THE GIANTS CAPTURE AN UPHILL CONTEST

New York Defeats Brooklyn 5 to 4 by a Last Round Rally. New York, April 23.—The New York Nationals played a great uphill game today and beat Brooklyn 5 to 4. The Superbas scored four runs in the third inning on two hits and by poorfielding on the part of the locals. But in the ninth the Glants came from behind and won the game, Myers' double tieing the score, and a hit into the bleachers by Crandall and a hit into the bleachers by Crandal sending in the winning run. Cleveland Team Shipped Home at Last Minute, Game Being Postponed.

CHICAGO AT NAPLAND

Yesterday's Contest Cannot Be Worked In On a Sunday Now as There Are No Dates.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Detroit, April 25.—Though hope was not given up until the last moment, the Detroit and Cleveland clubs were forced yesterday to postpone another Sunday game, which can never be made up. That is it cannot be played off as a Sunday game, which can never be made up. That is, it cannot be played off as a Sunday contest, though it will be attended to either on some off day or as a part of a double bill, later in the season.

Not until it was absolutely certain that the field could not be put in such shape that it would not be dangerous for the players, was the game called off. The Naps were anxious to return to Cleveland, if no game could be contested, and were held at the Cadillac, ready either to dress or to make a dash for the train, to dress or to make a dash for the train, antil the last moment.
