WATFORD, DECEMBER 24, 1915.

BROOKE

Mrs. Charles Hyde, of St. Mary's, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. T. A. Logan.

Miss Sarah Logan, of Thorndale, who has been spending some time with her brother 6th line, returned home on Friday last.

Several items to hand this week which the writers have failed to sign—one an ad. for an entertainment. These cannot be inserted unless we know the sender.

The Christmas service will be held in St. James' church on Sunday morning. The service will be in keeping with the festival day. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion.

The Christmas service will be held in Christ church, Sutorville, on Sunday afternoon next. Special music will be given and there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion.

Jerrold Snell, son of the Rev. J. A. Snell, of Brooke Circuit, was the winner of the Gold Medal for general efficiency in the Parkhill high school last year. He was made the recipient of the medal at the commencement exercises in Parkhill last week. He is to be congratulated on attaining the much coveted honor of "Gold Medalist".

The Brooke Women's Institute purpose holding a splendid concert in Fisher's School 10th line, on New Year's Eve. The people of Maple Ridge are coming with that interesting and much provoking playlet "As a woman think-eth." The wait between acts to be filled with music and singing, every moment full of enjoyment that you can't afford to miss a splendid time. Come and bring your friends. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

On June 9th the Red Cross Workers' Union had their first meeting, and during six months faithful work on the part of the managing committee have contrived to send to the Red Cross the following supplies—30 quilts, 56 sheets, 32 pillows, 288 pillow-cases, 48 hospital shirts, 51 towels, 69 pair socks, 542 cheesecloth handkerchiefs, 2116 mouth wipes, 20 yards cheesecloth, 3 day shirts, 700 yards bandages, 73 face cloths, 4 cards safety pins, 1 suit underwear. The amount of money collected from teas, tags, autograph quilt, and voluntary giving is $221.88, they having $100 of that to their credit in the Bank. The first meeting was held at Mrs. Robert Long's as was the meeting of Dec. 8 and this being the last to be held in 1915, as an expression of good feeling, a tea was served, and a collection taken which amounted to $7.00. There are some 30 members but all were not present. The meeting closed by singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Again."

WARWICK

BOSANQUET COUNCIL

Council met on the 15th inst. pursuant to statute.

All the members present. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed.

The Commissioner for road division No. 2 was authorized to build a snow fence at the east end of the Ridge road.

con. 2.

Andrew Hall complained that he had a horse hurt by getting into a hole on a sideroad, and the Reeve and Mr. Thomson were appointed to investigate.

In the death of Mrs. Simon Blunden last Saturday the last survivor of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Rawlings, lake road, passed away. They were natives of England and came to Bosaquet in 1852, with four sons and a daughter. The sons were the late Hiram, Albin and Heber Rawlings, all well-known in this section, and the late Abner Rawlings, of Michigan. The daughter, Levenia, is the subject of this sketch. She was twice married. Her first husband was Hugh Whyte, of Bosaquet. Their only child, Lily, survives, and is the wife of Walter Rawlings Bosaquet. Her second husband, Simon Blunden, pre-deceased her about two months, dying Oct. 1st. The surviving children of this marriage are: Sanford Blunden, Mrs. Wm. Beattie, Mrs. Henry Hodgson and Miss Lena Blunden, all of Bosaquet. Two other daughters, the late Mrs. Wm. Hill and the late Mrs. H. Hodgson pre-deceased her.
