Tourist Business.

An increase in tourist business is ssured, and Forest should go after its share, as it is situated so close to one of the great Canadian ports of entry, Sarnia. The whole shore of Lake Huron for many miles north will soon show some development, as the Sarnia Beach was near the city. George France said that a board of trade was not a cure-all. It has no powers other than what it develops. It must definitely decide what it wants to go after, then mould public opinion to it. He then detailed all the organization steps, things to avoid and things to do.
