ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

The receipts on the market to-day were small, but prices continue unchanged in view of steady demand. There was a quieter feeling in butter, but no reduction was manifest, choice pound rolls still commanding 30c to 22c. Eggs in fair receipt and prices firm at 17c. Poultry was a little easier than yesterday, the supply being larger. Nice turkeys could be purchased at 16c to 15c, geese 10c to 12c, and chickens 80c to 81 per pair. There was an average supply of meats. Veal is quoted at 8c to 10c, lamb 9c to 11c and beef 4c to 35c for forequarters and 5c to 65c for hinds. Vegetables in moderate supply, with little change.
