The NEW ARITHMETIC IS NOW READY.

PRICE, $1.00.

Hundreds of copies are being mailed daily.

More than half of the teachers of Canada have already ordered the book.

It contains twice as many examples as any other book now in use in Canada.

The problems and exercises are new. There is not a single poor problem in the book.

The work is better printed and more beautifully bound than any other school book issued in the Dominion.

Every teacher who has not a copy will be considered behind the times.

It is The Book for admission to High Schools, Intermediate and Teacher's Examinations.

The leading educationists of Toronto place The New Arithmetic in advance of all other arithmetics published

THE HINTS AND ANSWERS. Price 50 cents.

This is a neat little book containing the answer to every exercise contained in The New Arithmetic. It contains also hints to the solutions of the more difficult examples, and some excellent hints upon new methods. It is a very valuable companion to The New Arithmetic. Every teacher should have both.

GRAND SPECIAL OFFER.

To every reader of the EDUCATIONAL WEEKLY who, before June 20, 1885, sends us ONE DOLLAR, we shall mail post free a copy of The New Arithmetic, a copy of The Hints and Answers, a copy of the June number of The School Supplement. This offer will never be made again. Don't let it slip.

The June number of The School Supplement will be the finest number of that paper ever issued. It will contain a beautiful portrait of Mark Twain, with biographical sketch by T. C. L. Armstrong, M.A., LL.B.; a moonlight Mississippi scene; portraits and biographies of Bismarck and Florence Nightingale, illustrated lesson in railroad geography; ten columns of practical school-room matter; brief biographies; articles on old-time schools; and much miscellaneous reading.

The books are ready and will be forwarded to any address by return mail.

Address, EATON, GIBSON & CO, TORONTO, ONT.
