GUELPH, ONT., CANADA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 15, 1868. BOARD OF TRADE. Assassination of Mr. McGee, BY TELEGRAPH

A general meeting of the Board of Trade was held last (Tuesday) night. The Presi-dent who occupied the chair, said it was pro-vided by the Act of Incorporation, that the officers should be chosen on the second Tues-day of April. He hoped that in future the meetings of the Board would be better attend-ed, returned thanks for the ed, returned thanks for the courtesy with which he had been treated, and added that which he had been treated, and added that the first duity which now devolved upon the meeting was the election of a President. Mr. McCrea them left the chair, and on motion it was taken by Mr. Goldle. Mr. Melvin moved, seconded by Mr. D. Mr. John Stewart, Mr. Robins was re-elected Secretary. The President resumed the chair, and re-turned thanks for the bonour that had been conferred on him. He had made no objec-tion to re-election because he was aware, that it was expected of those who had initia-ed the Board of Trade that they would hold to it, and work it under the new constitution. It had been made a subject of remark, that the Board was composed too largely of pro-duce dealers, and he would like to see more of the merchants members of it. The Council brought in By-laws for the regulation and governance of the Board which were adopted. The members of the Council were then balloted for and were chosen as follows : Mesora Event, Knowles, Peterson, Allan, Whod, Shone and Wr. Stewart. The following report was presented :---The Council of the Guelph Board of Trade beg to supplement the report presented in January. They are happy to state that the Act of death. After a parting inforview with the Queen this morning, the Prince and Princess of Wales, accompanied by their respective suites, left London their visit to Ireland. They took a special train to Holyhead, where the vall embark on the field which is to convey them across the Irish Sea. It is expected that they will land in Dublin at noon to-morrow Dublin, April 14.—The great prepara-tions which have been made here to give all possible celat to the visit of the Prince of Wales are about completed. The castle has been changed into a Royal palace for his accommodiation. St. Fai-rick's Cathédral has been most invishly decorated for the coming ceremonies st-tending the initiation of His Boyal High-ness as a knight of St. Patrick. The quays and public building are havidly ornamented, and the flags, streament, motions, and other decorations are beauli-ful. Triumphal arches have been recet-ed in the principal streets through which the Royal visitor is to pass. "The people of the surrounding country are pouring in the city, and crowds of visitors are hourly arriving from England to withdess the apprehensions which have been rais-ed of an approaching war, and particular-ly denies that there is any reason to ap-prehend trouble with Germany.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE. London, April 14.— Viscourat Crain-bourae, Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary of State for India under Lord Derby, is dead. His eldest surviving son is the Bight Hon. Viscount Granbourne, who succeeds to the titles and estates of the late Marquis. The London journals this morning publish elaborate obituary no-tices of the decased Peer, and they all express regret at the loss which the House of Commons will sustin in the transfer of Lord Cranbourne to the House of Peers, in consequence of his father's death.
