

LADIES' NECKWEAR.

THE NECKWEAR we offer this week is of the finest grade—correct in style, in color and detail of finish. They represent the remainder of a maker's finest Neckwear—stocks held for reorderers.

Now We Have to Sell Them at Half Price.

We have 200 dozen for this sale. They show all the prevailing styles, shapes, colours and effects.

BELTS! BELTS! BELTS!

Thousands of them, the most wanted sort, bought to end a mill lot—the loss a bagatelle in a big millers' business, the clearance necessary in a manufacturer's scheme of business.

Last Week's Selling Was Big!

This week's will be still bigger—such news travels. Customers seeing them on our counter last week bought and called them fine.

Won Oratorical Contest

Clever Newfoundland Girl Captures Gold Medal.

From the "Normal College News" of Ypsilanti, Michigan, U. S. A., of the 28th inst., we learn that Miss Lillian B. Treadwell, a native of this city, but residing for some time past at Somerville, Mass., has been the winner of the Michigan Normal College final oratorical contest, winning over seven men and five women and taking a gold medal for the excellent work which easily led her to outstrip her literary opponents. Miss Treadwell is only 19 years of age and her retirement entitles her to represent the college against eight other State Colleges before the Oratorical League of Michigan. She is a writer and speaker of ability and in the theme which brought her such high honour was most difficult to handle and was entitled: "The Strangers in our Midst." Miss Treadwell's oration was listened to by 500 students from different cities and States, and the College News speaks in glowing phraseology and premises for her a very brilliant career. It also publishes her oration in toto. Miss Treadwell is a grand-daughter of Mr. Clowin who formerly carried on a large business in St. John's, and her father, Mr. Treadwell, was one of the pioneers of the lobster industry in years gone by. We heartily congratulate the young lady and her relatives on obtaining such a distinguished position and upon the ability which made such possible.

Missionary Service.

On Sunday the missionary anniversary services will be held in Cochrane Street Church. The Rev. James Allan, M.A., of Toronto, and General Secretary of Home Missions of the Methodist Church of Canada, who is expected on the S. S. Rosalind this evening will preach at the morning service and will deliver the address at the evening service. Collections at both services for missions. Large gatherings are expected. With a choice speaker and bright singing these services are sure to be successful.

Ireland Under Home Rule.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, To-Day.

Mr. John Redmond, the leader of the Nationalists, has made a statement to the Daily Mail setting forth what in his opinion Ireland would be like under Home Rule. His predictions are much different from what some people anticipate. The existing political dissension would be replaced by economic and educational questions. The lines of cleavage would be different from present day lines of political cleavage. New classes of men would enter the political field and become members of the Irish Parliament. There would come first from the ranks of the Irish the country, who have hitherto held aloof, because they opposed the principle of Home Rule. They would be an acquisition to political life and with these the question of religion would never rise. Next, the Irish Parliament would be recruited from the ranks of the business and commercial classes, owing to the industrial revival which would be certain to follow the granting of Home Rule. With regard to the Protestant minority, Mr. Redmond was ready to accept any safeguards, consistent with ordinary democratic principles, but he was convinced that 12 months experience of Home Rule would lay such a bogey for ever.

Patient From Lamaline

Last evening Mr. Gear, M.H.A., received a message from Dr. Lynch of Lamaline asking him to make arrangements for a female patient who was on the train. The authorities of course had done nothing and Mr. Gear obtained lodging for the patient last night, provided a carriage to take her there, and this morning arranged for her admittance to the General Hospital.

Mr. Pat Kennedy, whose wife died so suddenly at Brooklyn, N.Y., a couple of weeks ago, returned there a few days ago. Owing to the delays on the journey here, he asked for and obtained from the naval authorities an extension of leave of absence.

Another Policeman Leaving.

