ALL STRUCTURE TAXABLE PARTS CONTROL OF THE STRUCTURE OF T

that here is where ar pills cure it while are very small and o pills makes dose, and do not gripe or tion please all who s; five for $1. Sold New York Small Price

* WERS

arke Xavier St.

NTREAL. and ittings t. Hops d all...

wers'

ed Hops for Solicited.

upplies.

++++++++ with the portion ne Colonist they Cuthbert and which was erect on, which was that paper. street until sold noved it to the street now oc-C. McK. S.

IES' BARD in Verse for the o enclose a copy ich would have the last dinner & Caledonian prevented by eather from at e poem instead, from which I ract: "Looking ppened to pick in Edinburgh, the scenes of d and many of ought to come more than to he heather and d I but ae Day as you will see mentioned are are the bard was HELMCKEN, & Caledonian AY 'MONGST HER.

the heather! ottish air, simmer weatner nountains. s to inhale caller fountains the vale! gloamin', sweet in the ere roamin' which I ken! my childhood:

hrough the wildkin our drouth wer Tyne river, heel o' the mill. ae left me for mory stin. could see them, to be wi' them.

e on the p'ain.
JAS. DEANS.

dnevs alone are k, lame, aching pain under the cured by using nt—Dr. Chase's ill a dose, 23 area, and Delegates of the Affiniated Societies:

Ladies:—Owing to my unavoidable absence from your annual meeting this year, it is not my attention to attempt an adress, and, indeed, I am giad to be relieved of the responsibility, remembering, as if the responsibility, and the second of the responsibility, remembering, as if the responsibility, and the second of the responsibility, remembering, as if the responsibility, and the second of the responsibility, remembering, as if the response of the responsibility, remembering, as if the responsibility, remembering, as if the responsibility, and the many and the gift of the responsibility, and the many and the responsibility, and the many and the profession of teaching have neither advantage of a normal school training of a university education, which means a certain loss of power and such as profession of teaching have neither advantage of a normal school training, or a university education, which means a certain loss of power and such as a precision of the sample of the moving about, always was avoid able until a meeting has set likely to bush and the profession of teaching have been advantage of the moving about, always unavoid able to the profession of the second profe shy, and mistrust and underestimate their own powers, but often possess hidden tatents and capabilities which, if brought into use, would be most valuable. If only presidents and officers of societies would find these out, and not take the first refusal as final, but be willing to instruct them, and help them to develop the powers that in report of the president, which reads as follows:

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

To the President, Officers and Members of the Executive of the Local Council of Women of Victoria and Vancouver istard, and Delegates of the Affiliated Societies:

Ladies:—Owing to my unavoidable abtained the responsibility, therefore be it resolved, that this Local Council of Women do notified the province who are shamefully neglected and badly and cruelly treated because their parents do not realize their responsibility, therefore be it resolved, that this Local Council of Women do notified the legislations.

of Albion to the highest pitch, and scenes of wildest enthusiasm wedded to loyalty and love of country were of frequent occurrence all through the evening. It was in the large banquet hall of the Hotel Dawson that the feast was spread, the room being handsomely decorated for the festive occasion, and the glorious banners of England, together with a large portrait of Britain's well-loved Queen playing a conspiguous est in the

THE BUSY LORNE

Politics in Alberni.—What may be regarded as the first note in the proclamation of an approaching general election throughout the province is the announcement by Mr. Neill, the member for Alberni, of a meeting of his constituency, at Alberni town, next Saturday evening. Of course the announced object of the gathering is to enable the member to consult with his constituents prior to the opening of the session.

Business Is Brisk.—Business was exceedingly brisk among local shopkeepers yesterday, the fine weather prevailing bringing many purchasers down town. All day the streets were thronged with people, and as a consequence the main thoroughfares presented a decidedly metropolitan appearance. Business men are of the opinion that the present holiday season will prove one of the most profitable in the history of the city.

cial opposition, had also been looked for among the guests, but had unfortunately been misinformed as to the date.

