishop, won by Hattie Murphy.

Essay—"Life and habits of the Chipping Sparrow". Prize donated by H. R. Holding, won by Mattie Regan. Essay—"Why will Nova Scotia be the greatest apple growing country in the World?" Prize donated by R. N. F. Newcomb, won by Ross Graves.

The prizes on the school and special list totalled in the vicinity of $200.00. In addition to those already mentioned first prizes were won as follows (second and third prizes also being given):

Class A—Vegetables

Three table turnips-Burnett Goudy, Church Street.

Five potatoes (white)—Burnett Goudy. Five potatoes (red)-Grace Murphy Two cucumbers (table)—Grace Murphy

Two cucumbers (seed) —Burnett Goudy Five beets (without tops)-Grace Mur-Five carrots (without tops)—Eustace

Rand, Port Williams. snips-Enid Coldwell, Town Plot Corn (three ears)-Burnett Goudy. Pumpkin-John Murphy, Port Williams

Squash-Lloyd Bates, Port Williams,

Five onions (grown from seed or set)-Edith Bezanson, Port Williams. Five tomatoes (ripe)-Greta Murphy,

Port Williams. Five tomatoes(green)—Greta Murphy Class B—Cut Flowers
Sweet peas—Mary Chase, Church

Asters-Lois Wood. Town Plot. Marigolds-Miss Doucett, Greenwich. Petunias-Enid Coldwell, Town Plot. Pansies-Hilda Johnson, Chipn.

Larkspur-Mary Chase. Snapdragon—Hilda Johnson. Gladiola—Miss Doucett. Dahlias-Dorothy Avery, Church Street Best arranged bouquet of wild flowers

Byron Hennigar, Port Williams.

Best arranged bouquet of cultivated lowers—Mary Chase. Best Begonia grown from this season's slip—Greta Murphy, Port Williams.

Best Coleus grown fron this season's slip—Mildred Gates, Port Williams. Class C-Domestic Science

Plain sewing(pillow case)-Emmy Nel-Patching-Madeline Elliot, Port Will-Knitting(wash cloth, showing different stitches)-Emmy Nelson. "Boston Favorite" Cake(loaf)-Beulah

Lantz, Port Williams. Drop cakes-Byron Hennigar, Port Williams.

Cream of tarter biscuits-Miss Dou cett, Greenwich.

Best can of plums-Madeline Elliot Collection kindergarten sewing cards (Grades I & II)—Marguerite Taylor and Beatrice Avery.
Collection kindergarten paper folding

(Grades III & IV) - Lawrence Kelly and James Lockhart. Collecting kindergarten mat weaving (Grades III & IV)-Dorothy Avery and

Bessie Shaw. Class D-School Work Crayole drawing(grade I),3 action men-

Crayole drawing(grade II), pear-Eustace Rand, Port Willia

Crayole drawing(grade III), pumpkir Fred McKinnon, Port Williams.
Crayole drawing grade IV), scene -Wm. Norton, Port Williams.

Pencil drawing(grade V), tulip in pot-Jennie Price, Port Williams.

book cover—Minnie Bishop, Greenwich.
Writing(grade I)—Linwood Eldridge, Church Street.

Writing (grade II)-Ena Coulstan Port Williams. Writing (grade III)-Beulah Lantz, Port Willis

Writing(grade IV)-Vera Hirtle, Port Williams Writing(grade V)-Elizabeth Magee

Church Street. Writing(grade VI)-Evelyn Forsythe Writing(grade VII)-Elsie Balkman

ort Williams. Writing(grade VIII)-Ernest Young White Rock

Continued next week

Miss Emma Dodge, who has been spendng her vacation with her father, Mr.Gardner Dodge, has returned to her position in Boston.

The up-to-date millinery shop is doing Laundry work (middy blouse washed a good business. Miss Doris Jackson, of and ironed)—Ena Coulstan, Port Williams Berwick, is again assisting Mrs. Clark with the Fall work.

MARRIED

CHASE—COGSWELL—At Tufts College Mass., on Wednesday, Sept. 20, 1922, Almena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fredrick Cogswell, to Mr. Ge Ambrose Chase, of Port Williams.

Advertise in "The Acadian"

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Robt. F. Newcombe was to her friends Wednesday and Thursday of last week. A large number were present from Kentville and vicinity.

