Dr. Snow, late Senior Surgeon, Cancer Hospital, London, England, said:

"Scientific nutrition like BOVRIL will do more to stay the ravages of any malady than a century of progress in drug treatment."

Well-fortified by nourishing food, you can resist insidious or sudden attacks of disease.

BOVRIL is a highly-concentrated food. Immediately it is taken, it is transformed into energy and strength. No other food so quickly stimulates and invigorates the system as

BOVRIL

MADAME'S WARD

BY PAULINE BEVERLY.

No, I thought, as I went on with some outlandish lingo, was, I felt, a

not give mademoiselle a bad idea of No idle threat was that resolve of ladame's about a governess for her better go for a good long ride. I shall be busy all the morning, and you may down outside the drawing-room win- years old, was strangled to death in Madame's about a governess for her better go for a good long ride. I shall ward, and so we soon found out, to be busy all the morning, and you may our mutual dismay. Nat chafed and not have many more at liberty?" and grumbled to me, and I kept her company—a course of conduct in which running after her, and making a Alice Deeping made an eloquent third. series of derisive grimaces over her Alice Deeping made an eloquent third. Madame knew of this, no doubt-there shoulder at me as she went. were few things in progress around her which escaped her keen eyes-but my reading, I did not envy Mile. Valshe said nothing.

There was a good deal of advertis- means. ing, much letter-writing, and finally, at the end of a couple of weeks, my fied an establishment to indulge in mother announced one morning that anything so plebeian as bustle-outthe governess of her selection would arrive at Chavasse the next evening. We were out on the west terrace, Nat and the scenes there was a good deal of it going on all that day and L. L. redding. and I-I reading, and she perched up and the next morning, preparing for on the broad stone ledge beside me, playing with a lap full of gorgeously stateliness, was too entirely a lady tinted fallen leaves which she had not to treat her governess as one, and, picked up. A lazy little puss was our nut-brown maid, always busy with some queer, babyish, fantastic trick or other. Now she sat there with her curly head bare, idly arranging and rearranging some levels arranging some levels arranging some levels are not some for lesson-giving of no calor in the facessi amounting us when we appeared for mademoiselle a charming sitting-room in pink, a delightful bedroom in green, a small soll by the following the following the faces of the facessi amounting us when we appear to the faces amounting us when we appear to the faces amounting us when we appear to the faces and the faces amounting us when we appear to the arranging some leaves among the rib- room for lesson-giving of no color in bons of her broad-brimmed straw hat, particular; and finally Madame an-Sometimes, to tell the truth, when I nounced at luncheon that everything thought of the prospective governess, 1 felt bound to confess to myself that I did not absolutely envy her. Little her cold fowl, and with a smart kick at the cold fowl, and with a smart kick ed that John Kilborn, of this place, has I did not absolutely envy her. Little her cold low, and with a smart and sold his interest in the cement merger discovered this afternoon on the own as well as Alice Deeping herself, accompaniment to that demonstra- for a million dollars. Both will and temper had she, when tion, she chose to exhibit them. Madame, coming out of the house, saw us there, and promptly made her way toward us; she had an open letter in her hand. Nat's eyes were as sharp as they were bright, and she dropped her hat with a deep sigh.
"Ned," she said, resignedly, "that letter's governessy!"

"Pooh! Don't think so," I rejoined. "Pooh! Don't think so," I rejoined.
"Oh, isn't it? You'll see."

Madame heard, of course—Madame always did hear somehow. Coming up, she touched Nat's could smilingly.

Some outlandish lings, was, I len, a little too much. Besides, I promised Nat to ride with her round by the river, and afterward call in at the lincorporated in Michigan This Year.

The people of this parish were aroused for the parish were aroused for the parish were aroused for the people of this parish were aroused for the parish wer "You are sharper than Ned, for dinner probably.' "Mademoiselle Valdini!" Nat and I both echoed the name blankly, and really with reason. We had neither of us so much as heard the name of Mile. Valdini before.

