He took charge of the Paris mission the following October. Paris mission at that time was composed of the Town of Paris, the Townships of South Dumfries and Burford, the Villages of Galt, Hespeler, Ayr, Glenmorris, and for a time Preston.

In 1877 he accompanied the Canadian Pilgrimage as a delegate of the Diocese of Hamilton and had an interview with Pope Pius IX on the occasion of his Golden Jubilee. The Pilgrimage had an eventful passage—"The City of Brussels" having broken her shaft and being for 23 days unheard of. It took 39 days to cross the Atlantic. On this occasion he visited the principal cities of England, Ireland, France, Spain and Italy.

His first duty on taking charge of the Mission was to pay off the debt of the Paris Church, about $3000. For that purpose he received generous aid from the congregation and parishioners. He went on a collecting tour to Chicago, and Pennsylvania and received material assistance in aid of the building fund. In 1881 he commenced to rebuild the Paris Church, and to build a $5000 church in Galt. In the same year he was appointed Vicar General by the late Bishop Crinnon of

In the same year he was appointed Vicar General by the late Bishop Crinnon of Hamilton. On Bishop Crinnon's decease in 1884, Father Dowling waselected Administrator of the diocese. In 1885 he was resppointed Vicar-General by Bishop Carberry, and also appointed a member of the bishop's council and diocesan examiner in theology. In 1886 he was appointed Bishop of Peterboro by Pope Leo 18th on the recommendation of the Canadian hierarchy of the Province of Ontario, with the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

When the young priest took charge of the Paris Mission he found a congregation with internal dissension and a debt of $3000. He established the Ladies' Altar Society, a Father Matthew Temperance Society and Circulating Library, a Young Ladies' Sodality, a Temperance and Literary Society, and a branch of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association.

Bishop Dowling was one of the founders of the St. Michael's College Literary Association, in connection with which he has founded a silver medal given annually for excellency in literature. He has always been ready and willing to give lectures in aid of charitable or educational objects. He is the first student and the first priest of the Diocese of Hamilton who has risen to the rank of Bishop.

It was Il o'clock when the doors of the cathedral were thrown open and the waiting crowds were admitted, pewholders, however, having the first entrance. At 11.30, when the procession of bishops and priests entered from the sacristy, the edifice was so crowded that many people were satisfied with standing room in the aisles, and there they stood for nearly four hours. vill There be War Between the Bosses and the Men?—Both Sides of the Story—The Building Trade Active—Mass Meeting of the Carpenters.

Never before was the building trade more ctive in Toronto than it is at present, and as consequence both the bosses and the men are flying high. "There is bound to be trouble between them yet," said a man who is in sition to know all about it to The World Saturday. "The builders and contractors, said he, "as represented by the Federated octation are united in their deermination to resist the demands of their employes, and the men, on the other hand, are equally resolved to have what they consider they are justly entitled to in the matter of wages and hours." ns' Union will set the ball of The Stonemasons' Union will set the ball of trouble rolling this morning, when all its members will strike for $3 per day. The carpenters and wood finishers have not yet definitely declared themselves, but will do so at a meeting to be held Wednesday night.

In accordance with the stand taken by the stonemasons in March, when they decided to strike to-day if their demand for $3 per day was not acceded to, there will be a general strike this morning. The union held a two hours'meeting Saturday afternoon and this line of action was unanimously adopted. The demand was made, so the employers claim, in violation of the agreement which called for three months notice and which should there-fore have been given in January, but was not

This statement is made by Mr. Frank Powell, the secretary of Mr. McIntyre, the secretary of the Stone nasons' Union, says that in some cases the nand of the men will be granted, but nable to form an approximate estimate of unable to form an approximate estimate of the number who will go out this morning. Probably 100 will be affected, though it is possible the number may reach a larger figure. The likelihood of a probable adjustment of the difficulty seemed to be among the possibilities, according to Mr. McIntyre, but he would not say in what way it would be reached.

The journeymen carpenters of the city appear to be united in their trouble with the Master Carpenters' Association. "The present rate of wages," said a well-known journey sent rate of wages," saida well-known journey-man, "is 22½c, per hour minimum to qualified men. A while agothey asked the Association to pay 25c. to all men. Subsequently they agreed to leave the minimum rate at 22½c. provided the Association obliterated the words 'to qualified men' and insert an overtime clause. Then again we claim that the Association violated its agreement with us by altering the date of our giving notice for a change of by putting us back a month in this respect."
Well, the outcome of the trouble was that a mass meeting of carpenters was held Saturday evening in Temperance Hall to consider the situation. Mr. Alex Harris was in the chair.

The Use of Loons.

From the Bobcaygeon Independent.

The crazy screams of the loon are heard again through the silent watches of the night and at early morn. Seven were seen sporting themselves in Pigeon Lake the other morning. It will be a good thing if they become numerous around here as they will make magnificent sport for the innocent shootists who come in the summer with theff kits. If there is anything that will tickle a loon half to death it is to get a pair of ibreach-loading, nickle-mounted, doubt and twist, brown canvas, copper riveted throughout, city sportsman after him. He will stand on his head and kick at the olonds with delight.
