At the Police Court.

Lottie Stauley was in the Police Court yesterlay, looking a little bit worse for her carousal of the preceding night. The magistrate fined her $5 or twenty days. Lottie is not married, and her neighbors complain that the place in which she resided on Richmond street was disorderly. Frank Brues, who was remanded a month ago on a charge of stealing two checks from the G. T. R., did not appear. Mr. McKillep said the authorities had chased the checks to Hespeler on Aug. 7 last, but were unable to connect the their with Brues. Magistrate Parke therefore registered that person's discharge. Albert Webber, who is supposed to he insane, was caught by Sergeant McGuire shooting off a revolver indiscriminately in the neighborhood of the postoffice. He was remanded for a week.

A Sad Death.

Sad circumstances surrounded the death of Mrs. Catharine Dunigan, Monday. The old lady was 90 years of age and lived alone in a cottage on Henry street. It appears that Mrs. Dunigan has only one relative living in the city at present, a daughter, Mrs. Evans, residing at 5 Henry street. This lady has been sick, together with her daughter, for the past three weeks. Neither could leave the house. Their state has been one of extreme penury—forced, as they were, to live upon the result of the former's abors—since their humble means, owing to this illness, had become entirely exhausted, and they were unable to seek assistance. During the interval Mrs. Dunigan had become ill. The old lady was enfeebled by age and lacked necessary nourishment. She was found the other night by her daughter, who had partially recovered, dying of hunger. She had not tasted a morsel of food for three days. Nourishment was provided speedily, but all efforis were unavailing, and the aged person died.

An Apyernisea reporter called upon A Sad Death.

oris were unavailing, and the aged person ed.

An Advertiser reporter called upon is. Evans, the daughter, yesterday delearned the above particulars. It is considered to this city on county Cork, Ireland, over 45 years or, when London was a village. The deased was, even at that time, vidow with only one child. For number of years she kept house for the father of Mr. Joseph Marshall, M. P. eaving his employment she was next enged in a similar capacity by Capt. Oberts, who then resided at Mount Hope, uring the past decade Mrs. Dunigan has ved by herself, supported, for the most art, by her grandson, Mr. Albert Evans, herews agent on the C. P. R. in the Northest.

Among the other grandchildren of the de among the other grandenidren of the de-ceased—all children of Mrs. John Evans, whose husband was county constable—are: Mrs. John Upton, Kentucky; William Evans, Montreal, and Mrs. Cochrane, St.