Another policeman of the Eastern Station intends resigning next week and will leave here for East Cambridge, Mass., where he has secured work in the carpentering business. So many have resigned from the force of late that the question of adequately policing the city will soon be a grave one. About 25 men have left in two years, and the senior man in the East End is only a member of the force for that period. With transfers and resignations our city police is now almost reduced to a minimum, and no wonder considering the beggarly tender granted the men who have been told by the "People's Party" save the mark, that if they do not like what they receive they can get out. The police, like the rest of the country, will have a chance shortly to fire the "policemen" and place in power men who will give them fair play.

McMurdo's Store News.

FRIDAY, March 31, '11.

You will remember the English Process Elder Flower Soap a splendid accessory to the bath. A good quality, hard mild soap, with a pleasant odor suggesting elder flowers, mild and bland to the skin, and very reasonable in price. It ought to be the very thing for the purpose. And so many have found it. We confidently put it forward for this purpose, and even as a general toilet soap. It is far superior to the loudly colored strong smelling stuff sometimes sold as toilet soap. Half pound bars, 15c. each.

A Walking Saloon.

About 6.30 last evening Constables Whalen and Squibb picked up a drunk on Water Street and conveyed him to the station, as he could not get home. In arrival at the lockup there was found in his possession a big bottle of rum and another of whiskey, and he evidently intended to have a good time after the saloons closed. On New Gower Street last night and Wednesday night young men could be seen drinking from flasks and bottles procured before the saloons closed at 6 o'clock.

Jackman's New Store.

The new store of Jackman the Tailor on Water Street, adjoining his old premises, opened a few days ago, is one of the most attractive of the city. On the ground floor of the new building is the dry goods department, profusely stocked with new goods. The addition in the rear connects the two stores and affords a large space for shelving goods. On the second floor, over the new store, are the new offices, the show room, millinery room, ladies' tailoring, dressmaking and fitting room. They are all conveniently located and have the most up to date appliances. The third floor contains the work room, fitting room, cleaning and pressing department, ladies' tailoring, dressmaking departments and factory for boys' and men's readymades. All this is in addition to the custom tailoring and gents' furnishing departments, which are in the old building and are still carried on there with a full staff. Mr. Jackman has shown great enterprise in this new undertaking and we hope that he will meet the success that his efforts deserve. The two buildings are stocked fully with new goods, and the tailoring department carries the fullest supply of the latest and most fashionable suitings.

Children Had Eczema

Treatment prescribed had no effect—DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT made thorough cure. Mrs. Oscar Vahocit, St. Antonio, Sack, writes—"I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment to be a permanent cure for Eczema and other skin diseases. One son, while nursing, broke out with running watery sores all over his head and around the ears. Many sores were prescribed to no effect. The child's head became a mass of scabs and he suffered agony untold. He became weak and frail and would not eat and we thought we would lose him. "Provisionally we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and it soon thoroughly cured him. He is seven years old now and strong and well. An older boy was also cured of eczema by this Ointment and we hope more people will learn about it so that their little ones may be saved from suffering. "As a cure for eczema and itching skin disease there is no treatment to be compared to Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment. 60 cents a box, at all dealers. Dr. Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Fire Alarm Installed at Grand Falls.

A new fire alarm system has just been installed here which for simplicity and reliability outstrips the Gamewell. It consists of iron telephone boxes of special design, which are placed on poles in different parts of the town. The opening of this box and the taking of the hook registers the number of the box and rings two large bells at the telephone office. The person sending in an alarm will call "fire" through the box, and the operator at the telephone office simply presses a button to blow five whistles, said whistles, although over 500 feet from operator, is so electrically attached that the pressure of the number of boxes the alarm is sent in from is blown. Its strong points are simplicity and durability, as by taking receiver from hook sends in alarm and by calling fire through phone makes a false alarm impossible.

This system was designed by Mr. T. P. Judge, electrical engineer of Grand Falls, and will be known as the "Judge Fire Alarm System."

About 100 men are now employed excavating for extension to mills. It is expected that at least 400 men will be employed in construction work during the summer.

All stores at Grand Falls and Botwood are filled with paper, in fact every place a roll of paper can be put, and about 30 carpenters are erecting other stores to store the present daily output.

