

gog His Excellency left for St. John, in the Hon. Col. Hayne's carriage, accompanied by Col. Hayne, A.D.C.; the High Sheriff; Capt. Robinson, R.N.; Lieut. Wells, and other gentlemen, and arrived at Maguadavic about 9 o'clock. After viewing the Mills &c., at 10 o'clock a deputation consisting of the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Parish of St. George, presented him with an address, to which he made an impromptu and appropriate reply; after which, all who wished to be introduced were presented to him, and met with a kind and affable reception. His Excellency then, attended by many gentlemen of the place, viewed its romantic scenery, from Wetmore's hill; and departed about half-past ten for St. John, amidst the cheers of the inhabitants, and a salute from the artillery company.

ST. ANDREWS AND QUEBEC RAILROAD.

It gives us much pleasure to announce, that the labourers who have been at work on the line of Railroad at present in course of construction, have been re-engaged for the winter months, and that the work will be carried on with vigour. We are also informed, that the buildings which were erected for them, are being fitted up in such a manner as to contribute much to the comfort of the occupants. In fact, the Directors of the Company are resolved to do everything that lies in their power to forward the work, and make the men employed, happy and contented.

We are also much gratified to state, that by the fast Mail from England, letters were received from the London Board by the Company here, from which we are warranted in stating, that the Company's prospects are brightening, notwithstanding the present depressed state of business in the Mother country, and that there is now every certainty of their fondest hopes being realized. We likewise observe, that our highly respected townsman John Wilson, Esq., President of the Company in this Province, and Benjamin Sharpe, Esq., the Managing Director of the London Board, have had the honor of a lengthened interview with Earl Grey, and also with Mr. Hives of the Colonial Office, for the purpose of urging the peculiar claims of the Company on the attention of Her Majesty's Government. They were received with the greatest courtesy, and were listened to with much attention. Such marks of respect from the Government are duly appreciated in the Colonies. It proves to the Colonists that the Government of the Mother Country are fully sensible of their claims, and that they shall be heard, and fostered, if required. As one of the beneficial results flowing from the interview with the Noble Secretary of the Colonies, Earl Grey has written a letter to the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad Company, stating that the Province of New Brunswick is fully solvent, and capable of meeting its engagements with respect to the guarantee of 6 per cent. on £100,000 for 25 years.

The Company's plan of Emigration, viz. of affording certain employment to the emigrants on their arrival for a time, until the men shall have overcome the first difficulties of their new position, is exciting much interest and attention in Great Britain, and has entitled them to be considered a Colonizing as well as a Railroad Company.

We may safely say, that the work now in progress on the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad, will be carried on most extensively during the ensuing spring.

The Lord Bishop of Fredericton, arrived here on Thursday last from Head Quarters, and on Friday morning confirmed a number persons in All Saints Church. His Lordship also visited St. David's and St. Stephens, and left here for St. John on Tuesday.

HON. ADMIRAL OWEN.—It is with pleasure we announce the arrival of Admiral Owen, here on Thursday last from his seat at Campobello. The gallant Admiral was warmly greeted by his numerous friends, and we are happy to add looks well and enjoys good health.

On Sunday last His Excellency Sir Edmund Head the Lieutenant Governor and Suite, paid an official visit to Her Majesty's Brigantine Viper, accompanied by the Gallant Captain. His Excellency seemed highly pleased with the ship, and expressed his admiration as to her state of discipline. All the honors due to the distinguished visitor were paid, and it is seldom we have seen in our Port a sight more imposing. The Yards were manned, and on his Excellency's disembarking a salute of 13 guns was fired in honor of his visit. Much credit is due to the noble Commander, for his loyalty and zeal upon this occasion, and we most sincerely hope that his immediate departure will not be of such continuance as to prevent our soon seeing him again in his adopted country.

Commander Bernard and his officers carry with them the best wishes of this community.—Com