What and I becomes known it will be award to have filed articles of incorporation a capital of $15,423,000. CLOSE BIG BUSINESS with the Secretary of State. Mile. Valdini before.

"Is she the governess, mother?" I

Nat, with a pout. "My dear, I did not see any reason to trouble you with my selection, particularly as I knew that you had an objection to the entire plan;" and, with her masterful smile, Madame touched the girl's curls again. "Mathematical manufacture of automobiles, there are the pretty roan mare and my own grey were ready some minutes before she came tripping down touched the girl's curls again. "Mathematical manufacture automobile parts. The total capitalization of these contents of the great staircase in her closely-fit. with her masterful smile, Madame touched the girl's curls again. "Mademoiselle Valdini comes with the highest recommendation, she brings, I believe, the most flattering testimonials carrying her whip, and following her, I have you will the great staircase in her closely-fitting habit of green cloth with its little cap to match. Behind her came Valla, carrying her whip, and following her, I have you will from her last post. I hope you will carrying her Virtue Dent. Miss Nat's shrug and pouting frown of decided displeasure. It was not ously particular. Virtue Dent was a leged fraud.

Often that she spoke in that tone to born lady's-maid, and she had found

Nat and the willful little brown for if out Without another will be to be leged fraud. Nat, and the willful little brown face it out. Without exactly ousning value, Nat, and the willful little brown face it out. Without exactly ousning value, couldn't help it. I mean it, you know, at. Indeed I had caught such flash-Bother Mademoiselle Valdini, and ings of the black eyes toward Virtue's Annie Pethick, of Wilton avenue. Ste-

it any more." "I hope not, my dear;" and Ma-black lashes. Ready, Ned?" asked Nat, lightly. "That's a dear boy! We won't get back before dinner-time, when Mademoiselle Valdini will be in possession and the bolt will have fallen. Well, what is it, Virtue?"-for Virtue, in her gentle, deprecating way, had come forward. "What dress shall I get ready, Miss Natalie?" inquired the girl in a low glances from under her downcast

certainly make more fuss." She laughed and ran down the steps, pickles, confectionery, etc. and I followed her. I looked back when, having placed Nat on her horse, I mounted in my turn, and saw the tall figure and yellow robes of Valla still here. Her eyes were cast down; but, from the expression of her dark face, I could imagine the wrathful glances she was darting at Virtue Dent from beneath her black lashes. Virtue stood with a little smile upon her pale face and her hands linked before her white muslin apron—a very prim figure indeed. But, as I looked I caught a glimpse of Madame's stately skirts sweeping through the hall, and the picture was broken up. Virtue turned toward the passage leading to the kitchen regions, and Valla, still with her eyes upon the ground, went slowly in the direction of the staircase. It was a beautiful afternoon, not too hot, and we had a delightful ride round by Holmedeane, down by the river, and trouble.' finally through the village to the rec-The church clock was just striking the half hour after five when we pulled up at the gates and I lifted Nat off her horse. "Another hour or so and mademoi-elle will be due," I said, mischievously. must hurry, young lady." "Indeed I won't—for a dozen made-moiselles! Dinner isn't until eight tonight-I heard Madame tell Batterbin so-and I mean to get home just in time to change my dress. If only mademoiselle's train could come to grief without hurting any of the passengers, I should rather rejoice than otherwise," mad served, willfully. mademoiselle's pupil ob-

dows, and there was not a sound to an abandoned office in Humboldt be heard from within; from which Boulevard, near Commerce street, last state of affairs it was pretty safe to Friday night. The body of the girl augur two things—that Alice was not was found today.

there, and that her mother was taking The whole neighborhood is aroused her medicine-bottles. Nat halted in men and women determined on venindecision. dini her pupil-not by any manner of

"Do you think Alice is there, Ned?" had become general. she asked, in a cautious whisper. "No, or we should hear her."

