

view. The prayer meetings are a continual feast of good things. As a result the attendance is increasing each week, as well as that of the Sunday evening service.

Mr. Day is at present giving a series of sermons upon Bible arithmetic; they not only attract new comers; but the able exposition of scripture, and deep spiritual application, holds them. The last communion service was one long to be remembered, because of its solemn impressiveness. Eight united with the church; six by profession of faith, two by letter. We can not but feel that the Spirit of God is working in the hearts of His children, and with our thoroughly consecrated leader. God grant that these manifestations are only the dropping before a mighty shower!

TORONTO, DOVERCOURT.—The fourth anniversary of the Sabbath school, was held on Sunday, March 11th, when special sermons were preached to parents and children, at 11 a.m., by Rev. J. McD. Kerr, who discoursed from the words in Ps. xxxix: 4, at 3 p.m., Rev. T. T. Wilson, of Hope church, preached from Prov. x: 22, and at 7 p.m. Miss E. A. Macdonald spoke from 2 Sam. xx: 9, "Art thou in health." The discourses were of a highly instructive and helpful nature, very interesting to young and old. The scholars were seated on a large platform, and sang suitable hymns in a very pleasing manner, which spoke well for their musical trainer, J. D. Jones, Esq., of Parkdale, who so freely and kindly gave us his services. The attendance was very good at all the services, more particularly at the evening meeting, when it was found very difficult to seat all who came. This was followed by a largely attended prayer meeting, at which seven or eight persons of varied ages sought and found the Saviour, a joyful ending to a good day.

On the Wednesday evening following, tea was provided from 6 to 8, for the scholars and their friends, and full justice done the varied dainties provided. This was followed by a very interesting programme of singing, readings, recitations, etc., by the scholars, which was well received by the large audience, many of whom had to stand the whole evening. A collection was taken up for the school funds, and before the meeting broke up a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Jones, "for his kindness in undertaking the trying task of training the scholars to sing their anniversary hymns in so pleasing a manner," and very kindly acknowledged by a few appropriate words, and the audience was then dismissed with the benediction.

We will (D.V.) commence a week of revival meetings, on Sunday, March, 18th, the morning service being in charge of the pastor, Rev. Thos.

Webb, and the evening meeting in charge of B. J. Hill, Esq.

The week-night meetings will be conducted by Rev. T. H. Adams, and a soul-saving time is expected. Pray for us! W. P. B.

TORONTO, BOND STREET.—The Bond Street Sunday School is showing marked signs of improvement. The Annual Children's Festival was very successful and thoroughly enjoyed, particularly by the scholars. The tea was one of the best ever spread in Bond Street on a similar occasion, and the programme excellent.

A Sunday School orchestra has been organized under the direction of Professor Browne, and leads the singing with a vigorous swing.

The Society of Christian Endeavor in Bond St. is thriving under the leadership of the president Miss Lillie Smith, assisted by the able secretary.

The Annual Festival of our Chestnut St. Mission was held last month, which was very successful. Dr. Sims presided. Mr. Potts, the superintendent, feels very grateful for the bounteous contribution of provisions made by those interested; there was plenty to eat and some to spare. The programme was excellent, which was rendered by the scholars. —Bond St. Gazette, for March.

HAMILTON, IMMANUEL CHURCH.—The lot has been purchased for our new site. Plans presented and accepted, and the removal and enlargement will be well under way when this appears in print. We are compelled to find more room for our Sunday School and evening congregations. The Sunday School attendance is now about 120. Financial help is very much needed, for we are going on with the work with practically only a few dollars on hand. We have to provide for an expenditure of about $1700, and are hoping for some assistance.

LISTOWEL.—On Tuesday, February 27th, death removed one of Listowel's oldest citizens, in the person of Mrs. Janet McGregor, widow of the late Rev. R. McGregor. The deceased died at the residence of her grandchildren, the family of the late Dr. Nichol, where she had lived since her husband's death, over thirty years ago. Rev. Mr. McGregor was the first Congregational minister in Listowel. The deceased lady was in her 88th year, and, by all who knew her, was held in great esteem for her Christian virtues. The remains were interred in the old cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, last week, beside those of her deceased husband.—Local Paper.

SOUTH CALEDON.—The churches at Caledon and Churchhill are without libraries for their Sabbath Schools, and are very anxious to have some inter-
