Robert TempletonWedding Bells.

On January 7th, at the home of Mr. Daniel O'Leary, in the presence of one hundred and fifty invited guests, a very pretty wedding was solemnized, the contracting parties being Mr. Frank Lahey, of Cape Broyle and Miss Kitty O'Leary, of P. Cove, South, who for the past three years has been operator with Hon. M. P. Cashin, Cape Broyle. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Renouf, P.P., Trepassey, who delivered a most impressive sermon to the happy couple on the responsibilities which was laid upon them in their newly-wedded life, stating clearly that the fulfilling of their duties rested mainly with their helping each other to be good and true to their religion, and impressing upon them that if these two points were faithfully carried out happiness and contentment would certainly follow. The bride was given away by her father and was very tastefully and becomingly attired in a suit of cream, being attended by her sister, Miss Florrie O'Leary, her cousin Miss Annie O'Leary, and Miss B. Scully, an intimate friend of the groom, while Mr. Peter Lahey (motor driver), did the honors of best man, assisted by Messrs. Sam O'Leary and Vincent Carew. After the ceremony was performed, the guests were seated and partook of a very sumptuous repast, after which music, songs and dancing were freely indulged in till morning, when all dispersed for home well pleased with their entertainment. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, prominent amongst them being a cheque from the Hon. M. P. Cashin. Mr. and Mrs. Lahey, accompanied by their friends left for home in Cape Broyle by the s.s. Portia amidst heaps of good wishes for their future welfare and success. We extend our hearty congratulations to both.—Rel.

Pass Christian.

Pass Christian, which is now on tap, was never known till recently, and then it sprang upon the map with energy, yet decently. I know not if it be a town, nor what the games they're playing there; you cannot keep a good Pass down when Presidents are staying there. Pass Christian, by the public sheets, has boasted been most cleverly, but silence broods upon the streets and in the halls of Beverly. One burg goes up, another down, for burgs are like humanity; humiliation holds one down, while one swells up with vanity. Pass Christian throbbed upon the wires for its brief day, however, while silent were the minstrel's lyres and hushed the bells of Beverly. Pass Christian by excitement tossed, saw crowded every hostelry, until her citizens were lost in all the crush and jostling; one day unknown, the next day great, was ever like emergency? Some and proud she faced her fate, quite equal to the urgency; to entertain her horde of guests she met them all endeavoring, while sorrow filled the manly breasts and chilled the hearts at Beverly.

Healthy and Un-healthy Lighting.

Gas, it may be said, vitates the atmosphere. True. But it also helps to purify it. Its purifying power is greater than its vitating power. Electricity does not vitiate, nor does it purify. Hear what three eminent men have said:—
Much evidence has lately been adduced to show that gas is more useful than the electric light in promoting efficient ventilation of a room. It is for this amongst other reasons, that gas is being frequently substituted for the electric light. The latest example is, perhaps, the Society of Medical Officers of Health, which has recently installed gas on its premises, after experience with the electric light.—Dr. Jamieson B. Hurry.

He would merely add that no member who had experience of their meeting room under the old conditions could deny the improvement that had taken place since gas had been substituted for the electric light and the new system of heating and ventilation had been installed.—Dr. Reginald Duffield, before the Society of Medical Officers of Health.

I have in my mind's eye, at the moment, a hall which, in the old days, was lighted by gas, and in which a large audience sat with comfort, sitting through an hour's lecture, or with pleasure through a three hours' dinner, but which, with the march of civilization, had its illumination changed from gas to electricity, the latter being employed with all the latest refinements to effect the lighting under the best conditions, with the result that any large gathering within its walls leads to a state little short of asphyxiation.—Vivian B. Lewes, Professor of Chemistry at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich.—nov8,tf

OUTDOOR SKATING YESTERDAY.—Yesterday the ponds in the suburbs were visited by large numbers from the city. The ice was in excellent condition and several interesting games of hockey were played.

Today is
THE DAY

IN the business world 'tis not what you had—but what you have. Yesterday means nothing—to-day is THE DAY! To-morrow threatens failure through procrastination. Therefore, we repeat, to-day is the day!

So do not mourn over money you might have invested last year, but didn't. Nor make as bad a mistake by promising yourself you will do it to-morrow.

You are only sure of TO-DAY. Do not let it pass without writing for a copy of our "ten down and ten monthly plan" booklet. Then learn from it how you may make all the other days of 1914 produce a reserve fund, safely invested in good stocks and bonds.

In The Council.

The Legislative Council met yesterday morning and the Hon. R. K. Bishop moved the following Resolutions:

"THAT the Legislative Council hereby records its deep regret on the recent demise of the Honourable James S. Pitts, C.M.G., an event which has deprived the Council of an estimable member and the consideration of a gentleman who, during a long and prosperous commercial career had acquired the confidence of the public, and whose character both in public and private life was unimpeachable.

RESOLVED.—That the Council deeply sympathize with the family of the late Honourable Mr. Pitts in their affliction, and that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to Mrs. Pitts in token of their sympathy.

RESOLVED.—That the Council do now adjourn until Monday next at 4.30 p.m., as a mark of respect for the memory of their late brother member.

These resolutions, after a sympathetic speech from the proposer, was carried.

Barquentine Clutha Has Stormy Passage

The barquentine Clutha reached port yesterday after a passage of 50 days from Macleod in ballast.

The Clutha left Macleod on Dec. 11th and on the 19th had crossed the Equator. Fine weather was experienced until Sunday, the 11th inst., when the vessel met a hurricane from the W. N. W., with mountainous seas. The ship was then in lat. 29.31, long. 57.20, and had to "heave to" and ride out the storm under a three-reefed mainsail and mizzen. The storm raged all day Sunday and up to Monday afternoon the 12th when the wind moderated and veered S. W. and the vessel ran along free for a few hours. Suddenly at 10 that night the wind freshened and came with such violence that the Clutha was obliged to run under bare poles. At 4 a.m. the next day the wind again changed and the vessel was put on the starboard tack and at 7 a.m. a heavy sea broke on the vessel, carrying away the mainmast and damaging the bulwarks considerably. The storm continued all day Wednesday but abated somewhat on Thursday. On the following Sunday, the 18th inst., a hurricane from the E. S. E. was experienced, and the Clutha had to be again hoisted. The storm lasted till the 20th, when sail was made, the vessel being then on the S. E. of the Grand Banks. On Sunday last when about 25 miles off Cape Race a heavy gale from the S. S. W. was met and the vessel was again hoisted. At 4 a.m. Monday the wind veered to N. W. and wearing the vessel land was made next day and a good run to port was made.

Capt. Joyce and his crew are well after their trying experience, which the captain says was the worst he had in forty years.