Mount Chavasse was far too digniif we once go in there will be nothing quarters for over a week. Empty beer for it but to listen to her dismal talk bottles and other evidences of the ocuntil she is tired. Oh, dear, I wish cupancy of the office by a band of somebody would come out, so that we hoodlums have been gathered by the could ask;" For we were such fa-police. miliar figures at the rectory that no one ever dreamed of the necessity of murder are supposed to have taken a announcing us when we appeared train to Chicago, and telegrams have

FOR A MILLION

"And when is the lady due, mother?" I asked.
"She will come on the 6:25 train from Charing Cross, probably. You had better drive to meet her, Ned."
But no—I remonstrated against that

But no—I remonstrated against that. To meet a foreign young woman who would perhaps strike me dumb with

should have sped if she had not been Lansing, Mich., Nov. 19. — Figures to fever heat. The Rev. Francis Czermy concerned, I do not know; as it was, compiled by the Secretary of State winski, assistant rector of the parish. love. Yes, you are quite right. Ma- Madame yielded, and said that the show that the autemobile industry has said tonight that if the assailants of demoiselle Valdini will arrive here carriage should go alone to meet the made wonderful strides in Michigan the Zinda girl were captured that they during the past ten months statistics. during the past ten months, statistics could never reach the county jail "Goodness knows it will be awful showing that from Jan. 1 to Nov. 15, alive. tell you what it is, Ned; we'll have a jolly afternoon if we never have another. I'll run and put on my habit

The capital stock of the companies range from $5,000 to $10,060,000. The Packard Company, Detroit, incorporat-"You never told me, Madame!" said now, and do you order the horses, ed for $10,000,000, was the largest con Make haste!" cern to file articles this year. In addi-I obeyed, of course. Everybody at tion to the companies organized for Chavasse obeyed Miss Orme, from old the manufacture of automobiles, there Battarbin to the how relief were 54 companies which correspond to

A WOODSTOCK INJUNCTION.

for an injunction to restrain a man from making away with certain propthe reputation of being a most excel- less little creature, liking to look pret- ger, a general storckeeper, of Ayton, less little creature, liking to look pretty, if it were not too much trouble, but caring very little either what she the utmost vigor Nat gave vent to the alarming words as she jumped off the balcony.

Madame raised her eyebrows.

"My dear child!" she said, in a tone of decided displeasure.

It was not less little creature, liking to look pretty, if it were not too much trouble, but caring very little either what she the supreme court. Mr. J. Grayson Smith opposed the motion. Judgment was reserved. The question which was carried through to the highest Canadian court was whether the plaintiffs and Madame was particular—fastidle of decided displeasure.

It was not less little creature, liking to look pretty, if it were not too much trouble, but caring very little either what she the supreme court. Mr. J. Grayson Smith opposed the motion. Judgment was reserved. The question which was carried through to the highest Canadian court was whether the plaintiffs and Madame was particular—fastidle little creature, liking to look pretty, if it were not too much trouble, but caring very little either what she supreme court. Mr. J. Grayson Smith opposed the motion. Judgment was reserved. The question which was carried through to the highest Canadian court was whether the plaintiffs and was particular—fastidle little clear what she supreme court. Mr. J. Grayson Smith opposed the supreme court. Mr. J. Grayson Smith

LAWYER ARRESTED.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 18. - George H. bother Mademoiselle Valdini's accomplate pale face sometimes as I should have phenson, it is alleged, received the plishments! There! Now I won't say thought sufficient to make that demoney for a certain purpose on Nov. mure damsel quail. Even now Valla 15, but kept it. Mrs. Pethick swore out did not look over pleasant as she put a warrant charging the lawyer with dame smiled indulgently. Nicely I the whip into Natalie's little gauntlettheft. Stephenson did not elect or is a trade union firm, employing 800 should have caught it if I had been in ed hand, and then, drawing aside, stood plead, and was remanded for a week, machinists. As a trade union firm they Miss Nat's shoes, I know! "You must with her arms folded, casting covert bail being accepted.

