A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Miss Kelly Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Newark, N. J.—"For about three years I suffered from nervous breakdown and got so weak I could hardly stand, and had headaches every day. I tried everything I could think of and was under a physician's care for two years. A girl friend had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she told me about it. From the first day I took it I began to feel better and now I am well and able to do most any kind of work. I have been recommending the Compound ever since and give you my permission to publish this letter."—Miss FLO KELLY, 476 So. 14th St., Newark, N. J.

The reason this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, was so successful in Miss Kelly's case was because it went to the root of her trouble, restored her to a normal healthy condition and as a result her nervousness disappeared.

Mac of the C. P. R.

To the thousands who pass through the gates at Place Viger Station, Montreal, year in and year out it is hardly necessary to introduce the genial official who greets the travellers, he is "Mac". That's "Mac". The hundreds who spend their holidays up in the Laurentian mountains; the hundreds who have their summer cottages on the line, all know Mac and he knows them, and intimately. There are lots of little things that Mac does for his travelling friends that earn their everlasting gratitude. You see, Mac is not merely a station-master, sort of men and official in attitude, but he is an advisor—a friend—to whom the patrons of the C.P.R. turn when they are in travelling difficulties. And they always get satisfaction. Mac is known to go out of his way to help the travelling public and he is doubtless whether any C.P.R. station official has more friends than Mac. His temper never seems to suffer, despite the trying times he sometimes has and even the most humble traveller is assured of a courteous and kindly reception at Mr. Mac's hands.

Mac is a Popular M. A. When the trains bring him back the heroes of the way pulled in, many hands were shed through the car windows to shake hands with Mac, who, being a veteran of 1885 himself, has always had a warm spot in his heart for the "old laddie". Mr. Mac's life was under fire in the rebellion of 1885 and he was wounded and the Saskatchewan bar. He also possesses the good conduct medal and has been thirty years in the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railway. As a station-master, Mac is ideal. His courteous, his friendliness and his kindness have won for him the esteem, not alone of the travelling public, but of his superior officers. He can enforce discipline but still retain his friends—surely an excellent quality. Here's to Mac! Long may he preside over the destinies of the travellers who go and come in the Place Viger Station—From The Montreal Standard.

Tender forms and Specifications can be obtained at the office of the General Tie Agent, No. 9, Toronto Street, Toronto.