The Tritonia leaves England for Botwood on the 1st of April, and it is expected Mr. Beaton and Mr. Serham will be passengers by her.

The Post Office, Telegraphs and Savings Bank in Grand Falls are located in a 10 by 12 shack, which is absolutely inadequate and unfit for the purpose.

McMurdo & Co. backed up by the manufacturers of SALVIA, the Great Hair Grower, guarantees it to grow hair.

SALVIA destroys Dandruff in ten days. The roots of the hair is so nourished and fed that a new crop of hair springs up, to the amazement and delight of the user. The hair is made soft and fluffy. Like all American preparations SALVIA is daintily perfumed. It is hard to find an actress who does not use SALVIA continually. A large bottle for 50c.

Address

Presented to Father Clarke by the School Children of Torbay. Recently the school children of Torbay presented Rev. Father Clarke with the following address: Like storm-clouds gathering o'er a summer sky When all the earth was gay, We heard thy faithful whisper passing by: That thou wouldst soon away. As those whose hearts on pleasure are intent, We would not mar our joy; We heeded not the warnings rumour sent. In vain the clouds rushed by, But soon the storm in all its fury burst. And sorrow laid us low; We learn'd what we would not believe at first. That thou at last must go. "What! Take him from us?" whose long life has been Lived always for our gain; As Father Priest and Friend, calm and serene, In pleasure or in pain. As well remove the sun that shines above, And lights us on our way; As take him from us, whom we've loved through all the land, And cherish more each day. Yet think not that we grudge thy well earned rest, After thy years of work; We know we if thy years could bear Thy task thou ne'er wouldst shirk. The records of thy greatness firmly stand unborn. In splendor scattered round; Schools, Convent, Churches; none through all the land More splendid can be found. There's still a prouder boast that thou canst make: Within our hearts thou'rt king; The fight of years will ne'er thy kingdom shake. What'er the future bring, And in the hearts of thousands still unborn, By whispered word of prayer, Tradition will thy memory adorn. 'Thou'lt reign forever there. And when at last you leave this vale of woe, (Please God 'twont be for years) When to a high and chosen place you'll go, Among your saintly peers, You'll find a treasure that will ne'er decay. One placed 'there by our love; As you have never ceased to show the way. By prayer to God above, Signed on behalf of the children. For the boys, J. R. MacDONNELL.

Salvation Army.

Owing to the delay in travelling to Fort aux Basques consequent to the wreck of the S. S. Bruce, Commissioner Rees, the new Commissioner of the Salvation Army in Canada, with Colonel Mapp and others will not be able to reach the City this week in time for Sunday. The Welcome Demonstration and other meetings arranged to take place in the Methodist College Hall have had to be cancelled. This is unfortunate and a great disappointment to the local Salvationists and their many friends. However, it is hoped that the Commissioner's arrangements will permit him to pay the visit at an early date.

Interesting Lecture.

At the basement of Cochrane Street Church last night Rev. J. K. Curtis lectured for the Cochrane Athletic Association on the subject "Ancient Revelation and Modern Science." He ably demonstrated that there was nothing in the Bible that clashed with modern science. Some people argued that the book of Genesis is wrong in stating that light could exist before the sun was made. The latest scientific researches go to show that the simple action of force on waves of ether would generate light when there was no sun. With reference to the statement so often made by doubters that the Bible writings say that the world is flat, he quoted from the Old Testament to show that the Biblical writers held no such opinion. Scientists themselves were all the time contradicting each other, especially in regard to the age of the earth and how long the human race is dwelling on our globe. Lyell, the great geologist, says 850,000 years; Sir John Lubbock, 200,000, and Geikie, 80,000; and now come the 20 century scientists like Gilbert and Hainson, whose researches bring the record down to agree with the Bible, viz., about 70,000 years. The account of the Deluge was told in a most interesting way, and a subject that most people regard as "tedious as a twice told tale veiling the dull ear of a drowsy man," the rev. lecturer made the subject most fascinating and the audience were highly pleased. At the close a vote of thanks was carried unanimously.