ONE AFTER EACH MEAL

To Be DYSPEPTIC Is To Be MISERABLE.

"It doesn't matter; anything that comes first," answered Nat, fastening her gauntlet.

"The one you wore last night, miss?"

"Yes, that will do. Why, Virtue, you are more particular over what I wear than I am myself. I do believe: you are more particular over what I wear than I am myself. I do believe: you are more particular over what I wear than I am myself. I do believe: you are middly without showing the food august of the control of than I am myself, I do believe; you rapidly without chewing the food sufficiently, indulging in hot biscuits, pastry,

> Burdock Blood Bitters has an established reputation, extending over thirty-four years, as a positive cure for dyspepsia in all its forms, and from all diseases arising from it. Mrs. Herman *++++++ → Dickenson, Benton, ♦ N.B., writes: "I have Anything + used Burdock Blood → Bitters and find that few medicines can give such relief in dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was troubled for a number of years with dyspepsia and could get no relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. I took three bottles and became cured and I can now eat anything without it hurting me. I will highly recommend it to all who are troubled with stomach

For sale by all dealers. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GANG SLAYS GIRL IN VACANT HOUSE

Milwaukee Police Are Hunting Men Who Had Made Place Headquarters.

One of the rectory servants came Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 18. - Fighting her afternoon nap in company with over the crime, and little groups of geance gathered soon after the news The girl was dragged into the office and held against her will by the men Then it is only Mrs. Deeping; and, who had made the office their head-

The men directly implicated in the been sent to Capt. Wood, chief of the Chicago detectives, asking him to ar rest them. His task is made difficult however, as the slayers have had time

Second Victim in East? A telegram was received here this afternoon from the chief of police at Owen Sound, Nov. 18. - It is report- Trey, N. Y., to the effect that the police > murders, he was working in conjunc-AUTO INDUSTRY theory that the men who killed the Zinda girl may have committed a sec-

TO SETTLE DISPUTE

American Federation's Radical Move to End Domestic

Grievance.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—Today's sessions of the American Federation of Labor was taken up with domestic Toronto, Ont., Nov. 18. — A motion ances, officially known as the report for an injunction to restrain a man of the committee on adjustments. The most heated and important dispute is The rivalry between these two grew erty pending an appeal from the report that between the machinists and the Miss Nat's shrug and pouting frown seemed to express that she did not hope, or wish to hope, anything of the kind. I hastened to speak.

"I suppose she's French? The name sounds like it."

"I believe so. At any rate, she is exceedingly accomplished, and bears the reputation of being a most eyeal
"I be rivalry between these two grew more day, and within the last week had received a fillip, though innocently, from Madame herstone the served to her self. Valla, slavishly devoted to he principal manufacturers of elevators in the United States will suffer. By a decision reached, the contract ing parties in the Otis Elevator Works of the United States are to withdraw from the work of elevator construction pending the settlement. The serious meaning of the decision to the employing firm did not appear to receive much consideration in the convention. The trouble arose when the committee on adjustment came to deal with a request from the elevator constructors flushed crimson.

"I didn't mean to say it. Madame, really," she said, penitently, with state of things which Nat accepted, 130 Victoria street, appeared in the comically raised eyebrows; "but I be said to be stated over, and Valla fumed police court this morning on the charge and on elevator construction works."

Madame had installed Virtue in the Toronto, Ont., Nov. 18. — George H. that the convenion order an investigation into the dispute, and in the meantime request the machinists engaged on elevator construction works. The said to the convenion order an investigation into the dispute, and in the meantime request the machinists engaged on elevator construction works. in the Otis Elevator Works at Chicago to quit work.

