TO-DAY'S MESSAGES

CROWDS GREET DE VALERA. LONDON, July 15.

Eamonn De Valera, Irish Republi-can leader, arrived at No. 10 Downing Street at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon for his conference with Mr. Lloyd George set for that hour. The Pre-mier was waiting for him and their conversations over the peace question were begun immediately. Despite the drizzling rain, a great crowd had gathered shortly after Mr. De Valera entered the Premier's house. The Road to Downing Street in a motor car. He was accompanied by Art O'Brien, President of the Gaelic League in London, and R. C. Barton, The Reid-Newfoundland Company Valera walked directly into the Pre- ney Post, July 12. mier's house. Mr. Lloyd George, accompanied by Sir Maurice Hankey, Secretary to the Committee of Imperial Defense, had previously arrived. Sir Hamar Greenwood and Austin Chamberlain arrived . shortly after them but since it had been announced that the conversation tween Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. De Valera was to be private, it was hand in case the conferes wished to

The Hiawatha Coal Mine, owned by V. J. Cavicchi of Halifax, and Glace Bay interests, has been sold to the Reid-Newfoundland Company, who will begin to operate it for their own use in the near future. It is understood that the price paid for the mine was in the vicinity of a quarter of a was in the vicinity of a quarter of a million dollars. The Hiawatha mine was purchased over a year ago by Mr. Cavicchi and associates from J. H. Emmett of Halifax for a price in the vicinity of $30,000. The mine when purchased, however, was filled with water, and the main shaft fallen in and since its pur-chase many thousands of dollars have been spent in its development. Ma-chinery for the extraction of coal was installed and many improvements were made about the surface property as well for the improvement of coal
