DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

PRIZE COMPETITION.
You Tell 'em "GOVERNOR," I'm barely "CONCHAS."—(Danny Donnelly, 63 Duckworth St.)
Mr. Danny Delmar Donnelly wins the prize in the "You Tell 'em" competition, and to-day there is being sent to his house a very nice cigarette holder.

Our second choice was Dr. M. S. Power's "You Tell 'em CENTRAL you've got all their NUMBERS."
Third prize we would award to "M. D. Carbonar" for "You Tell 'em M. PENNEY, you're a good SPEAKER!" It is quite original, and the author will doubtless be heard from in our future competitions.

We received quite a number of "You Tell 'em" from readers who did not seem to quite grasp the point, so that of course they could not be published in "Diamond Dust," and we ask them to accept this explanation as to why their contributions have not appeared.

The competition this week will be a "Limerick," readers to supply the missing last line. Entries will close on Saturday next and a suitable prize will be awarded the lady or gentleman who, in our opinion, sends in the best closing line. The Limerick is:—
A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from his League.

For a verse in the "Dust" Had pierced his thin crust

Friday p.m.
Editor Sporting Column, Daily Telegram.

Umpire batting is but a poor sport at its best, particularly in amateur games. I have been not only an ardent fan, but a player after a fashion, all my life, and I have seen some excellent men driven out of the game through caustic criticism and unscrupulous writings. I understand baseball in your city is only in its infancy, and if you would take a tip from an old 'un, I would suggest you go easy on the panning of your officials. Baseball is the greatest of all games, so give it a fair chance in your country.

Yours, in the interest of the game.
"ROGER HORNSBY," (Crosbie Hotel.)

We have to thank the sender of the above for the gentle castigation he gives us, and perhaps it is merited, but then "a little panning now and then is relished by the best of men."

No one has a higher appreciation of the work of our umpires (particularly Chief Cheaman), than the editor of this column. Since the introduction of the game here he has been most unceasing in his efforts to forward the best interests, but we think Fred V. is sport enough to stand the gaff, particularly when he is furnished with a keen sense of humour. Umpires are only human after all, and the fans are great believers in the adage:—"To err is human; To forgive is divine."

C.L.B. Cadets Arranging For Camp.

All ranks are much excited over preparations for the annual camp at Topsail. They go "over the top" on July 28th and return to quarters on August 6th. The "old-camp grounds" will be used. The tents ordered from England have just arrived and are now safely stored with tent pegs, mallets and poles complete in the "Big Armoury on the Hill." Owing to the Brigade loaning their tents in the past, the cost of tent upkeep has been excessive, and on account having to order this year new tents from England, the Executive have decided to make a charge for tent loans in future and the Quartermaster has now a fixed scale for tent hire which will only help to keep them in repair.

This year the camp will have a special Food Controller in the person of Lieut. W. R. Moty, whose sole aim will be to keep down the high cost of living. As the expenses of this camp for the ten days will be something like twelve hundred dollars, the Brigade would welcome any voluntary subscriptions to camp funds. The Colonel was much pleased a few days ago to receive a hundred dollar cheque from the Hon. Tasker Cook, who also the same day contributed an equal amount to Wabana Company, C.L.B. The following list of kit must be packed by the lads: Two blankets, 1 extra suit underwear, 1 top shirt (extra), 1 pair boots (extra), 2 pairs socks (extra), 2 towels (extra), boot polish, tooth brush, hair brush and comb, soap and clothes brush, also 1 plate, mug, knife, fork, spoon, and swagger cane. All kit bags to be marked with owner's name and number. The pioneer squad proceeds to prepare camp on Tuesday, 27 July.

The Band are working hard at present and giving hand-concerts to help raise "camp funds." They will shortly give a special concert (by request) in Victoria Park, and it is hoped West Enders will turn out in thousands to the concert and encourage them to give another musical treat in this pretty little West End Park. On Saturday, July 10th, a special examination to be conducted for those lads aspiring to the rank of Sergeants. At 10 a.m. it starts with Major Raley, M.C., as Examining Officer.

F. Company room has recently been decorated by the "Paint Gang" in charge of Sergt-Major Colton, and when finished will be a very creditable job. The objective is to make this room for a club for the lads of F. Company the coming fall and winter.

Colonel Goodridge is arranging a series of sports for the Church of England Garden Party at Shannon Mann Memorial Park on August 14th. The Brigade will be back from Topsail in time, and will erect their tents on the Orphanage farm grounds to suit the convenience of the Ladies' Committee.

Next Thursday night the Officers Mess meets to finalize and arrange all outstanding matters. The Sports' cups and medals have been ordered

Performed Valuable Service.

During the recent forest fires which raged at Gallows Cove, Witless Bay, Fire Warden O'Neill rendered valuable assistance to the residents. One of the helpers of the warden (Thos. Cahill) while fighting the blaze on the roofs of the homes of Messrs. O'Connor and Tobin had his clothing burnt off his person. The valuable assistance rendered is highly appreciated by the owners of the property.
