PUCK CHASED VIGOROUSLY.

Rev. William Frizzell presided at the annual business meeting of Leslieville Presbyterian Church last night. The treasurer's report, presented by Mr. Thomas Pashby, showed that the receips for the year had been $2029 and the expenditure about the same. The assets are valued at $20,000, and the liabilities amount to $4,882. Mr. D. W. Waddell presented the session's report, which showed that 64 members had been added during the year, making a total of 225 members. The clothing and coal committee have spent $94 during the year. The Society of Christian Endeavor is supporting a Bible woman, who spends her whole time in laboring among the poor. In the Sabbath school $183 had been expended and $199 received. There were 300 scholars on the roll with average attendance of 250; $80 had been collected for missions.

Mr. Frizzell presented Mr. A. R. J. Sullens, the organist, a $20 gold piece on behalf of the members of the choir.

The members elected to positions on the managing board for 1892 are Messrs. A. J. Jackson, James Fox and William Potter. PUCK CHASED VIGOROUSLY.

WHY MONKRYS DON'T TALK.

Natives believe that monkeys only refrain from speaking lest, having shown their intelligence, they might be compelled to work. Pious Mahommedans say that the cry of the black partridge is to be translated, "Thine, O Lord, is the power"; while the Indian ring dove, they aver, has persistently cried, "Yusuf Ku" ("Joseph is in the well") ever since its ancestor made this remark when Joseph's brethren showed The charges against A. The keeper, when his bedfellow restless, "lazily stretches out an arm from his end of the cot, and dangles a tassel over his end of the cot, and dangles a tassel over the animal's head, which seems to soothe him." In the early morning Mr. Kipling has seen a cheetah "sitting up on his couch, a 'red blanket half covering him, his tas-selled red hood pushed awry, looking ex-actly like an elderly gentleman in a 'night-cap, as he yawned with the irresolute air of one who is in doubt whether he will rise or turn in for another nap." This is menof one who is in doubt whether he will rise or turn in for another nap." This is men-tioned as an instance of the curious intim-acy that exists in India between animals and those who have charge of them.

"What have you got there?" queried firs. Bowser, as her liege lord made a display of a small package when he came home the other evening.

"Mrs. Bowser." he replied, as he sat lown and carefully handled the package, "did you read of that case in Troy where a barber cut a customer alightly on the cheek and he died of blood poisoning."

"No. Say! you've gone and got another shaving outfit!"

"Another? When did I ever have one?"

"You got one two or three years ago in Detroit, and how did you come out with it in the first of any man I ever heard of in all my life!"

"I do, eh? Is it foolish for me to want to avoid blood poisoning by shaving myself, to say nothing of the enormous saving of money? Yes, I did get an outfit in Detroit, but I had a boil on my arm and couldn't handle the razor. That was a cheap outfit, just as an experiment."