Mrs. B. Chase, with her sister, Mrs. Chisholm, and son Cogswell, who are guests from Brockton, Mass., motored to Hal-

Pencil drawing(grade VI), Dook and vase—Annie Robertson, Greenwich.
Pencil drawing(grade VII), potato, carrot, beet—Elsie Balkman, Port Wilagord Bank, who resigned to take the Collegiate Course at Acadia. ifax last week for a few days.

R. B. Hunt, of Lawrencetown, has tak-

Mrs. O. G. Cogswell left on Monday for Sackville, N. B., to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Lucy Steadman, whose death occured on Sunday at the advanced age of 89 years. The interment takes place at Prosser Brook beside her husband, Rev. J. C. Steadman, who predeceased her many years ago.
Mrs. Capt. Faulkner left last week to join her husband at Three Rivers, Que. while his ship was loading at that port Mrs. G. H. Illsley has as her guests her nephew, Dr. Edwin Morse and wife, of Boston, also Mrs. Morse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. West, and Mrs Emma Masters of Berwick. The boys of Mr. McKinnon's class (Live Wires) intend holding a "Corn Boil" upper with pumpkin pies, brown bread and other good things in Citizens Hall on Friday evening. A program is being prepared, and 25 cents admits one to a good is unexcelled. Give us a call.

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

ugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

ugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

ugar Sugar Sugar Suga

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

entertainment as well as supper. The proceeds for a special donation toward the painting of the Baptist church. Come and help the boys and have a good time.

Miss Cassie Faulkner has entered the Freshman year at Acadia and will board at the Ladies College residence.

The death of Mr. John Cleverton, of Halifax, occured on Saturday morning at the residence of R. F. Newcombe, with whom he had been boarding the past few months. He had only twenty-four hours illness during which time he was unconscious. He was a man of kindly disposi tion, very fond of children with whom he was a great favorite.

Mr. Roy Chipman, of New York, is a guest of his brother, Rev. O. N. Chipman Roy Chipman, Jr., arrived home Wedesday after spending the summer survey ng in Quebec. While at Gaspe he had the

Port Williams BAKERY & ICE CREAM PARLOR

Everything New, Sanitary and Inviting.

Try our Bread, it's Good. Fancy Baking that will Please. Ice Cream, Soft

Miss Jessie Garland left on Monday ton and vicinity

Mrs. David Lantz, with her daughter Miss Mary Lantz, have been spending a week with relatives here. Miss Lantz left yesterday for Boston to resume her work as a trained nurse, after a ten months rest spent with relatives in the Canadian West and California.

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

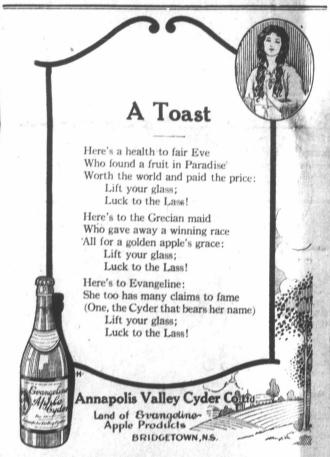

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

Sugar Sugar

Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar Sugar

GROCERY PRICES

NOT --- "Pretty Good" to-day or "Fair" to-morrow, but "REAL GOOD" all the time.

Men's High Grade Clothes

Made to Measure. 250 samples from which to choose.

$25.00 to $60.00

Special line of Men's Tan Calf Boots $5.00 per pair

Wool and Fleece Lined Underwear. Sweaters, Gloves and Mits.

For one week only we are offering Men's Blue Overalls with bib for $1.45 per pair.

Best XXX Granulated Sugar, $7.25 per hundred.

AUBREY B. RAND PORT WILLIAMS, N. S.

Sugar Sugar Sugar SugarSugar Sugar S SUGAR

XXX Granulated

Sugar Sugar

DRY GOODS

OUR SPECIALTY THIS WEEK IS STRONG BOOTS FOR THE SCHOOL CHILDREN

Crosby's for the little folk. Macfarlane's for teen age. We can supply the boys or girls with a good boot for $3.25.

Boy's School Suits-Play-proof are the best. Priced from $9.00 up.

Men's and Boy's Fall weight underwear, just right for these cool days, separate pieces from $1.35 to $2.75. Combinations from $2.75 to $5.50.

Men's work shirts—a full range—at 85c. and up.

HELD STORY

Still a few Men's Suits left at $25.00.

GEORGE A. CHASE Port Williams, N. S.