MR. CRONYN'S REPLY

To the Proposal of the New Street Railway Company.

The Present Company Will Substitute Electricity for Horses and Make Such Extensions as Public Necessity Demands.

The following self-explanatory letter was received this morning by the city clerk:

C. A. Kingston, Esq., city clerk, London,

C. A. Kingston, Esq., city clerk, London, Ont:
Sir, The London Street Railway Company beg to acknowledge receipt of yours inclosing what purports to be a proposal of C. H. Ivey and others re an electric street railway. Understanding that the matter of this proposal is to be reconsidered by the City Council at an early day, we desire to remind them of what we had previously intimated to them, namely, that the London Street Railway Company is prepared to substitute electricity for horses upon all their lines and to make such extensions of their present system as public necessity demands upon such terms as to fares and other concessions as may be agreed upon between the council and company, and we request you to submit this letter to the council at their first meeting. I am, sir, your obedient servant,

V. CRONYN,
President London Street Railway Company.

Irish Parliamentary Funds.
London, Nov. 4.—Munro & Co., the bankers of Paris who have in their possession the money known as the Paris fund belonging to the Irish Parliamentary party, have written to Justice McCarthy saying they have consulted counsel in regard to the release of the fund. The counsel advises them that they cannot part with the money unless authorized to do so by the Tribunal of the Seine. No compromise between the two sections of the Irish party regarding the disposition of the fund, they add, can free them from responsibility.

Remenyi — "The Greatest Living Viclinist."

The appearence of Mr. Edouard Remenyi in concert last evening was one of the most exceptional treats that could have been offered to even the most critical audience.
Remenyi is heralded as the greatest living violin virtuoso, and the claim will be readily conceded, as it would be hypercriticism to compare him with any violinist who has visited this country, so thoroughly unique and typical in his playing. Possessing a marvelous command of the merely technical possibilities of the instrument, he is able to find expressions for all varieties of emotion that the composition and his mood may demand. Mr. Remenyi's interpretation of well-known melodies reveals unimagined beauties in the composition, so thoroughly is it clothed with his individuality.—[St. Paul, Minn, Piyneer Press,