The excellent twelve-course dinner health of Her Majesty was called for by the health of Her Majesty was called for by the chairman, and 'honored with an enthusiasm that was magnificent.

Then came the almost equally popular toast, to the "President of the United Statis," which was given by the vice-hairman, Mr. William Jones, and ellocited a fitting and eloquent response from Consul Smith.

The Dominion and Local Parliaments, "was preposed by Mr. Arthur members of the Victoria public school of the Victoria public school of the date of the victoria public school of the victoria public of the victoria public school of the victoria public of the victoria public school of the victoria public of the victoria pub uted an admirable paper on "School Room Difficulties," and Mr. Sallaway safely to shore he would return for another, but Mr. Jacobsen advised him not to do so, as the relief boat was large enough to take all hands, which it did, making the way back with the greatest difficulty, so high was the sea running. The captain could not send away a load of men first of all, for they were in such a state of panic that had they got ashore they certainly would not have sent the boat back, as he intedded to do at further peril of his own life.

A Troubled

Evaluation

THE COUNCIL OF WOMEN,

Proceedings at the Annual Meeting of the Lory and the President of the Inc.

The 4th annual meeting of the Lory and the Lory an t Ex-Mayor John Grant is now at Juneau, where he will probably remain during the winter. Mr. Grant has large interests in Atlin, out of which he hopes to make a good thing. Mr. Stelly returns north in about a month, and he is strongly of the opinion that Victorians would do well to awaken to a realization of the great possibilities for fortune. of the great possibilities for fortune-making which exist in the district in which he is now operating.

TO CONGREGATIONALISTS.

United Effort of All Members of the Denomination Is Earnestly Urged. ·

Rev. F. Payne, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, takes the opportunity—through the Colonist, of thus addressing the Congregationalists of Victoria: "My Friends:-

"As pastor of the Congregationalists Wholesale Arraignment.—The mate of the bark Theobald, with a determination to arrest everybody who had anything to do with the recent purioning from his city. I have been here for almost a construction to the fact that our denomination is making strenuous efforts toward to the founding of a local church in this city. I have been here for almost a

See the sould believe the second of the seco The Captain Vindicated.—Mr. Victor tell you that I watched you for fully a dents and officers of societies would find these out, and not take the first refusal as final, but be willing to instruct them, and help them to develop the powers that in greater or lesser degree are given to everyone, how the first of workers would be increased!

But just now it comes home to me so very planity, when I am for a time re-linguishing my share of work in many or-smilzations in this place: I feet there must be so many here that would only be too flad to take np work, who could, do it well, if only they were asked; several times I have received letters from people after they have left Victoria sayling hew gladity and returned in the linguishing for them to do." And it is for most of sever planity of the medical possibilities of severing others to see a little of the needs and possibilities of severing others to use every opporation.

Evangelist.

Interesting Services at the Salvation Army Barracks Meet

vation Army Barracks Meet With Rude Interruption.

Story From the Sound That Talented Revivalist Has Grievously Sinned.

Salvation Army circles are troubled over "Rev. Isaac Naylor," who came to Victoria a few days ago and arranged to hold a series of meetings under the auspices of the Army. Mr. Naylor first of all arranged for the publication of an illustrated circular, largely devoted to a reproduction of paragraphs credited to various newspapers eulogizing his as a great worker in the cause of Christ and an eloquent evangelist. This publication was made a revenue producer by the insertion of a number of advertisements.

Mr. Naylor adjusted his glasses carefully and read the article through with great deliberation. He then said:

"While in New Whatcom a few months ago similar statements were circulated, and I consulted Dr. Rogers, pastor of the Congregational Tabernacle there, in regard to what I should do im the matter. We had a meeting of those with whom I was associated in church work; and the result was I made a full, complete and satisfactory statement to Dr. Rodgers. I have nothing to add to that. If you wish, the Colonist may write to Dr. Rodgers at Whatcom and get his statement."

