TIGERS CRUSHED IN THE FIRST GAME OF CRUCIAL SERIES

Timely Hitting and Dauss' Wildness Beat Them.

WHITE SOX BEAT MACKS

Washington and New York Other Winners of American League Games.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—Boston won from Detroit today 3 to 1 in the first game of the series which is expected to go far toward deciding the American League championship. Detroit was unable to hit Mays when men were waiting to score. Dauss walked five men, three in the first inning. One of these, Shortstop, scored on a single by Lewis. Hooper's triple following a single by Mays accounted for another Boston run in the eighth.

R.H.E. Boston . . . 10 0 0 0 1 1 0—3 11 0
Detroit . . . 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 9 2
Mays and Thomas; Dauss, James, Boland and Stange; McKee.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—Poor pitching gave Washington a 9 to 6 victory over Cleveland today. Bagby was wild at first, while ragged work by Morton and Beebe added six runs to the visitors' score. Score: R.H.E. Washington . . . 9 0 0 0 0 0—9 12 5
Cleveland . . . 6 0 0 0 2 0 1—6 11 2
Bagby, Morton, Gould, Beebe and De Berry; O'Neill; Galia and Williams.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—A corps of pinch-hitters, mustered into the game in the ninth inning by Manager Rowland, enabled Chicago to defeat Philadelphia 3 to 4 in the first game of the series and keep pace with the leaders. Today's victory leaves Chicago still one and a half games behind the world champions and half a game behind the Tigers, because Boston beat the Tigers. Weaver's holding was a feature. Score: R.H.E. Philadelphia . . . 0 0 0 0 1 0 3—4 9 2
Chicago . . . 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3 7 2
Nabors, Shoen and Haley; Benz, Donoherty and Lynn.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.—A wild throw by Austin in the fifteenth allowed Mace to score from second with the run that gave New York a 4 to 3 victory over St. Louis here today. It was the visitors' first victory here this season. In the fifteenth, after two were out, Mace doubled and Hendrix hit to Austin, whose low throw to first let Mace score. Score: R.H.E. New York . . . 0 0 0 0 1 0 1—4 12 1
St. Louis . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 11 4

LEADERS GAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Brooklyn gained a full game on its nearest rival today by defeating Cincinnati, while Chicago whipped the champions, but Boston, in third place, maintained the lead in the National League race. Philadelphia is now two games behind Brooklyn and Boston two and a half.

In the American League Boston increased its lead over Detroit to a full game, as well as in percentage, by its victory today. Detroit hung on to second place, but its margin over Chicago is only half a game.

Big League Clubs Cancel Many More Players Drafted

Waive Selections From Teams in Different Minor Leagues.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—More cancellations of the drafts made here by major league clubs on last Friday reached Secretary John E. Bruce of the National Commission today.

The Chicago Americans canceled on Montreal, the player with which team they had not named, and the Royals revert to Washington for selection. The Chicago Americans also canceled on Richmond (player originally named) by Washington's cancellation of second choice on Kansas City, Philadelphia Americans have the opportunity of selecting a man from this team.

After Washington canceled their choice on St. Paul yesterday, Chicago Nationals, second choice, named Cruise of that team, but today they changed their mind and canceled on Cruise, who they selected from St. Paul falling to Brooklyn, third choice.

IS "KID" GLEASON REAL MANAGER OF WHITE SOX

The tip is out that Kid Gleason has signed a contract to manage the White Sox next year, that he is practically managing the team right now, and that Comiskey gives him credit for the improvement shown by the club in the past few weeks. The White Sox players have always been strong for Gleason, who was deeply grieved when he was let out some months ago, and now they are highly jubilant over his return. If the White Sox come through with the pennant, however, Comiskey will be placed in an embarrassing position. Rowland is the present manager, nominally at least, and most of the fans will look on him as the man who steered the team to the pennant. How can the Old Roman release a pennant-winner?

HERZOG HAD RIGHT DOPE ON FLAG RACE

"If the Giants do not win the pennant they will have a say where it will go," said Charlie Herzog in Cincinnati several weeks ago. What he said was based on the fact that the Giants still had a long series with each of the other three eastern teams. Then the Giants went to Boston and broke even. They did the same at Brooklyn, and then came the fireworks. McGraw's pet has just defeated the Phillies four straight, which has been a life-saver for Brooklyn.

JABS AT ALL ROUND SPORTS.

Howard Ehmke, the former Syracuse star, will twist today's game for the Tigers. If he shows as good as he did against Cleveland and Philadelphia, Detroit fans will be satisfied.

To get back into first place, the Tigers must win the two remaining games of the series with Boston. In other Detroit-Boston series, the team that won the first game lost the other two, so the Tigers are hoping history will repeat.

Dick Kerr, the midging left-hander of the Memphis pitching staff and the smallest pitcher who has performed in the Southern League in several years, was added to the St. Louis American staff.

Frank Schulte always wished, if he ever had to leave the Cubs, to come to Cincinnati, but the wheel of baseball fortune shuttled him to Pittsburgh. Still, he isn't so badly off. He can play with Schmidt, Hinchman, Wagner, Fischer, Kautlechner and Carey, whose real name is Canaris.

The Athletics are playing good ball with a lot of new recruits in the lineup. It was necessary for the White Sox to score three runs in the ninth inning to win Tuesday's game from the Mackmen. Eddie Collins scored the winning runs with a double when the bases were full.

