PREPARATIONS FOR THE COMING

Each day sees accessions to the number of horses at Woodbine. Yesterday the London and Woodstock contingent arrived in town and a finer string never came to Toronto. They look so handsome and are in such good fettle that the Western On-tarioans fondly believe they have a mort-gage on the principal events at the forth-coming meeting. The contingent comprises: John Forbes' Willie W., George L., Bonnie Duke, Brait, and Zamora.

Accident will probably show up well, but it is doubtful if he has speed enough to capture the Q. . the first time of asking. Fisherman is remarkably handsome, but rather backward in his preparation. Ben Bolt, on the other hand, is so well up in work that he will undoubtedly beat more than will beat him. A good judge declares that he has never seen three handsomer youngsters strip in Canada than the trio of chestnuts, Bonnie Duke, Brait and Curtolima, all of whom are also fast, especially the last mentioned. Edmonton has a fally the last mentioned. Edmonton has a curiously deformed foreleg, but can safely be depended upon to be there or there-abouts at the finish for her majesty's Woodbine presents a busy appearance these mornings. The knowing ones who think they have a good thing and want to keep it "all to themselves" can be seen at work at break-o'-day, but those who have got beyond that stage of life betokening trusting simplicity do not commence until about 7 o'clock, at which time Billy Owens about 7 o'clock, at which time Billy Owens can generally be atruck with his string, of which Pawnbroker, Blanton, Mandamus and the speedy Minnie Meteor are the choice. Saturday was the last day of the inaugural meeting of the Rockaway Steeplechase association. All carried 155 lbs. In this race it will be carried 155 lbs. In this race it will be noticed that the only Yankee competitor beat his four Canadian-bred rivals, but in the last and the greatest race of the day—the Great Long Island Steeple-chase—the visitors from this part of the world completely turned the tables on the beauthead fallows. An interesting game of baseball was played here on Saturday, the opposing teams being the Actives of Toronto and the Buckeyes of Hamilton, resulting in a very encouraging victory for the former. The game throughout was a hotly contested one, but the Toronto boys proved too much for the visiting team and won with a score of 17 to 9 of 17 to 9.

A great many wild ducks still frequent the bay, though they usually go northward when the warm weather comes. Numbers of black or velvet ducks are found dead on the water or cast up on the shores. This is the case every year, but none of the other varieties of ducks die off this way. Ornithologists have not yet found a satisfactory reason for this, but some of the duck hunters say that the ducks die because of their excessive fat.—

The preachers representing the various religious denominations of St. Louis have called a meeting to protest against the desecration of the Sabbath by baseball nines and theatrical companies. The movement was set on foot by the discovery that while the aggregate attendance at the churches on Sunday was not more than 10,000, 40,000 people witnessed a cowboy exhibition at the fair grounds, 20,000 attended various baseball games, 20,000 spent the day in the beer gardens, and spent the day in the beer gardens, and 5,000 heard two lectures by "Bob" Inger-

The betting on the race for the Epsom Derby, to be run June 3, after the result of the Two Thousand Guineas was known was: 7 to 2 against Melton, 4 to 1 against Paradox, 7 to 1 against Chopette colt, 10 to 1 against Luminary, 100 to 7 against Xaintrailles, 100 to 7 against Dame Agnes, 15 to 1 against Royal Hampton, 20 to 1 against Esterling, 20 to 1 against Red Rag colt; 6 to 4 against Paradox and Melton coupled. Previous to the Two Thousand Paradox touched as low as 2 to 1 for the Derby, so that it will be seen his chances are not believed to have improved by his performance in the Newmarket race.

Mr. Gebhardt, whose colors appeared on an English racecourse for the first time on Saturday, May 2, at Sandown, made a most successful debut as an owner, as Jolly Sir John, whom he had purchased during the morning (probably with a view at to sending him back to America), proved victorious in the Grand International steeplechase. Jolly Sir John is American bred, being by Glenelg out of Regan, and was taken to England by Mr. Pierre Lorillard. He carried 163 lbs. in the Grand international and beat Gamecock, 152 lbs., Zeno, 168 lbs., Kilworth, 170 lbs., and Red Hussar, 154 lbs. He started favorite at 7 Zeno, 168 lbs., Kilworth, 170 lbs., and Red Hussar, 154 lbs. He started favorite at 7 to 4 against, but only won by a neck from Gamecock. The distance is about 4 miles. Jolly Sir John was trained by Tom Cannon, and was used by him to lead Eole in his work. The latter is said to be improving, both in condition and temper, but is not expected to make his appearance in England until Ascot is reached. Mr. Gebhardt's colors are pink and gold spots, and bear a striking resemblance to the pattern of a china tea service.

Thousands thronged to hear him. On one particularly hot Sunday the preacher (Mr. particularly hot Sunday the preacher (Mr. Spurgeon was not a clergyman according to English law) mounted the platform, and mopping his massive brow with a large silk handkerchief, exclaimed: "It's as hot as hell!" His hearers stood aghast. "Such were the words I heard a young man utter as I entered this building," said Mr. Spurgeon, and then he spoke of the sin of profanity. The visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales made a great stir and was everywhere a success, a though of course there were some small signs of a nasty feeling, but they only served to show how really strong the feelings of loyalty are in Ireland and hew weak the Parnellites. They can do a great deal, unfortunately, to annoy and hart our dear old country, but they never can succeed in their ultimate object their so-called "freedom of Irelani," and it is generally thought that the three weeks which the royal folk spent in Ireland have made a very good impression on the minds of the people in general.