Then the reporter visited Staff-Captain Galt of the Salvation Army and found that obliging and worthy official in a flutter of natural excitement. Yes, she had heard rumors in regard to Rev. Mr. Naylor, but had heard them for the first time that day, and intended speaking to him about them last evening, but he had left the hall very hurriedly, and she was thereby prevented from doing so. When had she first met Rev. Mr. Naylor? Oh, about three weeks ago in Vancouwer. She had met him at the Army meetings there, and he seemed such a good and faithful worker and so able a speaker

Army barracks on Broad street, opposite Colonist building."

The meetings on Saturday, Monday and yesterday evenings were largely attended and the eloquence of the evangelist made a profound impression on the audiences attracted by the flaring advertisements.

Coincident with the arrival of Mr. Naylor in Victoria, however, came several newspapers containing statements calculated to bring into question Mr. Naylor's standing, so at yesterday evening's meeting in the Salvation Army rooms on Broad street there were present a number desirous of questioning him regarding the newspaper stories. At the a number desirous of questioning him regarding the newspaper stories. At the conclusion of his eloquent exhortation, lasting over an hour, a gentleman in the audience approached the platform with the object of calling Mr. Naylor's attention to the fallowing article which appeared in the San Francisco Examiner of December 7:

"OBJECT TO LOVES "OF THE EVANGELIST.

Seattle Clergymen Investigating Conduct

married in California, the charming wo

RYRIE BROS., 118, 120, 122, 124 Yonge Street, TORONTO. Send for Catalogue.

B. C. STEAM DYE WORKS.

141 Yates St., Victoria. Ladies' and Gents' garments and household furnishings cleaned, dyed or Established 1854.

informed that he declined to be interviewed then, but he might be seen at his rooms at the International hotel, Johnson street. Hither the Colonist reporter repaired, close on the heels of the gentleman and his wife, who had just left their evangelistic labors. Being pleasantly received, the reporter handed Mr. Naylor a copy of the Examiner containing the article reproduced above and suggested a statement from him in regard to it.

gelistic campaign, commencing December 9; continuing ten days, closing Tuesday,
December 20, conducted in the Salvation
Army barracks on Broad street, opposite Colonist building."

The meetings on Saturday Monday

She had met him at the Army meetings there, and he seemed such a good and faithful worker and so able a speaker that she had readily arranged at his request for a series of meetings here. And now that she had heard of those charges

Staff-Captain Gait informed the Coi-onist that the meetings arranged by Rev. Naylor would be postponed. This step was taken in justice to the evangelist, and in order that the army may arrange to prove the falsity of the allegations against his character. When this is done the meetings will be resumed.

Mr. Naylor is a gentleman of medium height, solidly built, and wears a closely cropped dark beard. He is an excelent speaker, having a good platform presence and a splendid command of language.

the government retained office, the parties on the floor being equally divided. In 1885 Mr. Williams took a well-earned rest from public duties and, with Mrs. Williams, journeyed to England to look once more upon the scenes of his early manhood. Returning to Victoria next year he enjoyed good health and led a quiet life until five years ago when his health in a measure failed him. Ever cheery and bright he had a host of friends—those who, like himself, were "forefathers of the hamlet," the young and strong of mid-life, and little children. The last sad rites on Sunday were performed under the direction of the Odd Fellows and Masonic lodges, of which last order he was a past grand master and one of the earliest founders in the province. Mr. Williams leaves a widow, his faithful companion and co-worker for more than half a century, who in her day of trial has the sympathy of many friends of the old days. friends of the old days.

"Hath he not always treasures, always friends,
The good man? Three treasures—love and light,
And calm thought, regular as infant's breath;
And three firm friends, more sure than day and night—
Rimself, his Maker and the angel Death."

Thousands of Canadians can vouch for the efficacy of that peerless cough remedy, Pyny-Pectoral. It cures a cold very quick-ity. 25c. of all druggists. Manufactured by the proprietors of Perry Davis, Pain-Killer.