THE YEAR.

BY THE LATE REV. LEIGH RICHMOND.

The vears roll on, the years roll on, and shadows now strotch o'er the lawn, Whereon the sunlight fell at morn—
The morn of mortal life;
And cusky hours to me have come
Life's landscape now looks drear and dumb,
And quenched the light, and ceased the limm
With which my way was rife.

I now look backward on the path
Whereon I've walked 'mid wrong and wrath .
I look, and see how much it hath
Of bitterness to tell.
But life's hard leavon must be learned —
By goading care is wisdum carned :
Then upward let the eye be turned.
And all carth's scenes are well!

On roll the years, the swift, still years? And as they pass, how feeling, sears! How drieth up the tent of tears! Emution's fires grow dim. This pulse of his not long can last, And as the years go herrying past, The bluoms of life are earthward east, And withered heart and limb.

The years, the years sublimely roll, Unfurling, like a lettered scroll! Look on, and garner in thy soul The treasures of their lore. It is God's writing there we see; O, read with deep intensity! Its truth shall with thy spirit be When years shall roll no more.

Sir,—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eightycare I suffered unceasingly from attacks of crysipelas. large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasautifeeling of liching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to all around—so severe was the attack. I used soveral reputed remedies without deriving the least ceasanton to my misery. At 1881, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills: after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better:—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health, The truth of this statemen: is well known hers, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy.

Sir.—Biy sister, Bliss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a had icy in which there were several deeply scatted and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most ominont of the medical faculty, a variety of remedics were also used unsuccessfully: and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of midgating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about Ivo weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief, I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known.

I remain, Sin, your most obedient Berrant, [Signed] EDWD. TOMKINSON.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854.

To Propessor Hollowax,

Sir.—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There was several holes in it, one as large as a hand, all the devices and strategems I tried would not heal them, but assumed an aspecting frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persovered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time ther breast was almost well, by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure affected.