Only Secretary Frank Morrison pleaded for some consideration of the Otis Company. "Remember," he said, "that this firm

Saturday's Sale of Ladies' Coats We Feature 100 New Coats at $12

Saturday we present an extraordinary offering of Fall and Winter Coats. Never was a more timely opportunity to get a Coat of up-to-date style so well and truly tailored. It's record business we're after. A year ago Saturday we had an immense sale of Coats and this year we are bound to surpass it. All season we have given prominence to our superior Coat values at $10. This time we want to bring to your notice something a little better, viz., our $12 Coats. These we can show you better than tell you about. If you have a coat to buy, see these Saturday.

100 LADIES' COATS, in black and colors; mostly semi-fitted, and some Moyen Age styles. 48 to 52 inch lengths. Stylish and well-tailored garments. Saturday ...... $12.00

25 LADIES' COATS, Navy and Black Cheviots; loose and semi-fitted styles. All long lengths; self-strappings and braid trimmings. Saturday special...$5.00

CHILDREN'S COATS, red and grey blanket cloth. Pretty military styles. Full range of sizes. Priced from ...... $4.75 to $6.00

CHILDREN'S COATS—A good range of styles, in all sizes and wanted colors. Materials are Cheviots, Beavers and Broadcloths. Prices from $3.95 to $10

Golf Coat Specials

LADIES' KNIT UNDERCOATS — Sleeveless; navy, red, white and black, at ..... $1.00

PONY COATS—White only, trimmed with red or navy; white and pearl buttons, at ..... $1.75

GOLF COATS, belted at waist; red, white, navy and black; roll collar; trimmed with cord and buttons, at .....$2.00

NORFOLK COATS, hip-length, with belt, in navy only; trimmed with red, at ..... $2.75 WHITE NORFOLK COAT, hip-length, with belt and roll collar; trimmed with pearl buttons, at ......$2.75

PONY COATS, fancy knit, in grey only: trimmed with navy, sky or red, at $3

SPECIAL PONY COAT, fancy knit, in grev and white, with pockets: trimmed with self-colored pearl buttons, • at ...... $4.75

THREE-QUARTER LENGTH KNIT COAT, in grey only : plain, and trimmed

& PARKER

Phone 1182

150 Dundas, and Carling Street

STOVE POLISH

The coals glow redder—the stove shines brighter—the whole room looks cosier—when "Black Knight" is used on the stoves. "Black Knight" gives a perfectly black polish-none of the dull, gravish, bluish coatings—but a brilliant, lasting black. It cuts out all the hard work and dirty work of stove polishing —a few easy rubs brings the shine.

Just as good for Grates, Stove Pipes and Unpainted Ironwork.

ROY'S SUCCESSOR

inet Make-Up.

Quebec, Nov. 19.—As anticipated in a previous report, a couple of changes were made in the local cabinet yesterday afternoon, caused by the resignation of Hon. L. R. Roy of his portfolio of provincial secretary, owing to his appointment to the bench for the district of Rimouski. To fill the vacant portfolio of provincial secretary, Hon. J. L. Decarie was transferred from the portfolio of minister of agriculture, to that of provincial secretary, and Hon. E. J. Caron, minister without portfolio, was named to succeed Hon. Mr. Decarie as minister of agriculture. The elections in Kamouraska and L'Islet will take place on Dec. 6, and L'Islet will take place on Dec. 6, people upon falsified facts and vague nominations being on Nov. 29. and worthless promises. American

HOT AFTER O'CONNOR

Money-Gathering Tour.

New York, Nov. 18. - That T. P. previous report, a couple of changes O'Connor, M. P., is not to be allowed politicians and businessmen should not tolerate such an obvious fraud.

A Couple of Changes in Quebec Cab. New York Sinn Feiners Denounce THE MERRY WIDOWS OF RIDGE. TOWN.

[Ridgetown Dominion.] A "lady who knows" offered to bet the editor of this paper that there are 150

