An old widow named Martin, of the prignal of the corninal originally from Toul, and a daugh ter of a former mayor of that town, and did at Vincennee under peculiar circumstances. She was a person in independent circumstances and the was thought to be possessed of a large fortune. A few days ago her neighbors missed ber, and when the Commissary of Police was sent the Commissary of Police was sent of or she was found dead from heart disease. Among her papers a will leaves all her property, estimated at 200,000 francs, to her native city. She has left 1,200 francs for the expenses of her funeral at Vincennee, but with the express condition that she is to be buried "as far as possible from her late husband."
