TO LONGER IS THE TOOT. TOOT OF THE PLEASURE STEAMER HEARD.

Trip Along the Bay Front and What the Observer Will Find-Passenger and Freight Steamers, Sailing Vessels and Yachts That are Tied Up for the Winter in Toronto's Harbor.

Toronto Bay is now fast in the icy ands of the tyrant Winter and the sheet of water erstwhile dotted with the white sails of trim sailing craft and o'erhung by the smoke of hundreds of steamers is now a field of ice which will soon be the scene of many a contest between swift ice yachts, which leave behind even the wind that propels them. Already the owners of sport in full swing.

On Monday last the bay was covered by a scum of ice, and on that day the last of the harbor buoys was taken in and the lights were not lit after Sunday night. Thus navigation concerned, on the 9th, rather earlier than the average date.