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

I stood and watched the auctioneer, who bought things cheap and sold them dear. He had a large, abysmal mouth, the which he pointed to the south, and from its dark recesses poured a flood of THE AUCTIONEER'S eloquence that soared. He'd dam the torrent now and then, and look upon the throng of men, and slam his fist the desk upon, and thunder: "Going—going—gone!" What is there in that chaste refrain that makes it linger in my brain? I see the village sport go by, with dark blue breath and bloodshot eye, to try and ease his load of care by taking some of Fido's hair; I see him put his watch in pawn and murmur: "Going—going—gone!" Here's Emma Jane on Cholly's arm; she doesn't mean a bit of harm, but she's acquired a notion wrong that life is but a dance and song. The peeler says her joyous feet are wearing furrows in the street. "Til pinch her," says he, "some fine dawn." Another going—going—gone! So many hit the downward pike! The kind of folks that all men like: the bright, the thoughtless and the gay, all biding down, the same old way! We'll lecture them, and hand them tracts, and load them down with helpful facts, when they are safely laid at last, but who will warn, as they go past, perdition's glaring road upon, these mortals going—going—gone?

Biggest Scoop Yet!

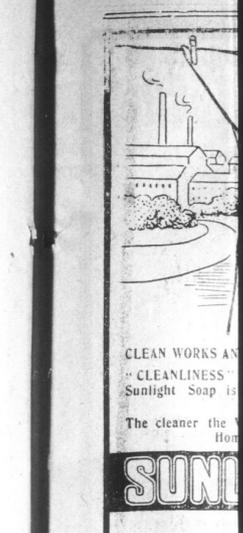

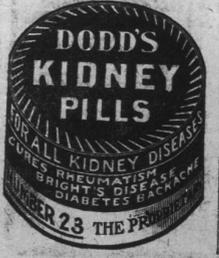

IF IT'S A BARGAIN YOU'RE AFTER, DEVINE'S place is certainly THE place. The failure of a large Millinery establishment and our subsequent buying of entire stock has enabled us to offer the following: 9764 yards RIBBON, Silk and Satin. Six inches in width. Originally 40, 50 and 60 cents per yard. Now 10 cents and 20 cents per yard all round. J. M. Devine, 302 Water St.

Cattle Range Exceptionally High.

Local cattle cannot be bought in the market at present, being very scarce, and butchers are mostly selling imported meat. Recently a shipment of cattle was brought from Toronto and sold yesterday at Pitt's. Big prices were realized for these cattle. One bullock fetched 22 cents per pound on the hoof, possibly the highest price ever paid in the city. Owing to the loss of the Bruce no dead meat has been brought here for weeks past, and butchers find it very difficult to keep their customers supplied.

Enjoyable Sociable.

A very enjoyable sociable took place in the lecture room of the Congregational Church last evening. Rev. J. Thackeray presided and an excellent programme was discussed. Piano solos were rendered by Miss Joyce and Mr. R. Kendall; violin solo, Miss Boyd; mandolin solo, Miss Sharpe; recitations by Messrs. Kendall and F. Dawe, and vocal solos by Mrs. Goodwin and Misses Vincent, Robinson and Haddon, and Messrs. Willis, T. Courtenay and C. Haddon. A large audience was present and at the conclusion refreshments were served. Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, Etc.

Address to Rev.

To the Reverend M. J. J. From the Benevolent City, St. John's, Nfld. Dear Father Clarke, the Benevolent Irish Society to convey to you an expression of sincere regret at your departure amongst us. Whilst all sections of the city have recognised you and will appreciate your special manner can we pleasure and pride to your labours and with us work wish you farewell. Your dominant desire was to work for the benefit of the poor, the two cardinal principles of the Society—our aim and our goal. Truly "benevolent" was your mission during the which you have ministered, voted flock in this country, shall we remember your faithful "Irish" priest—the "Soggarth Aroon."
