OBITUARY.

Charles Harry Armstrong.

Word was received on Monday by Dr. Armstrong of the sudden death at Winnipeg on Sunday evening the 4th inst. of his nephew, Charles Harry, son of the late Rev. R. O. Armstrong, whose death occurred in July last.

The deceased was in his 16th year, a student in the Preparatory Department of Wesley College, Winnipeg, a bright boy that gave much promise of a useful future. Death was due to meningitis following an operation for some ear trouble.

He is survived by his mother, a sister of Councillor Sydney Burke, of Ingonish and a relative of the Muggahs of Sydney, both families being among the best known and most highly esteemed in Cape Breton. One brother Edward, a student at Wesley College, Winnipeg, three sisters, two of whom Ruth and Jean are students at Wesley College, Louise, a stenographer in Winnipeg. Since the death of the deceased's father, Rev. R. O. Armstrong at Hartney, Manitoba, Mrs. Armstrong and family have resided in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Armstrong and family, who are quite well known in Nova Scotia, will have much sympathy in their severe bereavement that has followed so closely upon the death of Rev. Mr. Arms

LOWER GRANVILLE.

The B family who have been residents for a season have moved to the leaving the farm and house purc from Mr. Ralph Berry, our New neighbors may be expected near future.

The good Christmas season passed pleasantly and pleasantly in this vici social gatherings and good cheer all the while, notwithstanding inclement weather.

Everything ing on as usual, teachers re to daily duty. The ice harvest is at hand.

The Chr school concert given by Mis song's pupils on Dec 19th, was ved a great success. The New Y mes to us with joys and sorrow hidden, how will we meet the ar facing the New Year, safe in the knowledge that it holds nothing is dumb ng the hidden ways. Faith looks forward saith. Good is in everyth it come. God ordereth the days is the New Year Bliss—He and I am His all the ways days lead us home. Let us pay praise.

REVIEW OF PAST YEAR BY MAYOR HICKS.

As we [illegible] to the end of another year, our thoughts naturally take backward turn and we view retrospectively the days, weeks and months through which we have passed and wonder what progress we have made as a Town, a Province, or a Nation and it seems well for pause for a while at this mile stone of our journey and allow ourselves time for serious reflection. If a mistake or the fault the failure to accomplish the desired results in the past, that have perhaps been [illegible] we will endeavor to profit thereby and make [illegible] to put it on to welcome the New Year and from the dead ashes of our past failures [illegible] and better things. As a Province, I believe we have [illegible] a year of real prosperity [illegible] steadily improving [illegible] we pass with confidence [illegible] to greater [illegible] in our Nova Scotia [illegible] Provincial [illegible] with the [illegible] Province [illegible] Canadian province.

We speak of the lack of capital, we talk of not having markets. Let us give [illegible] fair inducements capital is ever seeking investments. Let us [illegible] by our own sheer will and energy make our own markets. Nova Scotia has enough young blood, if thoroughly aroused and allowed to circulate freely, that can obtain whatever it goes after. Let us have some big objective for 1925.

A Normal Year.

And now to come to my own fair town of Bridgetown situated in the centre of the vineyard of Nova Scotia. Bridgetown has experienced what might be termed a normal year, without any marked changes in business activities. We are naturally proud of our manufacturing houses which we believe hold first rank among the towns throughout the Valley. They all report a good average year. Retail business conditions have some what improved over last year and collections are coming in more freely.

A comparatively new industry over one that has become quite prominent and very successful is the raising of the silver fox. Within a five mile radius of town are to be found upwards of nine hundred ranches ready sale has been made of all pure bred breeding purposes, and it looks as if this industry were just in its infancy.

Social reform work and the activities of the various churches have gone on apace throughout the year. No better schools can be found in the Valley. Bridgetown is indeed fortunate in respect to its public school and present staff of teachers.

At least financially civic affairs are in good condition. Taxes are well collected, all bills paid and a substantial balance at credit.

The town has plans for some further permanent street work next spring which we trust will be carried.

Let us glean the wheat from the year that is closing, forgetting the chaff of failure and disappointment and—and wish you the New Year [illegible] hope and [illegible] of [illegible]

HENRY B. HICKS,
Mayor of Bridgetown.
