On the appearance of any of these maladies the Oinfmen should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat: this course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.

Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands

This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of pus purifying blood and strengthening the system renders themsilying the able than any other remedy for all complaints of more suitnature. As the blood is impure, liver, stomach a scrotulous being much deranged, require purifying medi and bowels, about a cure. Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the follow
