IMMINENT DANGER .- Silk trade depresse and prices compressed, to the great joy of all purchasers. Nothing equal to it in Canada. Powell's great si'k purchase the wender of every person. $2 00 colored brocades telling for $1 00. $2 50 black brocades for $1 25. $1.50 black satin and moire stripe for 95cts. $1.50 plaid pun silk for 75cts. $1 00 plain allk for 60cts. $1 80 colored and moire stripe for 50cts. Some of these goods are shown in the winfows. Remember Powell's great slik and cotton sale.

A Fine Horse.—The fine imported stal-tion, "The Times," the property of Mr. Robert McEwez, Allaway Lodge, Delaware Tewnship, arrived yesterday in this city per G. T. R. in very good condition. This horse is as fine a locking animal as has been brought to this section for some has been brought to this section for some time, and has a good record in the Scottish prize ring. "The Times" is a two-year-old Clydesdele, and is registered in the seventh volume of the Clydesdele Stud Book, is of brown color, with white on face and three white legs, was bred by James Oliver, Thornwood, Harwich, Scotland. He was Rancy of Whitefield" (2403); sire of dam, "Prince Albart" (616); grand dam, "Doll;" sire of grand dam, "Lord Darby" (484)

ORINGE OFFICERS.—The Grand Lodge of Ontario West of the Orange Order has concluded its ensual session at Alliston. The fellowing efficers were elected for the year:—H. A. L. White, St. Mary's, Grand Master; W. W. Fitzgerald, London, D.G. M; Henry Perkins, Gorrie, Associate D.G. W. Ray, Rugal Deep Conter, Invariance M; Henry Perkins, Gerrie, Associate D G.
M; Rev. Rural Dean Cooper, Invermay,
Grand Chaplain; Grand Treasurer, E. F.
Carke, Toronto; Grand Secretary, R. Birmingham, Toronto; Grand Lecturer, William
Deuglass, Eglingten; Deputy Grand Chaplains, Rev. Bros. Walsh, Carscaden, Adams, Berrier, McKer. Bowler, McKay, Cercoran, Fisher, Ryan, Martin, McGregor, Rump and Webb; Deputy Grand Secretary, Dr. J. A. Burgess, Listewel; Deputy Grand Lecturers, Bres. J. L. Wilson, W. H. Murray and M. Nesbitt.

POLICE COURT NOTES .- The parties who were in the house when Janet McNish was found dead—Robert McCarthy, Flora McKinnen and Mary McLeod—were ba fere the Polloe Magistrate yesterday meraing.
The man was fixed $1 for drunkenness, and the two women were discharged. The case of the last named woman is rather a sad ons. There was no reason for charging her with drunkenness, as at the time she was arrested she had just re-tarned from deing a herd day's work, and she certainly could have been held as a witness without being placed in the cells for drunkenness. She carried in her arms an infant four weeks of age, and the story an infant rour weeks of age, and the story she tells of how a certain young me-chanic in the city ruined her and then left her to take care of her offspring is sad in the extreme. The Henley sisters, charged the extreme. The Henley sisters, charged as vagrants, were discharged. Mary Lynch, disorderly, was remanded for a week. Fanny Moore, the woman who cut her head on the stove in the cells, presented a rather repulsive face owing to the large cut across her forehead. She was remanded for a week. James Gorman, a drunk, was discharged. Robert Manley was charged with vagrancy, and was sent to the Central for six months. William McGorey pleaded guilty to steal-William McGerey pleaded guilty to stealing some stockings, and was sent to juli for one menth.

RUN HOME, JOHNNY. I kissed her eight times at the gate tha night,
And a blush to her soft cheek 'rose;
While a cloud veiled the pale moon's silv'rin light She lisped:—"I'm about to propose."

"About to propose?" I said o'er to myself.
"And now, too, when board is so high."
For methought I saw when I peeped again,
A leap year gleam in her eye.

I bemmed and hawed and tried to speak, And looked up at the twinkling dome. When she said:—"I ain't goin' to stand he afl week, So, dear Jack, I propose—you run home."