The Detroit Driving Club has decided not to put on an October meeting on the half-mile track in connection with the shortship circuit. It is likely the meeting will be held at Monroe, Mich., during the week of October 2.

Since Zach Wheat broke his long spell of consecutive hitting, he has been doing great work with the bat. He will likely be leading the National League at the end of this week if he keeps up his present gait. Hal Chase has slumped a little.

E. J. Livingstone, manager of the Toronto N. H. A. Club, comes out with the statement that there will be hockey in the N. H. A. this coming winter, despite the withdrawal of the Ottawa club. He states both the Montreal club are willing to stay in the game.

New York Sun: It is not generally known that George Goulding, the world's greatest and fairest walker, received two cautions from one of the three judges who were on the job at the national championships. The cautions, understood, were put on by Billy Purdy, who was the only person out of the 20,000 present who thought Goulding was going unfair at any part of the three-mile journey.

George Goulding's heel-and-toe work is unfair, then it is about time for the A. A. U. to toss the game of walking from the list of events.

Goulding has the endorsement of being one of the fairest walkers we have ever had by such experts as Sam Austin, Frank P. Murray and Al Copland. The judges at the last Olympic games pronounced Goulding's style faultless. English experts also admitted after Goulding defeated their best entry at Stockholm that the Canadian's style was absolutely perfect.

The great Les Darcy is not immune from the ills that afflict the pugilistic profession, judging from the appended paragraph from the Sydney, Australia, Referee:

"What's the matter with Darcy?" one is frequently asked, and one has to stop and explain. Darcy had lately been about town in his motor car much more often than was previously his habit. The fact in itself might have excited curiosity. But there is a stronger reason for the question. The Australian middle and heavyweight champion's head is swathed in bandages, with a bulge on the left side as big as a fist. Motor car accident? suggested to the uninformed mind. But the explanation is that our greatest pugilist has been in a fight with a boxer developed a cauliflower ear, and he did not like it. The surgeon operated, and the wound is now healing.

There is a suspicion that K. O. George Brown landed the blow that puffed up Darcy's left ear. In any event the ear was in good condition again when Darcy met Clabby a few days ago.

The Cleveland club, has, at last, decided upon a move that should have been made a few weeks ago. That is to send Pitcher Stan Coveleskie home for the remainder of the year. As the result of overwork in June and sickness in July, Coveleskie has been of little use for the last two months and it has been unwise to keep using him when it would be far better to have him resting up for next year.

Fred Russell and Ridgemark Are Winners of Other Events.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Mabel Trask, second to Peter Scott last year in the Hooper-Columbus stake for trotters, this afternoon won the $10,000 event, the richest feature of the Columbus Grand Circuit meeting, and did so without effort, though each of the last two heats was stopped in 2:05 1/2. The Cox was a 19 to 4 choice over the field, Donna Clay being the hope of those who wagered against Mabel Trask.

Volga won the Horse Review Futurity for 3-year-old trotters. Fred Russell and Ridgemark were most in favor for the 2:15 trot, but the winner turned up in Ridgemark Summary.

JOHNSTON RESTRAINED FROM STEALING BASES

Jimmy Johnston, Brooklyn's center fielder, stole over 100 bases in the Coast League, and hasn't even swiped twenty in the National circuit. He hasn't slowed up; is hitting well and getting to first almost as often as in the minors, and surely the big league catchers can't throw so much more accurately than the coast backstops as to account for the difference. Johnston must be restrained and held back by the methods of his club. Robinson's men don't steal many bases, preferring to wait for the batsman to send them round, and Johnston, with a club where free baserunning was permitted, would probably have stolen a heap of bases by this time.

FRANK BARRIEU BEATS DICK WELLS AT PUEBLO

Pueblo, Col., Sept. 20.—Frank Barrieu of Canada last night outpointed Dick Wells of Cincinnati in a fifteen-round boxing bout. The Canadian's superior speed and cleverness won for him. The men are welterweights.

FRED MITCHELL SIGNS THREE-YEAR CONTRACT

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Fred Mitchell, formerly of the Toronto Leafs and for the last few seasons assistant to Manager Stallings of the Boston National League baseball team, today signed a contract with the club for three years.

WELL-CONTESTED HEATS AT SHORTSHIP MEETING

Black Ball, A. H. Mack and Jack L. McKinney Are First-Down Winners at Marshall.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 19.—Under favorable auspices the Michigan Shortship circuit opened here this afternoon in connection with the Calhoun County Fair. The three events on the card were well contested, two of the three events being split-heat affairs. The two-in-three system prevailed, and although the oval was in good condition, the time was only fair.

Speaker Is 20 Points in Front of Detroit Star

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Last figures on the batting records of Cobb and Speaker show that only twenty points now separate the two. These figures give Speaker 192 hits in 502 times at bat, for an average of .384 to Cobb's 182 hits in 500 times at bat, for an average of .364.

Unless the Braves can dig up a new second baseman somewhere during the winter, the path seems clear for little Fitzpatrick to hold down the sack next summer. John Evers seems to be definitely through, and Dick Egan has recently announced that this is also his final season. Richard has not only saved his money, but has invested it so judiciously in San Francisco property that he is wealthy. Dick, as a landlord, is said to be good-natured, willing to make repairs and put in gas ranges, and altogether popular with his tenants.

A second baseman, though, seems at a disadvantage, compared with a pitcher when it comes to collecting rents. All right, a second baseman could go to the moon, but a pitcher could terrify them with a bean ball.
