TUPSDAY MORNING MAY 14, 1889.

TENTH YEAR. THAT JAUNT TO ENGLAND.

THE COUNCIL DECIDES THE TREAS

URER AND MAYOR WILL DO.

Description of the proposed trip to Europe of His Worship, Ald. McMillan, Gillespie and the would be very well pleased if the council its wisdom would see fit to rescind the motion passed in the meeting on Friday night last, in so far that his name at least might be dropped. He had no desire to go across the coess at present, and was convinced that his friends at present, and was convinced that his matter be reconsidered. Ald. Boustead: "Your Honor, I was just going to move that the report of the Executive dealing with this matter be reconsidered." Ald. Boustead, but after a short wide.

Ald. Boustead. Boustead but after a short wide. Ald. McMillan and Gillespie could get along just as well without him as with him.

Ald. Boustead: "Your Honor, I was just going to move that the report of the Executive dealing with this matter be reconsidered."

Ald. Baxter objected strongly to the course proposed by Ald. Boustead, but after a short battle the council, by a large majority, sided with the member from St. James' Ward. Ald. Denison was thereupon appointed chairman

Denison was thereupon appointed chairman of the committee of the whole on the report.

Ald. Boustead moved that the report be amended by the striking out of the names of the Mayor and Ald. Gillespie and McMillan, and that the City Treasurer go alone. Ald. Gillespie moved that the report be sent back to the committee for re-consideration, when the whole question could be opened up and is your body which will be responsible. The city will be in a grave position should it not sind the money to neet its liabilities at the sime appointed."

The Gillespie amendment was put and defeated, gaining only three votes. Ald. Ritchie then moved that the name of the Mayor be added to that of the City Treasurer. He believed that was the proper course.

The Mayor: "I thank the adderman khildly for his remarks. I may say that his course was surgested to me several months ago by the chairman of the Executive. I wash to say that I am in the hands of the council, and, though at great personal monvenience to myself, if I am instructed to go to England, ko I shall."

Ald, Macdougall expressed his belief in the mecessity of the four gentlemen going. He had voted that way on Friday night, and heard nothing that could change his view. He explained the reason of his stand, and the speech he made won a good many of his colleagues to his side of the dispute.

Ald, Ritchie's amendment was then put and carried without opposition.

Ald, Fleming then moved thas the names of Ald, McMillan and Gillespie be added, thus going back to the original report. He held that it would be a direct insult to the chairman of the Executive to leave him out, and after him Ald, Gillespie was best fitted to go. The cost of the trip was a mere barastelle in comparison with the advantages which would accrue to the city in the end, Carlyle (St. Thos.) moved that the name of Ald. McMillan be added. This also was defeated.

In council Ald. Carlyle (St. And.) moved that the Mayor's name be struck out and that of Ald. McMillan substituted. This was withdrawn at the earnest request of Ald. McMillan. The report as amended carried.

Ald. Shaw then moved that Aid. McMillan be president of the council in the absence of the Mayor in England. This was adopted and the vexed conundrum as to those who will form the European contingent was settled at last.

His Lordship reserved judgment, which will be given as soon as possible.

will form the European contingent was settled at last.

Honest John McMillan sat in the members' room after the council decided that it was not necessary that he and Mr. Gillespie should sweep down on the bankers of Lombard-street in company with the Mayor and Treasurer, and he did not seem to be a whit disappointed at the result. The honor conferred upon him of making him president of the council evidently had a southing effect on the Finance Minister of the council, and if nothing else it will put him in practice for filling the Mayoral seat next year, for such are John's ambitions. It will now be in order for Brother John to get his "Q. C." suit of black, a shiny plug and several pairs of spotless white kids.

The town will heartily endorse the action of the council in deciding that, while it may be necessary to send Mayor Clarke and Mr. Condy, it would be downright nonsense and a waste of money to send two aldermen with them, not that Mr. McMillan and Mr. Gillespie might not fill the bill, but as being entired

The Mayor took the opportunity to present to the city of Toronto, on behalf of Mr. Henry Lye and others, the beautifully framed address presented to those Canadian residents of Chicago by Toronto on the occasion of their leaving their homes to defend their native land against the Fenian invader.

When the Board of Works' report came up for discussion Chairnian Carlyle explained that at the meeting on Monday, in compliance with the expressed wish of the Sherbourne-street property owners, instead of a grante sett-pavement from Queen to Gerrard streets as originally intended that an asphalt pavement be substituted. Ald, Hill objected that a deputation of gentlemen who had gone to the cities in the States had reported against allowing asphalt to be placed in streets where

When the nurse returned she found Mr. Douglas lying on his right side with what she supposed was an old coat or some covering thrown over his shoulders. She approached him with the water but he did not move. She was surprised and uneasy and went back quickly for a lamp. Returning to the room she saw at once that the bed clothes were dyed with blood. Dr. Hill was immediately summened. It was estimated that an enlargement could be made so as to accommodate 100 more persons at a cost of $4000. A number of suggestions were made as to bull ling another church, reseating and modernizing the present one, making the church a free church, and another was to erect a mission hall in the eastern portion of the parish. None of these suggestions met with a hearty approval. When the sub-committee of the Executive met in the Mayor's office on Friday, the chairman charged that he of St. George's Ward was trying to influence the Board of Trade to oppose the consolidation of the city debt. Last night Ald. McMillan took it all back and apologized to his colleague for making the charge, which he had made on the strength of a conversation with Mr. Edward Gurney.

This little difficulty smoothed over, Ald. Gillespie explained that in the same meeting he did not charge the Mayor with being politically biased, but that he was very politic.

But he purchased a hat at last
And he looks like a gentleman now.

He threw his old turban away,
What was the change, I ween;
The change was this—that he wore
A hat that was bought from Duncen.

THERE'S SOMETHING TO IT

FLOUR MEN ON OHANGE TALKING ABOUT THE PROPOSED COMBINE.

Plewes' Scheme Will Get to the Front A Talk With Prominent Mill Owners on the Subject.

On 'Change yesterday there was but one topic for discussion and that was The World's article on the proposed millers' combine. There sonage whose knowlege of flour mills is probably confined to the faculty of being able to distinguish between wheat and flour : "It's a shame for a paper like The World that has all romail consecuely shink that a worthy like Daniel Jereminh O'Donoghue, who was so buy at the public strongh, "could by any stretch of imagination be construed to be a workingmen, a leader in workingmen smovements. In a hurried inspection of the public handles of the public has been been sometiment of the public has been here and the public has been here and the public has been here and to do with him: when they found him or the pass time the public and the major one as a light and the pass from the working the public has been here and the public has been here and took as a light of the propose of the propose of the changes of the work in public has been here and took as the public and the work and the public and the public and to the public and the public and to the public and the pub the millers' meeting, when there will be an explosion.

There is another little question that arises in connection with this matter, and that is, who will have the onerous position of secretary? Many names are mentioned as suitors, but it is generally understood that the originator of the scheme, Mr. David Plewes, will have the honor and glory of this post. The reasons for saying this are that Mr. Plewes has been a hard worker in the cause, is a good talker, a blunt stump speaker, and of convincing and argumentative powers sufficient to make him just the proper man in this place. The only question is whether he would leave his business to take it were he nominated, and this Mr. Plewes himself can only decide.

"The Conquering Legion."

This was the subject of an admirable lecture in Elm-street Methodist Church last night by Rev. Dr. Peck of New York. The onquerors were those who did life's work spite of all opposition, difficulties and dangers. Valuable advice how to be of "The Conquering Legion" was given and examples and incentives we e cited galore." All baseball players chew Tutti Frutti.
